Your Committee, to whom was referred that portion of the Bishop's Address on Religious Education, herewith reports:

It is unnecessary to repeat the thoughts of the Bishop in his Address. Among the important questions that can engage the attention of this Convention this holds the first place. Mere words, however wise or stirring, cannot avail for results at all commensurate with the magnitude of this subject. The time for action has come. Your Committee recognizing this had proposed offering resolutions which, as it believes, would place on a sure and sound basis, a high and progressive Religious and Church Education in the Diocese. But finding their proposed action anticipated by the Standing Committee on Sunday School Work, we need only report our Committee's hearty endorsement of their resolutions, which will be submitted in their report.

B. E. REED, Chairman.
GEORGE F. TAYLOR.
HERBERT D. CONDIE.

Report accepted.

The Rev. Mr. Phillips presented the report of the Committee on the CHURCH NEWS, as follows:

St. Louis, May 28th, 1913.

To the Seventy-fourth Convention of the Diocese of Missouri:

Your Committee on THE CHURCH NEWS begs to submit herewith its report covering the fiscal year, June, 1912, to May, 1913, inclusive, as follows:

The paper has been issued and circulated on time each month during the past twelve months.

The last two numbers of the paper have been issued under the direction of the Reverend W. A. Masker, Jr., who was duly appointed Editor by the Bishop following the resignation of the Reverend L. B. Richards.

The Rev. Z. B. T. Phillips was duly appointed Chairman of this Committee to succeed Reverend Mr. Potter, resigned.

Owing to changes by the Post Office Department 10 months ago, whereby Ferguson Post Office was made a part of the St. Louis City Postal District, it became necessary to pay the regular 1-cent per copy rate in lieu of 1-cent per pound on all copies of the paper circulated in St. Louis and suburbs, which represents a large majority of the total subscription list. This change involved an extra expense of approximately $100.00 over and above the expenses of last year.

In view of this and other conditions, your Committee offers the appended resolutions relating to the future policy of the paper.

Balance Sheet for the fiscal year, June, 1912, to May, 1913, inclusive, is attached hereto.

Respectfully submitted,

Z. B. PHILLIPS,

Prof. Snow reported for the special committee on that part of the Bishop Coadjutor's address referring to Kirksville:

The Committee appointed to consider that portion of the address of the Bishop Coadjutor regarding the Church in Kirksville, beg leave to make the following report:

The situation at Kirksville has been so fully set forth in the address of Bishop Johnson that little can be added. Some additional details, however, may be of service.

The church property in Kirksville is a lot of land and a church building, or rather four lots, each 117 by 108 feet, and on the corner of one of the lots, the N. W. corner, the church building, in much need of repair. Paving on the street on the west side cost the Church about $550, of which about $300 are now past due.

The street on the north is to be paved soon and a brick sidewalk ordered; all of which will mean an expenditure of about $600. Not more than two or three persons can be counted on for financial aid in this emergency, or to pay the interest on money if raised by a mortgage. It might be possible to sell a part of the land not occupied by the church building, but all parties are reluctant to lose any portion of this church holding.

The Standing Committee of the Diocese in co-operation with the Bishop Coadjutor is giving the matter careful study, and hope soon to be able to give the few faithful Church people there helpful advice. If the burden of $300, now due, could be lifted soon, the situation would be greatly improved, and an important place preserved intact for future activity. If $1,000 could somewhere be had without encumbering or alienating this property, hope for the future might be realized. The Committee offer no formal recommendation, but commend to the members of the Convention and to any generous souls, in or outside of the Convention, this opportunity to do a possibly great service to the Church in this Diocese, and to hundreds of young men and women who make Kirksville their temporary home.

Respectfully submitted,

A. BRITAIN.

MARSHALL S. SNOW.

A. B. AMBLER.

They commend his desire to devote all his time and energies to the building up of his brethren as a priest of the Church, and they are as one with him in the opinion that the Church should make this possible. To bring this about at this present time would so largely disintegrate his present labors, and cause a scattering of them over at least six dioceses, for him to receive any adequate support, without any real sense of permanency, that your Committee are unable to recommend it as practicable or advisable now.

APPENDIX No. 1.

Annual Address
OF THE
Bishop of Missouri,
TO THE
Seventy-fourth Annual Convention.

Dear Brethren of the Clergy and Laity:

For the whole year you have been led by two Bishops. And we are come together to tell of the doings thereof. My thanks are due and are given to God's loving kindness in sparing me for the year. And thanks are added to thanks for the help given by the Bishop Coadjutor. The Diocese has been considerate and kind and generous in providing that help. And the Bishop has been most thoughtful and kindly and devoted and faithful in giving that help. The result has been, sweet relief for me from overwork, freedom from that worry which not seldom engenders fretful activities of impatience and unwisdom, and a peaceful consciousness that while I cannot now do this or that or the other thing for the Diocese, this or that or the other thing is done and is done rightly and wisely and effectively by my faithful brother, and so the Diocese does not suffer loss.

Three Bishops have died during the year.

Bishop Grafton at 82. At his death he was the oldest man in the House of Bishops. Bishop Scarborough, of New Jersey, is now the oldest. Bishop Grafton served Fond du Lac for twenty-three years. He was possessed of private means and he used them unstintingly in support of the Church and missionaries in his Diocese, and died a poor man. Of spotless integrity, of saintly character and of untiring industry, his devoted life counted for much to his own Diocese and to the Church at large.

Bishop Jaggar was a classmate with Bishop Robertson and myself in the General Theological Seminary. He was noted among us in those early days for his beauty of diction and his eloquence. For fourteen years he was sole Bishop of Southern Ohio; then for fifteen years more, in a condition of impaired health, its Diocesan helped by a Bishop Coadjutor; and then for nine years a resigned Bishop, filling out an Episcopate of nearly thirty-eight years. For the last four years he had charge of the American Churches on the Continent of Europe, and this office he discharged with signal zeal and success. He died in France on his field of duty in his seventy-fourth year.

While writing this address the wire flashed to me the sad news of the death of Bishop Doane. I had hoped that he would be spared to us for the coming General Convention in October next. I know of no one who more faithfully and assiduously than he discharged his duty in and to the House of Bishops. He was wise in his leadership and untiring in his labors therein. He was Vice-President of the Board of Missions for twenty-four years and died in the harness of its active duties. God mercifully spared his mental powers in their strength and alertness to the last. And we did desiderate his help and guidance once more in the House. But God hath ordered otherwise. God's will be done! A chieftain of Israel hath fallen, after eighty-one years of earthly life and forty-four of them the crowded years of a busy bishop's life.

There has been no break by death in the list of the Clergy of the Diocese during the last year, though three who were formerly with us have died; the Rev. H. L. Anderson, once at Crystal City; the Rev. J. M. McBride, once at De Soto, and also at Kirksville, and the Rev. A. K. Smith, once a faithful assistant at the Cathedral.

