The report of the Registrar being called for the Rev. Mr. Miller stated that no separate report had been prepared, as all the report that is necessary to be made will be included in the report of the Librarian.

Rev. Mr. Lloyd gave notice that tomorrow he would offer an amendment to Canon X, Sec. 1, providing for restrictions as to the location of churches, as follows:

"That no church shall be located without the consent of the Bishop and the Standing Committee of the Diocese."

In accordance with notice given on the preceding day, Rev. Mr. Miller offered the following resolution, and moved that the same be referred to the Committee on Constitution and Canons, which motion was duly seconded:

Resolved, That in the Constitution of the Church in the Diocese of Missouri the amendments indicated below be made:

1. In the title the word "Missouri" be changed to "St. Louis."
2. In Article II, line 1, the word "Missouri" be changed to "St. Louis."
3. In Article VI, Section 1, line 1, the word "Missouri" be changed to "St. Louis."

Upon the question of reference to the Committee on Constitution and Canons, the Ayes and Noes were called for, which being taken, resulted in Ayes 43, Noes 27. It being suggested by several delegates that there was a misunderstanding as to the object and nature of the motion, the Rt. Rev. President announced that by unanimous consent the vote might be again taken upon the motion, and, no objection being made, it was so ordered.

The Secretary thereupon again called the roll and the vote resulted in Ayes 49, Noes 27.

Rev. Mr. Fauntleroy moved that the whole matter be laid upon the table, which motion was duly seconded. The Ayes and Noes were again called for, which being taken, resulted in Ayes 27, Noes 64.

The Rt. Rev. President announced that the motion to lay upon the table had been lost, and that the resolution of the Rev. Mr. Miller was referred to the Committee on Constitution and Canons.

In accordance with the notice given on the preceding day, Rev. B. E. Reed offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That it is the sense of this Convention that the Funds for the Disabled and Infirm Clergy be transferred and merged into the General Clergy Relief Fund; and further, that this matter be referred to a committee to report at the next Convention as to how this change may be brought about.

Mr. Reed then explained his reasons for urging the passage of the above resolution.

At this point the tellers of the vote on Standing Committee returning to the room, made their report.

Thereupon, the vote being declared, the Rt. Rev. President announced the election of the following-named gentlemen as members of the Standing Committee:

Rev. Carroll M. Davis.

Prof. M. S. Snow.

Mr. Jas. L. Ford.

The hour of twelve having arrived, the Rt. Rev. President announced that the usual noon day services would be held. These were opened by the singing of the two hundred and fifty-second hymn, the services being conducted by the Rev. Mr. Garrett.

Following the noon day services the second ballot was taken for the election of the Standing Committee, and the tellers retired.

Rev. Mr. Reed then concluded his remarks upon the resolution introduced by him.

Rev. Mr. Fauntleroy moved that the following resolution be adopted as a substitute for that offered by Rev. Mr. Reed, which motion was duly seconded:

Resolved, That a committee be appointed by the Chair to consider the subject of the merger of the Disabled and Infirm Clergy Fund into the General Clergy Relief Fund, and to report to the next Convention.

The tellers returning to the room at this point made their report.

Thereupon, the vote being declared, the Rt. Rev. President announced that the Rev. Mr. L. F. Potter had been elected a member of the Standing Committee for the ensuing year.

The third ballot was taken for the election of the Standing Committee, and the tellers retired.

A vote being taken upon the motion to substitute the resolution of the Rev. Mr. Fauntleroy for that offered by the Rev. Mr. Reed, it was declared carried.

The vote was then taken upon the substitute resolution offered by the Rev. Mr. Fauntleroy, which was declared adopted, and the Rt. Rev. President appointed the following Committee to report to the next Convention:

Rev. P. W. Fauntleroy.

Rev. B. E. Reed.

Mr. F. J. McMaster.

The hour of recess having arrived the Rt. Rev. President announced that a recess was taken until 2:30 o'clock p. m.

After recess the Convention reassembled at half past two o'clock, and the following proceedings were had:

The Rt. Rev. President announced that the entire afternoon of the second day is devoted to the subject of missions, yet there were one or two matters which should first be disposed of, one being the report of the tellers, and the other the report of the Committee on Finance, and to receive these reports the order of the day would be postponed if no objection be made, and it was so ordered.

The report of the Committee on Finance was presented and read by Mr. C. S. Freeborn, together with three resolutions pertaining to same.

On motion, these resolutions were adopted, and the same were referred to the Treasurer, with instructions to comply therewith. (See Appendix No. 5, page 112.)

The tellers here returning to the room made their report.

Thereupon, the vote being declared, the Rt. Rev. President announced the election of the Rev. J. Courtney Jones as a member of the Standing Committee.

Messrs. Walker Hill and H. L. Chase asked permission to withdraw their names as candidates for election to the Standing Committee.

On motion of Rev. Mr. Richards, the order of the day was still further postponed, to permit the completion of the election of members of the Standing Committee for the ensuing year.

The fourth ballot was taken for the election of the Standing Committee, and the tellers retired.

The report of the Dean of the Hannibal Convocation was read by the Rev. Dean E. P. Little, as follows:

To the Rt. Rev. D. S. Tuttle, Bishop of Missouri:

In the Hannibal Convocation there are nine Parishes and three Missions. Six priests are ministering in eight of these. Three Parishes and one Mission have been vacant for some time, but a priest has lately taken charge of one of these Parishes and a Mission with it. The Rector of one other Parish leaves before many days. These are the places in which there are churches: Louisiana, Prairieville, Clarksville, Hannibal, Canton, Palmyra, Monroe, Macon, Kirksville, Moberly, Mexico and Montgomery.