But men and women have fallen out of the ranks of the Church Militant all over the Diocese. More of them than I can enumerate. Some of them are,—Judge Sanford, of Jackson; Mr. Luther, of St. James, and Dr. Johnson, of Rolla. All three of these had been Wardens in the Church. Also Mr. Peironnet and Mr. Albert, of Cape Girardeau; Col. Clay, of Mexico; Mr. Benbow, of Canton; Mr. Turnbolt, of Louisiana; Mr. Chittenden, of Ascension; Mr. Sullivan, of Holy Communion, and Mr. Henry Smith of St. Philip's, St. Louis. All these had been vestrymen. And Mr. Fanning, a most devoted and successful worker among the poor and in our Hospital Missions. Among the women, in St. Louis, Mrs. Bascome, of St. Peter's; Mrs. Mallinckrodt, of the Cathedral, and Mrs. Vashon, of All Saints; and Mrs. McCabe and Mrs. Kemp, of Palmyra, and Mrs. Gratz, of Kirkwood, and Mrs. Colvert, of Nadine, and dear old Mrs. Stimson, of St. James, faithful, loyal, cheerful, dying in her ninety-seventh year. Nos morituri salutamus. We that are about to die unfold the diptychs and count up the names and salute the dead. We thank God for their faithfulness and help. We pray God mercifully to have us in His holy keeping that we too may be faithful and helpful in whatever of earthly life is to us yet spared.

Speaking in a Church Convention and to Church people gathered therein, may I say that our loyalty to the Prayer Book will be to no inconsiderable degree the measure of such helpfulness and faithfulness. What a sheet anchor to the faith is the creed fixed therein, and in one or another of its forms, everlastingly recited! What an abounding richness of the truth of Holy Scripture is presented in the Epistles and Gospels and Psalms and Lessons prescribed! What an all around wholesome and harmonized completeness of instruction is furnished by the ever recurring and never changing revolutions of the Christian year which are embodied! How the things to believe and the things to do and the source and method of getting the help to do are summed up and made known in that wonderful epitome, the Catechism! And how ruled and guarded and hallowed are the administration and reception of the precious grace giving sacraments which are enshrined in the book! Do we take in as fully and as thankfully as we ought what a blessed guide and instructor for our spiritual life is provided in the Prayer Book? It is a steadying force. Firmness in the faith and stability of conduct are promoted by it. It has a corrective influence. Things liable to be pushed too far are taken in hand by it and wisely directed, and things likely to be left out are wholesomely supplied. It is a protector to the laity from changes that confuse and chances that endanger. Next to the Holy Scriptures and because it is itself for the most part Holy Scripture it is illumination to the mind and guidance to the body and food to the soul and a beacon light for spiritual experience. To us of the clergy it is entrusted as an instrument of help to the wandering souls of men. Ought we not to be scrupulously careful in exercising the trust? And that, for the good of the souls of men and out of our duty to work such good. Besides that we have solemnly promised to minister in the way that "this Church hath received the same," and such way is undeniably the way which the Prayer Book lays down. Dear Brethren of the Clergy, if some of us to please our individual liking do venture to interpolate into our public services things which the Prayer Book does not provide, or to subtract things which the Prayer Book does provide, will we not thoughtfully take ourselves in hand and ask ourselves honest questions about such things as violation of trust and infringement of the rights of the laity?

I have just been reading over Bishop Robertson's last address to his Diocesan Convention. That of 1885. In not a few respects things are now as they were then. Many vacant pastorships. Frequent changes in pastorship. Difficulties in getting contiguous parishes to work together and to give together so as to furnish support for a pastor. Fewness of confirmees. Wonderings as to how and where the wastage in the number of communicants arises. In the fewness of confirmees our showing is not so good as that of 1885. Bishop Robertson reported 536 confirmed that year, and his communicant list was 6,257. We two Bishops report this year only 559 confirmed, and our communicant list is 8,015.

But in some things figures and facts are better. Look at those communicant lists. The Diocese of Missouri was in area the entire State of Missouri in 1885. It had 6,257 communicants. Our Diocese of Missouri is the half of the State of Missouri now, and it has 8,015 communicants. The whole State gave then about $2,000.00 for Diocesan Missions. The half State now, which is the Diocese of Missouri, gives $8,000.00.

Two important institutions of the now did not exist then. I refer to St. Stephen's House and Holy Cross House. No one who visits these will list them as simply philanthropies. They are dynamic centres of blessed spiritual influence. They have called out generous benefactions. They are working out hallowed benedictions. Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Donaldson kindly gave a hundred acres of land, more or less, in St. Louis County for the building of St. Stephen's Chapel-in-the-Hills and for a recreation place for the always crowded and summer heated multitudes of St. Stephen's House. Nor were they content to stop there; but they generously added the gift of a house and lot near St. Stephen's of the city to protect it and enlarge its usefulness. Of the great and wholesome good outworked by St. Stephen's under the Rev. Mr. Mizner, the city authorities know and the police know and the neighborhood knows and any visitor who will go down to see it can know.

In Holy Cross, under the Rev. Mr. Taylor, there is the same blessed neighborhood uplift. Dr. Hild and Miss Skinker are unselfish and unwearied in giving out Dispensary help. Deaconess Brainerd, succeeding Deaconess Anne, who was as it were the mother of Holy Cross, is a cheery embodiment of gracious succor and wise restraint. And right here I want to say acknowledgment to the Churchwoman's Club. I do not know much about the club. I do not know who are its officers. I do not know how and where it gets its money. But I do know that for years this blessed Churchwoman's Club has quietly and steadily and, almost unknowingly to other people, supported and taken care of Deaconess Anne and Deaconess Brainerd and their needs. I know not much about the air. I can't see it, even if I can see through it. I can't count up its mass or compute its value. But I feel it and I breathe it. It fills my heart and warms my blood and lifts my life, and my thanks simply overflow. There is a managing syndicate for Holy Cross. Mr. Henry C. Scott was the faithful head of it. Mr. Churchill Whittemore is the no less faithful head of it. Mr. J. E.

Williams and Mr. E. S. Gatch are the lieutenants. And other helpers stand by. All this is a trust. But not a conspiracy in restraint of anything. A real, beneficent and blessing trust indeed, under which the triple twisted tree of faith and hope and love can root itself happily and lift its fruits heavenward steadily.

That last one of Bishop Robertson's Conventions! Of 1885, twenty-eight years ago! Its survivors with us to-day or round about us are few indeed. Of the Clergy, only Mason and Hatch and John Davis and Reed. Though Wilkins was just taking up his maiden pastorate at Boonville. Of the laity, Freeborn and Snow and McMaster and Burgess and Skinker and Cochran and Phillips and Mackey and Lycett and J. J. Rogers, with F. C. Whittemore as assistant secretary, and Miss Triplett as the secretary of the Woman's Auxiliary. Some are left to us but more have been taken. God help us who are left to stand by the Diocese and to help on the Diocese and to work for the Diocese while we are still spared to work!

The two new churches in St. Louis Parishes, St. Paul's and St. Michael and All Angels', are or are soon to be occupied. With the material betterments their spiritual activities will, we may be assured, expand.

The Diocesan League of Lay Readers has helped very considerably indeed to diminish the damage entailed by vacant pastorships, and I beg hereby to return to the League loving thanks. It was thought best this year to terminate on April 30 the licenses of all Lay Readers. The two Bishops, each in his own field, are now renewing the same.

In April the General Board of Religious Education favored St. Louis with one of its regular meetings. The presence of the members gathered from all over the land was an inspiration. I hope that we shall be ready to do our share in giving of time and money for promoting the excellent objects which this canonically created Board has in view.

The Woman's Auxiliary is an important element of Diocesan work and is very much alive and active. It is far-sighted, too, for it has a Junior Auxiliary and a Babies' Branch. In figures, it has given for missionary help this year—boxes sent, $2,238.85; cash, $6,767.29, making a total of $9,006.14.

In giving funds it gives itself in faith and hope and love, in interest and sympathy and sisterliness, in such a way that warmth of harmony and growth in unity are greatly furthered. The Missionary Institute which it recently conducted at St. Peter's was an exceedingly successful venture. The women seem no little interested in the question how this Church can best do its work in our important university town, Columbia. A Committee was appointed last year to consider this matter and to confer with the other Missouri Diocese and to report to this Convention.

The Sunday Schools have sent in Lenten offerings for General Missions of $2,400.00; about the same amount as last year; and I do not think they will fail in pouring in $1,000.00 again for the Missionary Host next Sunday. They will be glad to see their lovers and friends in attendance with them in their annual meeting at the Odeon next Sunday at three o'clock.

The Diocese is not dead. It is very much alive. Here are some of its activities and vitalities besides those already mentioned.

St. Luke's Hospital, with its efficient Training School for Nurses.

The Orphans' Home, a woman's organization, where near a hundred children are wholesomely and most helpfully cared for.

Another woman's organization, a blessed and blessing charity, the Convalescent Home, a shelter place for women who, discharged from the Hospital, are not yet quite strong enough to take up work.

And another woman's organization more, the Sisterhood of the Good Shepherd, educating scores of girls in Bishop Robertson Hall, and busied in charity work that comes before it and going forth into North St. Louis to start a Mission Sunday School of the Christ Child.

And yet other woman's organizations in the Girls' Friendly Society and the Daughters of the King and St. Barnabas Guild of Nurses.

The men of the Diocese also have their organizations,—of the Church Club and the Brotherhood of St. Andrew. And the Hospital Missions in their organization, and their constituency and their merciful ministrations furnish a blessed and blessing service. The Committee on the Church News, too, and the Committee on the University of the South do things. I must indeed claim that the Diocese is very much alive.

I think you will find that the Bishop Coadjutor's statements will support the truth of this.

We both, having been Missionary Bishops, are deeply interested in the work of General Missions. And we are sensitive over the seeming danger of our Diocese failing to measure up to its duty and to lay hold of its privilege in the matter of missionary giving. We are asked for $13,574.00. Up to April 1 the Church Missions House of New York credits us with payment of $2,982.32. Only 4 out of 65 Parishes had sent in their full apportionment.

Twenty-one had not sent anything. Five months of the fiscal year may be reckoned as yet unexpired. But they are not months to be best counted on for giving. Of course the children's $2,400.00 will flow in. But even then the sum will count up only $6,000.00, and our apportionment is $13,000.00. And pay day closes August 31. I do not wish to croak or to complain. I warmly thank all givers,—the children, the women, the parishes. But I must tell out that one of the strongest desires ever beating against the walls of my containing heart is that Missouri will do its duty and claim its privilege in meeting and paying year by year its share for Missions as assigned to it in the apportionment.

Nineteen years of a Missionary Bishop's life showed me plainly how necessary it is for these apportioned givings to go steadily on if the work among unshepherded people and in waste places is to go on. And it hurts my heart when the steady givings do not go on.

How the calls for the Gospel come in from all sides! And how, if they are to be heeded, the steady giving must go constantly on! The three meals each day for sustaining bodily health! How unchangingly steady and constant they must be! And to the earnest Christian how unchangingly steady and constant must be the sympathy and love and help and giving for Missions!

Can one look at China as a special field of present missionary work and be unmoved? The open doors presented are wonderful. Open doors for trade and commerce. Open doors for education. Open doors for association and friendship. And open doors, blessed and blessing, for the glad tidings of Christ's Gospel. The world is amazed that in that land of gray traditions and grave conservatisms an almost bloodless revolution has changed the government and is bringing in and fixing in place principles of liberty and responsibility and self restraint and faith and hope and love. And those who know tell us that not a few of the leaders in the revolution and the reconstruction are Christian Chinamen taught first by the missionaries and now gladly owning Christ for their Master and their King. Doors of light, doors of opportunity, doors of progress, doors of life are opening to three hundred millions or four hundred millions of our fellow men. Can we find it in our hearts not to make haste to help to open doors also of Christ's truth and Christ's brotherly kindness and Christ's love and Christ's kingship before their amazed eyes? No louder call for spiritual help has the earth ever heard before. Shall we not lend a hand and do our part? It is meet and right so to do. And God help us so to do! And God mercifully bless us every one so doing! Amen.

Annual Address of the Bishop Coadjutor

TO THE

Seventy-fourth Annual Convention

Church in the Diocese of Missouri.

My dear Elder Brother Bishop; and my dear Brethren of the Clergy and Laity:

I deem it right to say that this address was in its present form before Bishop Tuttle delivered his address in the Cathedral this morning. I think it right to say that neither of us has talked at all with the other as to the things which ought to be emphasized in our addresses.

A year ago I was practically a stranger to you all and to the work. To-day I know something of that portion of the field especially committed to my care.

During the Convention year I have confirmed within the Diocese 182 persons. In South Dakota, at the request of the Presiding Bishop, I confirmed 5. I have administered the regenerating and incorporating sacrament of Baptism to 6 infants. On 36 occasions I have administered the strengthening and refreshing sacrament of the Supper of the Lord. I have officiated at 1 marriage. I have issued licenses to 13 Lay Readers. Not including addresses to Sunday Schools, I have preached and made addresses in the Diocese in churches and in schools to the number of 136.

The statistical reports made to the Convention in May of last year showed that the following organized missions were without pastoral care: Canton, Ironton, Kirksville, Portland, Rolla, Poplar Bluff, Fredericktown, Cuba, Fulton, Jackson, Montgomery City, Sherman, Shelby. Added to these, in St. Louis the pastor of the important mission of St. Mary's had resigned; but he was consenting to keep the church open on Sundays (engaged in secular business on week-days) until his successor could be found.

A year ago the vacant missions were, therefore, 14. Gratefully giving to God the praise, we are enabled to show that the portion of the field entrusted to the Bishop Coadjutor is in better case than it was a year ago.

Canton has pastoral visitations and fortnightly Sunday services of the Rev. John C. Sage, rector of St. Paul's Church, Keokuk, Iowa.

Ironton, from September 1 to March 1, had pastoral visitations and fortnightly Sunday services of the Rev. J. A. Stansfield, rector of Trinity, De Soto; service being read by Mr. A. V. Polak, local lay reader, on alternate Sundays, and sessions of the Sunday School maintained. Mr. Stansfield left De Soto in March to accept what seemed to him a call to higher service; but another man is in sight in whose hands I hope to put the charge of De Soto and Ironton at once.

Rolla, which had been vacant since September 1, 1911, welcomed Rev. H. Nelson Tragitt at the beginning of July. The faithfulness and thoroughness which characterized his labors for fifteen years on South Dakota plains have been exemplified again in Rolla; and pastor and people are working affectionately and helpfully and successfully together.

Cuba, without ministrations since April, 1911, is having fortnightly Sunday evening services of Rev. Mr. Tragitt, of Rolla, since January of this year.

Poplar Bluff, after a vacancy of six months, was taken in charge in November by Rev. F. M. Weddell, of the Diocese of Kansas City. This faithful man of God needs no words of mine to commend him to the Diocese of Missouri. His fifteen years of faithful labor at Rolla, adorning the Gospel of Christ in all things, are his sufficient credential. Poplar Bluff is steadily responding to his spiritual touch.

Fredericktown is having a monthly Sunday service of the Rev. Mr. Weddell. On other Sundays lay services are read by Mr. D. P. Shuler, a business man of the town, and a Sunday School is maintained.

Fulton, practically closed since Rev. Henry P. Horton left Columbia in 1911, is ministered to by Rev. J. H. Harvey, of Mexico. Mr. Harvey goes for pastoral calls and week-day evening services (followed by the Holy Communion next morning) twice each month; and his ministry is blest.

St. Mary's Mission, St. Louis, was placed in charge of Rev. Linden H. White, of Fall River, Mass., beginning with December, 1912. When I invited Mr. White to join us in our work, word came to me at once that Mr. White was successfully and happily busy with a parish of 540 communicants; that the Bishop of Massachusetts needed him where he was; and that there was no reason why he should leave. These were three of the best reasons in the world why he seemed to me worth while. We cannot do our best work for Missouri with clergy who can easily be spared by other bishops, can we? Since the coming of Rev. Mr. White, 100 additional communicants have been located and called on, some of whom have identified themselves with the worship and support of the mission. St. Mary's Guild shows earnings of $400 during the year. The Sunday School shows an average attendance of 32. The report printed by the Convention a year ago, credits St. Mary's with $57.47 for all missionary purposes and objects within and without the Diocese. The report for the year just ended shows money raised for missionary purposes $119.11; a gain of 100 per cent. St. Mary's total budget a year ago was about $1,300. This year it is about $2,300; and this includes only $85 from Diocesan Missions and nothing from Bishop's Purse or Missionary Host. The Duplex Envelope is winning its way at St. Mary's. I am so much in the country that my acquaintance with city Church matters is rather superficial still. But I am persuaded that no section of the city is more promising for the Church than that which should eventually form the parish of St. Mary's. And I am persuaded that now is the accepted time. Those of us who know our various places of worship in St. Louis will recall how meagre is the "plant" of St. Mary's—a little cement block building of one small, low-ceilinged room, in a rapidly developing section of modern homes and dwellings. That the congregations are large, the worship hearty, and the financial support good, is sure proof of a devoted people and a devoted pastor working in faith and hope and unity of purpose together. Given an adequate plant, strong, outreaching work waits to be done by St. Mary's. I should be most glad if any generous-hearted man or woman whom God has blessed and prospered would give me the privilege of suggesting a way by which I entirely believe the Church might now grasp an opportunity in that part of St. Louis which, neglected now, will not return again.

In the eight paragraphs immediately preceding I have tried to show that something is really doing in 8 of the 14 points which were a great anxiety to me a year ago. Of the remaining 6, only one, Portland, has much hope or heart just at present; and Portland is so situated that it is practically impossible just now to minister to it in any but a very desultory way. There are probably about 18 communicants resident in Portland at this time, some living on farms three or four miles from the village. There is a population of about 200. The distance from St. Louis is about 116 miles. I know of no way by which to minister to it now from any point nearer than this city. The League of Lay Readers would serve gladly. But they are business men and professional men. They must have their eyes on schedules. To reach Portland for a Sunday service, one must leave St. Louis at midnight of Saturday. The train is due at Portland 3:35 in the morning; too late for much sleep. Returning, the train leaves Portland on Monday at 3 in the morning and reaches St. Louis at 7:30; our businessman lay reader having had no opportunity for "refreshing sleep to fit him for the duties of the following day." Unless the wearisome schedule indicated above is followed, three whole days are required to go up from this city to Portland and hold a Sunday service and return. (On two or three occasions during the year a lay reader has gone up from this city; and one Sunday Rev. D. A. Parce volunteered for extra-parochial duty, and I sent him. Rev. Mr. Duckworth, during several years, has been there several times.) A cement block church is at Portland.

Jackson is also a place which, according to our present system, it is practically impossible to serve by a clergyman. There is an attractive frame chapel on a beautiful lot. I think only two communicants are there. Last summer Horatio N. Tragitt, one of our candidates for holy orders, spent three months in Jackson, and was very helpful indeed to the people. He is graduating this week at Columbia University, New York, and I shall send him to Jackson for the summer. Without an expenditure of funds which no man's business sense would stand for, I see no chance at present for services other than those of a lay reader at Jackson.

Sherman has a chapel in a forest, builded years ago by a pious layman on a portion of his property. It is on the Missouri Pacific, 24 miles from St. Louis. On Sundays this layman used to rally the children in the neighborhood for catechising, and with the Prayer Book in his hands used to lead his neighbors in the Church's worship. All is changed now. The man who built the chapel and his family are gone; some to the big city, some on the journey toward the continuing city which is for to come. There is no one living now in the little hamlet who leads the worship. Just recently I confirmed a little girl in Sherman. I gave the Holy Communion to four persons; but we have there only two communicans. There is no worship in the village on Sunday unless we of this Church provide it. Perhaps the League of Lay Readers can work out with me some plan by which we can have Sunday service and a Sunday School.

Shelbina is 167 miles from St. Louis on the Burlington. I was there in March. There are five communicants. Before I came to the Diocese the mission at Shelbina had sold its church lot. It is the judgment of our few people there that a visit from the Bishop once each year is all they should expect.

Montgomery City. In December I wrote to say that I would gladly go out to celebrate the Christmas season with the little handful of our Church folk at Montgomery. My letter brought the following kind response: "I hardly think it will be practicable to have service at that time, as we have had but one service for a year. That was when Bishop Tuttle was here in moderate weather. We have no means of heating the church in a proper manner should the weather be cold. Everything would require a cleaning and overhauling. My wife and I are the only ones that will be here at that time. We are both past eighty-two years old and don't feel able to properly attend to getting things ready in cold weather. I thank you very kindly for writing me as you did, but I think it will be better to defer your visit until spring." On a recent visit in fair weather I found four communicants. The church building is practically unusable in all weathers. I really should like to help to do something spiritually for Montgomery. But the Missionary Board must take the initiative, I think, if anything is to be done. There is scarcely enough vitality now in Montgomery to respond to the summons, "Stretch forth thine hand."

In the preceding five paragraphs I have accounted in some sort for five more of the places which were among the 14 vacancies a year ago. Eight and five are thirteen. There remains one to speak of, vacant last year, vacant still; namely, Kirksville.

Kirksville appears in our diocesan records as having been vacated in July, 1910; eighteen months before the Bishop Coadjutor came to Missouri. It was among the first places visited when I came to my task. I was impressed then, and the impression has been intensified on several subsequent visits, that the Church has a duty to Kirksville which she is not now discharging. I believe that we ought to make generous appropriation of funds to Kirksville; an appropriation bearing no necessary ratio to the amount pledged by the local congregation. Why? Why, because Kirksville has a Normal School enrollment of something like 800 pupils.

These are not young men and young women who have come here from New England or from California to receive an education in Missouri and to return whence they came. They are indigenous to Missouri soil. They are among our best, or they wouldn't be scrabbling to get an education. The years they spend in Kirksville are paying years, not earning years. We have no right to expect that they can pay much toward Church support; and yet, if there are communicants of ours in the Normal School, they are reported in the list of local Church members of Trinity Church. As I understand it these young men and women are practically committed to spending several years at least in positions in this state of Missouri in which they are to have unusual opportunities of moulding and shaping the lives of others according to whatever pattern they have themselves been shaped. We of this Church believe that this Church is in possession not of half truths, but of the truth as it is in Jesus. We believe that to this Church has been entrusted not a fraction of the faith of apostles, prophets, martyrs; but that we have in its entirety the deposit of the faith once delivered to the saints. And, as I see things, at Kirksville, we are not now administering our trust. If we hold the mysteries in fee simple, unselfishness must prompt us to be generous. If we be stewards of the manifold grace of God, we are not faithful to our trusteeship. So it seems to me. In addition to the Normal School, there is at Kirksville a School of Osteopathy numbering 600 or 700 students; a student body, therefore, of about 1,400 in the city. If I have laid the emphasis more particularly on the Normal pupils, it is because they are at a more spiritually impressionable age; and also it is because from Missouri they come and to Missouri most of them go. We have a most desirable large corner in Kirksville and on it a church building sadly dilapidated. It is in my head and heart that this Church ought to witness in Kirksville, unless it be that the opportunity has practically been lost by quitting the field for the last three years. I may be a fool. But Paul gloried in becoming a fool for Christ's sake and the gospel's!

I pass on now to speak of some points which are not among the 14 of which I have spoken as being vacant a year ago.

Bonne Terre. I have been here on three or four occasions. I regret that a way does not seem clear just now to provide frequent services for them since Mount Calvary parish has taken Rev. Mr. Arthur for their rector. The workers at Bonne Terre are few, but very faithful. I think they know that their affairs are a matter of prayerful concern to me.

University City. A mission has been organized here during the year. Services are for the most part held by a lay reader. Rev. T. W. Jones, who resides in University City, gives them the sacraments when called to do so. Services are in a rented hall. I am hoping that another year will give evidences of wholesome growth.

St. Alban's, in this city, under the wise direction of Rev. W. A. Masker, Jr., is going forward in spiritual things and in temporal things. The congregation burned a mortgage the past year; which fact will more fully appear in statistical reports.

Thayer showed decided evidences of new spiritual life when I was there recently. Rev. Mr. Woodward, who has ministered a year and a half in deacon's orders, has just been advanced to the order of the priesthood. He is canonically resident in Arkansas at Mammoth Spring.

Just at the beginning of Lent, Bishop Tuttle asked me if I would take the oversight of Monroe which, being a parish, rightly belongs to him. During Lent I went on Friday nights for services at Monroe. The congregations were large; the services were hearty; the attitude of the people was one of unusual spiritual receptivity, I thought. My eyes and my ears persuade me that there was a time when the minister of St. Jude's, Monroe City, by faithfully and lovingly ministering doctrine and sacraments as the Lord hath commanded and as this Church hath received, and by a life of personal holiness which adorned the doctrine which he taught in all things, made St. Jude's in that portion of the state, a power for righteousness, peace, purity, gentleness, sweetness, kindness, honesty, truth. The parish bears a name conspicuously honored and honorable among the parishes of Missouri. It must be possible to find again, in this our day, a man endued with gifts of gentleness, wisdom, understanding, counsel, knowledge, and true godliness, who would esteem it an honor to be privileged to lead this fine old parish to again drink of the brook in the way and to lift up her head. Turn her again, thou Lord God of hosts. Show the light of thy countenance and she shall be whole!

St. Timothy's mission, in this city, was organized April 1, a year ago. Previous to organization services had been held for some months in an untenanted dwelling in that part of town and in private homes. Just as the mission was organized, a generous Churchwoman of St. Louis made a way for St. Timothy's to come into immediate possession of $10,000. A spacious corner was bought at Terry and Euclid and plans were drawn for a parish house. The building was completed just before Easter and is a credit to those who had the building operations in hand. The lower floor is fitted up as a tasty chapel. I held the first service in it the Fourth Sunday in Lent, and at that service administered the "two only" sacraments which the Church through her catechism teaches us have been "ordained by Christ himself"—Baptism and the Supper of the Lord. Since then services have been continued with great faithfulness by Mr. Augustus P. Rein, as lay reader, and the Sunday School under the superintendence of Mr. W. W. Burnett regularly assembles. The Holy Communion is provided once each month by a member of the Cathedral staff, and other clergy of the city have helpfully come by invitation now and again. The Committee and the Bishop Coadjutor are working together to secure a man in holy orders. In all my dealings with St. Timothy's, it has been gratifying to notice how eagerly they desire the services not merely of a Sunday preacher, but also of a week-day pastor. I think the Lord is on the side of a congregation which has that earnest desire. George Herbert has been dead 300 years. But the Church must not forget his wise words, "A house-going parson makes a church-going people." I hope it need not be many weeks more before I can name to St. Timothy's a man about whose credentials there is no uncertainty and who is so circumstanced that he can for a while make whatever sacrifices are necessary to get along on the sort of stipend which can be arranged. At my request a committee has made a canvass of the neighborhood of late and has reported to me a most gratifying increase of pledges toward the stipend for a minister.

Overland Park. After worshipping for some time in halls and private homes, the congregation of St. Paul's moved into their new and tasty chapel about Christmas time. Since then I have been there on two occasions. The building needs no sign on it to show that it is a place of worship. The cost is a little less than $1,500 and is fully paid. Carried over from the previous year was a building fund (with interest) of $593.17, and a treasury balance of $4.18. The Diocesan Auxiliary in January voted assistance of $100. I am told that the following gentlemen brought in the bulk of the remaining $700 required: Judge Harrison, Mr. J. D. von Maur, Mr. John G. Fleck, Mr. D. C. Smith. My thanks to them all and to all others who helped. Rev. John A. Dooris ministers on one Sunday in each month. On other Sundays services are maintained by the valuable and appreciated assistance of the Lay Readers' League.

Grace Church-Holy Cross. The Bishop Coadjutor being engaged with appointments elsewhere, Bishop Tuttle at my request dedicated the new dispensary on the Fourth Sunday in Lent. A brick building closely adjoining the Church had been purchased something like a year ago. Under the management of a committee of which Mr. F. Churchill Whittemore is chairman, Mr. J. E. Williams, Jr., treasurer, and Mr. Elias S. Gatch, secretary, this old brick building has taken on an attractive exterior appearance; and within it is carefully arranged with special reference to the work it is to do. Light, heat, and plumbing, and modern instruments and appliances of all sorts make an entirely approved dispensary; and there are comfortable rooms above in which Deaconess Brainerd and her mother have their home. The report of the treasurer of the Building Fund shows that the entire cost of this added equipment of Grace-Holy Cross is $10,372.63, and that all is paid but about $400. All who know will agree with me when I say that it was Mr. F. Churchill Whittemore's personal service more than anything else that brought this splendid piece of work to a successful end. Our grateful thanks to him. The list of contributors shows that gifts have come from Churchmen and non-Churchmen from all parts of the city. Our grateful thanks to them all.

Hospital Missions. Those who were present at Convention last May will recall how with gentle unobtrusiveness, but with fervent love, Mr. F. A. Fanning stood on the floor and told somewhat of his labor of love among the down-and-outs, often in hidden corners where no commending eye looked in but God's. Four months after our last Convention, he gave account of his stewardship yonder, wherever that yonder is. Those of us who knew him know that he gave the answer of the unafraid. His loss is beyond calculation to his big congregation of the outcast, the unfortunate, the unhappy, the unloved. In almshouse, infirmary, workhouse, hospital, jail, his devoted ministrations, counsels, and assistances were medicine in sickness, and love, and life, and rest. It has been borne in upon me again and again that, since Mr. Fanning was taken away, our Hospital Mission work has fallen much below par. We must use our best wits and our best endeavors to keep this important department of our work at its highest pitch of usefulness and power. Gratefully I give warm thanks to all who are assisting in the work.

Places in the Diocese not included in any list which we anywhere print, but which I have made opportunity to visit during the year once or more, are as follows: Illmo, Nadine, Bevier, Florissant, Farmington, Bloomfield, Chaffee. I feel that this Church ought to contrive some way of carrying her message and her means of grace occasionally to Illmo, Chaffee and Bloomfield.

At the following points in my field during the past year the League of Lay Readers has rendered service valuably helpful to me and of a sort without which the missions served must have lost much ground: Bonne Terre, Crystal City, Overland Park, Portland, Sherman, St. Timothy's in St. Louis. There have been other points for which I should have been glad to make requisition for the services of the League, except that it did not seem wise. Some places are too remote from St. Louis to be served by men who must be at their business here Saturday afternoon and again Monday morning. Some places are so circumstanced that they cannot now meet the condition stipulated by the League, namely, that a presbyter must be called once each month to give the Holy Communion. Wherever I have not called for assistance of the League, there has been a valid reason for not doing so. I again put myself on record as appreciative of this body of Churchmen and make mention of my thankful recognition of their readiness to always gladly serve.

During the months which elapsed between your election of me and my acceptance, I was told by many, who had had experimental knowledge, that the mission field in Missouri needed me more than the Missionary District of South Dakota did. You called me to a hard task. I am here because the task was represented to me as a difficult one. I rejoice in its difficulties. I should be unhappy and ashamed to stand before the Church as a man who had permitted himself, in good physical condition, to accept translation from a Missionary District to a sinecure. You called me to try to do hard work. The call came from a people whom I find to be most affectionately responsive to loving and self-forgetful service. (I am speaking especially of the body of the laity. The laity form the more permanent element in a Diocese. The clergy easily shift in and out.) I know whereof I speak; for a year has let me into the very secret chambers of the lives of many of our Missouri people. And I thank them here for letting me share their homes and their happinesses (and sometimes their sorrows) with them. I am grateful for such confidences and evidences of appreciation as have been given me by the clergy with whom I have officially to do. Whenever I have tried to serve them, I have endeavored to keep back nothing that was profitable for them and for the flock. I have deliberately and scrupulously studied to keep myself from all official doings with the clergy of the Diocese who are not in the part of the field committed to me. The dear Bishop of Missouri has again and again thanked me for my help in such fashion as to make me always regretful that my help had not more worthily merited his thanks.

The Woman's Auxiliary has given me money, which is reported elsewhere. And I have had experiences which I cannot account for except it be that members of the Auxiliary have been talking with God during the year, asking Him to bless all efforts which I might undertake according to His will. I need rich gifts and compelling prayers for the year which lies ahead.

This, my first Convention address in the Diocese of Missouri, is somewhat long. But, if there are things which this Convention ought to know, I see no reason to make my address short simply in order that it may not be long. Who reads the address will discover that, of the missions put into my hands when I came here, no point which was supplied a year ago is vacant now, except Bonne Terre; and that of the 14 places reported vacant a year ago, 5 can hardly expect, as things are, anything more than very infrequent spiritual ministrations; one (Kirksville) ought to be taken in hand in some special way; and the other 8 are cared for, and I think I may rightly say as well cared for as the local conditions in each place will at present permit. This is of God's good grace. We make grateful but not boastful record of the fact.

Another year is here. I announce no programme of what I hope may be accomplished in my field. But these things I must say as I close: I have a great longing in my heart that Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life or by death. I long to magnify my office. I scorn to be magnified because of it. I will not be over anxious for my rights, or over watchful for my prerogatives. But I will zealously seek to grasp my opportunities and to discharge my duties. In the exercise of my office and ministry to the flock of Christ, I must seek "to perceive and know" not what things are attractive to me as an individual, not what things are pleasing to me as an individual, not what things are so much a matter of fancy to me as an individual that I would like to do them. But I must remember that I am among the congregations as one that serveth; and not as an individualist, but "as a wise and faithful servant," endeavoring to give to the family their portion in due season, I must seek "to perceive and know what things I ought to do." In my conduct of the public worship of the Church, this word "ought" must be my guide. For "special occasions," for which no service has been provided in the Prayer Book, a clear direction is printed on page vii of the Prayer Book to point the way for me. On occasions which are not "special", I ought not to read into the Book of Common Prayer my own whims and fancies and my own individualistic will, and ask the cordial acceptance of the book, thus mutilated by interpolations, of the congregations which I serve. And conversely, I ought not to scratch out of the Book of Common Prayer such portions as are not attractive to me as an individual, and ask the acceptance of the book, thus mutilated by expurgations, of the congregations which I serve. On the contrary, I ought to take the view that the whole body of the Church, the Bishops and the Clerical and Lay Delegates, in General Convention assembled, does establish and decree what the liturgy of this Church in this country is. And I ought to take the view that the congregations of this Church, in the public worship of the Church, have a right to expect that I will use the Book of Common Prayer as it stands, until the whole body of the Church in this land, in its constitutionally provided legislative assembly, sees fit to ratify and set forth another book. This is as it seems to me. No one is more appreciative of affectionate friendships than I. But when duty stands plain before one's face, one who believes that he has been duly appointed a mouthpiece of the Eternal and an ambassador of the King has a clear course. It is not for him to wonder whether friends will follow him in a given course, or whether friends will fail. In the words of Tennyson,

Were wisdom, in the scorn of consequence."

Commending you all and all the interests of the Church in the Diocese of Missouri to God's upbuilding grace, in the words of Tiny Tim, "God bless us, every one!"

(Signed) FREDERICK FOOTE JOHNSON.

APPENDIX No. 4.

Report of the Board of Trustees of the Parochial Trust Fund.

The Board of Trustees of the Parochial Trust Fund of the Diocese of Missouri submit the following as the Acts of the Board for the Conventional Year 1912-13:

Organized by the election of the Very Reverend Carroll M. Davis as Vice-President, and Mr. Marshall S. Snow as Secretary and Treasurer for the ensuing year.

January 9, 1913—

Voted to authorize the proper officers of the Board to sign a deed conveying the property of Grace-Holy Cross, of St. Louis, the title to which is held by this Board, to three trustees, Messrs. Whittemore, Gatch and Williams; this conveyance to be followed by incorporation, in such manner as in no wise to alienate the property from Church control; provided, that such conveyance be approved by the Chancellor of the Diocese.

Voted, that a committee composed of the Bishop of the Diocese and two other members of the Board be named as a committee to confer with a similar committee from Holy Cross Mission, to frame and adopt Articles of Incorporation, if the deed is signed. The President appointed Messrs. C. M. Jennings and M. S. Snow to serve on this committee.

March 17, 1913—

The Secretary reported to the Board that upon the approval of the Chancellor of the Diocese, the deed presented at the meeting of January 9,

APPENDIX No. 10.

St. Mary's Mission—Report.To the Members and Friends of St. Mary's Mission:

As Treasurer of the Mission, I submit, herewith, financial statement for the year May, 1912, to April, 1913, inclusive, and it will be noted that it is the best and most gratifying report in the history of the Mission.

At the present time we have placed, mainly among the communicants of the Mission, one hundred thirty-five cartons of envelopes, but only about one-half are being used, and some of those somewhat irregularly. Realizing what the actual expenses of the Mission are, and how necessary it is that we have a regular income sufficient to meet our current expenses and other obligations as they become due, I cannot refrain from asking that our friends give this subject a little serious thought. It should not be a matter of worry and embarrassment to the Committee as to how to meet and take care of deficiencies from month to month, and if all our members would give what they feel they can afford systematically and regularly, our financial troubles would be greatly minimized.

Many give all they can afford and possibly more, while others give little or nothing, and very irregularly, and while the Committee has no right to attempt to regulate such matters, it is felt that our Church members owe something to the work of the Master, and the upbuilding of His work, and should do what they can to help the work of the Mission.

We now have a permanent rector, a man whom we can all admire, honor and love, an earnest Christian, and an untiring worker, ready, willing and anxious to extend any aid in his power at any and all times, and we should stand by him and endeavor not to handicap or embarrass him in his work through any financial troubles.

St. Mary's is becoming well and favorably known among the Churches and Church people of St. Louis, our Bishop Coadjutor is watching our work and progress and helping us as he alone can, and on behalf of the Committee, I ask each member to do what he or she can to add to our membership and financial strength.

We need additional pledges amounting to seventy-five dollars a month to enable us to meet all our obligations, and we trust that those who can will do their part systematically, and see that the pledges are kept up regularly, whether absent from services or not.

The very favorable financial showing of the past year is due largely to the financial aid extended by several of our members and friends who have removed from St. Louis, or are located elsewhere, and in some cases members of other parishes; and while I wish to express the appreciation of the Committee for such aid, I do wish we might be able to meet all our obligations through our own individual efforts and give our out-of-town friends especially, an opportunity to extend such aid to churches or missions needing same in their immediate vicinities, whereas, they probably feel we need their help and would suffer for want of it, which, of course, is true at the present time.

APPENDIX No. 11.

Report of Committee on Sunday School Work.

Your Committee report that they have made a survey of such material as has been placed before them and taken note of occurrences connected with their subject, and beg leave to bring forward the following considerations:

The needs in the Church at large that brought about the establishment of the General Board of Religious Education are increasingly apparent in this Diocese. The parochial reports for this year show even a serious decrease on the numbers given last year for the Sunday School work. With a communicant list of over 8,000 the children in the schools are given as being only a few over 3,000, with 360 teachers. The paucity therefore of material for the ministry of the Church being noticeable in the Diocese is likely to be even more strongly apparent in the future. The supply of teachers is going to diminish more and more largely, and so-called Church folk will have but poor foundation in knowledge and understanding of matters concerning the Faith.

The recent meeting of the Board of Religious Education was of the greatest value in bringing to our notice what the Church has wisely provided to help in meeting such conditions.

Your Committee recommend, therefore, the establishment of a Diocesan Board of Religious Education which will take as its field of work the Sunday Schools of the Diocese and such other agencies as exist for general religious education.

We therefore recommend the enactment of a canon to bring this into effect—in the following terms:

1. There shall be a Diocesan Board of Religious Education, subject to the Convention, the duty of which shall be to promote religious education in this Diocese.

2. The members of the Board shall be the Bishop of the Diocese, the Bishop Coadjutor, ex-officio, three persons to be appointed annually by the Bishop, and three clergymen and three laymen to be elected by the Convention.

3. The Board shall hold at least four meetings each year. At its first meeting, it shall select from its elected members one clergyman and one layman to serve for one year, one clergyman and one layman to serve for two years, one clergyman and one layman to serve for three years. Each Convention thereafter shall elect one clergyman and one layman to serve for three years to take the place of those whose terms of office shall have expired. The Board shall elect its own officers, and shall have power to fill vacancies until the next Convention.

4. The Board shall have the power to adopt such measures as shall be necessary for promoting the object for which it is created, and for co-operating with the General Board of Religious Education.

5. The Board shall annually present to the Diocesan Convention an estimate of the amount needed for the work of the Board during the ensuing year. The Diocesan Convention shall determine how this amount, or such an amount as the Convention may approve, shall be provided.

6. The Board shall report annually to the Diocesan Convention.

Respectfully submitted,

B. E. REED.

A. B. AMBLER.

A. BRITTAIN.

The Board has also appropriated the sum of $166.89 for special missionary work done in the Diocese, under the supervision of the Bishop Coadjutor, at St. Timothy's, St. Louis; St. Paul's, Fredericktown; Redeemer, Jackson; Trinity, Kirksville, and St. Luke's, Valley Park.

The Board also appropriated $100.00 to be paid the Committee appointed at the last Convention to raise a fund for the erection of a church building for St. Paul's, St. Louis.

The following resignations have been received since the last Convention:

- Rev. F. Gowenlock, St. Paul's, St. Louis, July 1, 1912.
- Rev. Charles J. Millar, Calvary, Louisiana, September 1, 1912.
- Rev. Wm. Cochran, Trinity, Salem, and St. Luke's, Jennings, October 25, 1912.
- Rev. J. Attwood Stansfield, Trinity, De Soto; St. Paul's, Ironton, and St. Paul's, Fredericktown, March 1, 1913.
- Rev. Charles Maltas, Christ Church, Cape Girardeau, March 1, 1913.
- Rev. R. L. Knox, Trinity, St. Charles, April 1, 1913.
- Rev. F. Gowenlock, curate at St. Stephen's, St. Louis, May 1, 1913.
- Rev. Wm. A. Hatch, Holy Innocents, St. Louis, to take effect June 1, 1913.
- Rev. D. A. Parce, St. Augustine's, St. Louis, June 1, 1913.

The following Parishes, receiving aid from the Board, are vacant: Affton, Cape Girardeau, Monroe, Moberly, and St. Charles.

The following Missions are vacant: Bonne Terre, Jackson, Kirksville, Montgomery, Portland, Shelbina, Sherman.

Recent visitations and correspondence with the missions as reported by the Coadjutor, indicate that it is hardly probable we can do more for them under present conditions than to give them very infrequent services of volunteer clergy.

The nearest resident clergyman to Jackson is 70 miles away. There are but two or three communicants. A candidate for Holy Orders will summer there this summer.

Montgomery has not attempted for some time to do more than provide for an annual visit of the Bishop. There are but four communicants.

Portland is 116 miles from St. Louis, and there seems to be no clergyman available, unless he goes from St. Louis. It has had four or five services during the past year.

Shelbina has not had the services of a regular clergyman for a number of years. There is no church building there, and only three communicants.

Sherman has two confirmed persons. Six services have been held during the year. It is hoped that lay services may be had during the summer.

On September 13th, 1912, the Board granted permission for the organization of a mission at University City.

The Board will need the sum of $9,440.00 for the purpose of maintaining the missionary work of the Diocese for the ensuing year.

Respectfully submitted,

F. J. McMASTER, Secretary.

APPENDIX No. 20.

Hospital Missions.

Report for Year 1912-13.

Since the last Council the Hospital Missions has sustained a very severe loss in the death of Mr. A. F. Fanning, one of our oldest and most efficient workers. So far it has not seemed feasible to supply his place, but with the kind assistance of several laymen, I have been enabled to keep up the services in all the institutions, and have myself done the social service work in the Jail and Work House, heretofore done by him.

During the year services have been introduced at Koch Hospital twice each month. These services are held by Mr. Richard Hatch, aided by Miss Hofman and several other ladies. Through the effort of Miss Hofman a piano and organ have been secured for this work. During the year eleven have been confirmed at the Infirmary, where we now have some forty communicants, and four were confirmed at the City Hospital, making a total of fifteen confirmed. During the year I have baptized 16 children and 3 adults; preached 250 sermons and addresses; made over 300 visits to the various institutions; distributed clothing to a score or more of men, some of whom have had to be clothed from the skin out, even to collars and neckties.

At Christmas the workers distributed over two thousand packages of candy and fruit. At the Jail and Work House I have secured 3 paroles, none of which have needed to be revoked. It is the testimony from all the institutions that the Hospital Missions has commended itself to both officials and inmates. Men of confirmed evil habits have been reclaimed and are now leading respectable and useful lives. One of the most gratifying and encouraging features of the work is the gradual increase of the attendance upon our services by the inmates of the various institutions, which is never compulsory but always voluntary. At the City Hospital it is not unfrequently the case that there may be seen eight or ten wheel chairs in the chapel. At the Sanitarium our new chapel, which is almost double the size of the old one, is sometimes filled to its capacity, and I am told by the officers at the jail that it is a rare thing that any man stays in his cell on the evenings of our services there. The same is true at the Work House.

Another gratifying feature of the Mission is the interest we have aroused in some of the colored laity of All Saints' in the colored inmates at the Infirmary. Under the leadership of a lay reader, Mr. Jones, assisted by quite a number of enthusiastic helpers, services are held in the colored wards twice each month. Nothing since I came to the Mission has given so much pleasure and joy to our colored communicants as this interest in them on the part of their own people.

During the year I have received from individuals and churches the sum of four hundred and sixty-one dollars and sixty-one cents, and disbursed four hundred and thirty-three dollars and thirty-one cents, a detailed account of which is to be found in my monthly reports to the Board of Missions.

Besides this $200 have been raised by the workers at the City Hospital, and with it a home for life has been secured for a man whose health seemed gone, in the Memorial Home on Grand Avenue.

One hundred and seventy-six dollars has been raised by Mrs. Holmes to establish in business a man who has lost both legs, but who with this assistance is now conducting a self-supporting business on N. Grand Avenue. $178 were raised at Christmas for the Christmas offerings. Something between one and two hundred also has been put in Miss Hofman's hands for use in her work.

In closing this report I would like to refer again to the matter of a convalescent home mission for men, which was so warmly urged by Mr. Fanning last year. It is a pressing need for the efficient work of the Mission on its social service side.

T. W. JONES, Missionary.

APPENDIX No. 21.

Report of the Missouri Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary.

*To the Rt. Rev. Daniel S. Tuttle D.D., S.T.D., LL.D., Bishop of Missouri;
The Rt. Rev. Frederick F. Johnson, D.D., Bishop Coadjutor of Missouri, and Members of the Convention:*

We have the privilege of presenting to you the 32nd Annual Report of the Missouri Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary, a report which, we are glad to note, indicates progress in every department of the work. However, these columns of figures do not show all the growth, for perhaps it is not too much to say that the Auxiliary has been not only "not slothful in business", but also more and more "fervent in spirit" and "serving the Lord" throughout the year, and particularly since the inspiring days of the recent Auxiliary Institute. Two new branches, St. Michael and All Angels', St. Louis, and Holy Cross, Poplar Bluff, have been added, and one in process of formation in St. Mary's Mission,—and Thayer and Rolla are again on our roll. There has been a large attendance at every Quarterly Meeting, and also at the monthly conferences; mission study has been more general, and there seems to be an awakening interest throughout the whole organization.

Our greatest regret has been that we have not had more women from out-of-town parishes and missions at our general meetings, and especially at the Institute, but we hope more will make it possible to meet with us during the coming year. We cannot close this report without a word of appreciation and gratitude to our Bishops for their unfailing support and helpful counsel, to the clergy, who have this year taken a more vital interest than ever before in their parish branches of the Auxiliary, and to the speakers who have been with us during the year just closing, bringing their messages both from the home field and from the uttermost parts of the earth.

Respectfully submitted,

HENRIETTA F. SCHEETZ, Secretary pro tem.

June 18-July 1. In St. Luke's Hospital, St. Louis. Friends in the city and out of it kept my room fragrant with beautiful flowers. Messages of affection and sympathy made me sure that I was had in remembrance. Bishop Tuttle came and spread by my bedside the Table of the Lord, and brought friends with him, that together we might participate in the comforting service which the Church has lovingly provided for the Communion of the Sick, and that together we might eat and drink the pledges of a Saviour's love. When I was permitted to receive them, cheery visits of many who cared to come shortened my hours of waiting. A careful surgeon, a devoted physician, a watchful and unwearying nurse, the kindness and faithfulness and cheerfulness and gentleness and interestedness of all members of the hospital corps who came in at my door—all these helped me comfortably over a stretch of road which one never faces without more or less of apprehension and anxiety and lack of sturdy courage.

God has thus far wonderfully prospered all means made use of for my cure. Thanks to Him! Thanks to all kind people! Thanks to St. Luke's Hospital, my place of refuge and repair! I am told that the strength forfeited in these two weeks will be slow in coming back. But I am promised that that I shall be "as good as new" again, and that by and by I shall pull my own weight easier than I have done for some months past. My hope is that my life, newly taken up and strengthened, may be to God's glory, serviceable to the Diocese, helpful to all whom anywhere and in any fashion I may be given privilege to serve.

St. Mary's has entered upon a new era of its history. The Rev. F. C. O'Meara resigned and the Rev. L. H. White, of Fall River, Mass., was called to give all his time to the work of building up the Mission. The Rev. Mr. White began his work with us December 1, 1912. Many new Church families have been located and some of them have become identified with the Mission. We are earnestly desirous of securing a better location as the present one is deemed inadequate both in size and site. If this new location can be secured while values are reasonable, we feel sure the Mission will take on new life and growth. Thanks to the Missouri Branch, Woman's Auxiliary, the present Mission building has been made habitable. We need a reasonable amount of outside help to get a start. The people are here to carry on the work.

Personal Reports.

Winslow, Wash Co., Ark., May 16th, 1913.

The Rt. Rev. D. S. Tuttle, D.D., Bishop of Missouri, St. Louis.

RT. REV. AND DEAR FATHER AND BROTHER.—Our Diocesan Council being at hand and praying for Divine blessing and guidance in its work for the advancing of Christ's kingdom, and upon you personally that your health and strength may be preserved in the blessed service of the Master, I desire to give an account of my official duties during the Council year past. The first part of that year until the middle of July I was in charge of and officiated regularly at St. Luke's, Valley Park. Since that time I have been at my little home in Winslow, Ark., and at work for the Church. I have assisted Mr. Crandall in the mission services every Sunday; celebrated the Holy Communion twice a month (the 1st and 3rd Sundays) every month, and three times at Grace Mission, Siloam Springs. Married one couple. My health is improved now the good weather has come. Our Diocesan school is closed and Mr. Crandall removed. The new minister will be here the 1st of June next. New arrangements will then be made.

My mind dwells upon the time I spent in St. Louis among the brethren and gratefully remember the many acts of brotherly love in my humble behalf.

May the blessing of God rest upon you and the brethren. Loving remembrance to all.

Affectionately and sincerely yours,

(Rev.) E. J. HALL.

Secretary's Note to the Tables of Statistics.

Discrepancies between the figures in the tables of parochial report statistics and in the special reports given in the Convention minutes (printed in appendix) may be caused by the treasurers having different fiscal years, by different methods of entering receipts and payments, and by bookkeeping errors.

All amounts not definitely specified as having been paid for the objects named in the table column heads have been entered under the head of "other objects."

The sum of $15,000.00 given in the report of St. Paul's, St. Louis, as an expenditure for improvements, has been left out of the statistics. That part of this amount which has been paid by contributions outside of St. Paul's congregation is included in the reports of the different parishes; while that part which St. Paul's paid is given in their parochial report, and in the parochial financial table under the head of "improvements." That part which has been paid with borrowed money should not be charged against the parish or diocese as an expenditure until the loan is paid.