The Clergy of the Convocation have held three sessions during the past year: at Canton, May 27; at Palmyra, October 23; at Monroe, April 8.

No systematic Mission work, as such, has yet been attempted by us outside of our Parishes and organized Missions. A few special services from time to time have been held by the Bishop and by others in certain places. If we could get congregations on week-days, I suppose each one of us could easily give one or two nights a week to a Mission station; but this is generally felt to be impossible. Perhaps, if tried, more might result than has been looked for.

For Paris, the seat of Monroe County, and Bowling Green, the seat of Pike County, I verily believe we ought to be making effort to begin work. They are important towns—small, but, I believe, of good material. I do not know that there are any members of the church in either town; but, I suppose, our work is to win men to the church, rather than to find them already in the fold. Edina is another place where there might be an opening if anyone could take it. We have two communicants there, one confirmed and admitted in Hannibal and one in Monroe. I know nothing about the town; however, our means are at a very, very low ebb. No one of our Parishes is beyond bare self-support, and outside of my own cure changes have been very frequent.

Our Convocation ought doubtless to do Mission work outside of its Parishes, but it has not yet been able to; yet in our sessions I know we have helped one another, and to a good degree.

EDW. P. LITTLE,

Dean of the Hannibal Convocation.

The report of the Dean of the Southern Convocation was read by the Rev. Dean L. F. Potter, as follows:

To the Rt. Rev. D. S. Tuttle, D. D., Bishop of Missouri:

1. That the work is developing satisfactorily in the Missions already established, and that there is much encouragement because of the appointment of the Archdeacon.
2. That there are a number of large towns where church work should begin.
3. That the field under the care of Rev. Mr. Weddell should be divided so that Rolla, where is located the School of Mines, should have more frequent services.
4. That this involves greater financial expenditure on the part of the Missionary Board, and that in consequence the pledges in this Convention need to be proportionately large.

L. F. POTTER,

Dean of the Southern Convocation.

The tellers here returned to the room and made their report.

Thereupon, the vote being declared, the Rt. Rev. President announced the election of Mr. C. M. Jennings as a member of the Standing Committee for the ensuing year.

The report of the Hospital Missions being called for, Mr. F. J. McMaster stated that no report had been given the Secretary of the Missionary Board.

Rev. Mr. Duckworth stated that as Chairman of the Committee he had spoken to the Missionary, who replied that he had never been instructed to make a report.

Rev. Mr. Brittain explained that having but recently entered upon the work, he had not understood that a report would be expected of him, but that he would make a verbal report of the work for one month, which he proceeded to do.

Rev. Mr. Cochran presented and read the following condensed report of the five City Missions under his charge:

CITY MISSIONS REPORT.

WM. COCHRAN.

The Balance Sheet of St. Stephen's House was presented and read by the Secretary of the Missionary Board, Mr. Francis J. McMaster. (See Appendix No. 8, page 121.)

Report of the Woman's Auxiliary was read by the Rev. Mr. Mizner. (See Appendix No. 12, page 129.)

The report of the Committee on the State of the Church was presented and read by Rev. Mr. Elmer, as follows:

The Committee on the State of the Church begs leave to report as follows:

After many years of effort to secure an Archdeacon to assist the Bishop in the great missionary work of the Diocese, your committee is glad to report that the Archdeacon is in the field at work, and from reports already made we have every reason to believe that a great impetus has already been given to our missionary work in the Diocese.

In making this advance your committee would remind you that the march to larger results in the missionary work of the Diocese has only just begun, and that there is before the church a period of hard and earnest effort before the vacant places can be filled and the weak missions strengthened, and this effort will tax the wisdom of those to whom you may commit the oversight of this work. Our Bishop and the Missionary Board will need largely increased pledges in order to carry on the work. The prospects of sufficient funds in the treasury of the Board means going forward with enlarged views, higher ideals and progressive work, while lack of support will only bring discouragement and defeat.

Your committee, then, would urge that we raise at this Convention the amount of $11,500.00 asked for by the Bishop and the Board of Missions of the Diocese, so that the good work already commenced may be carried on, and new fields prepared for the planting of the Church.

The Church throughout the Diocese is in a flourishing condition. A wave of spiritual refreshment has flowed upon our Churches and Missions, reviving the drooping spirits and giving strength for nobler efforts. Baptisms and confirmations have largely increased. Missions have been held in many places, and God's blessing has rested on priest and people.

For the evidence of this renewed spiritual life your committee would urge upon you the importance of reading carefully the Bishop's address and the reports of the Missionary Board and committees, who have carefully prepared reports of the good work done, and the needs of the Diocese to crown our missionary work under God's blessing with success. Especially would we urge upon the Diocese the importance of providing some plan whereby Churches and Rectories may be built where needed, and would call attention to the fourth recommendation made in the report of the Archdeacon.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

WM. ELMER, Chairman.
EDW. P. LITTLE,
LEONARD B. RICHARDS,
THEODORE GARY,
HENRY L. CHASE.

Report of St. Luke's Hospital was read by the Treasurer, Mr. Francis J. McMaster. (See Appendix No. 14, page 133.)

Mr. McMaster further stated to the Convention that great good has been accomplished by the aggregate of the subscriptions of ten dollars each for membership in the Association, and urged that efforts be made to increase the subscriptions for membership.

The report of Mr. Edward H. Lycett, the Treasurer of the Laymen's Co-operating Missionary Society, was read and filed with the Secretary. (See Appendix No. 10, page 127.)

The report of Mr. Edward H. Lycett, Treasurer of St. Stephen's Mission, was then presented and read. (See Appendix No. 11, page 128.)

Mr. Francis J. McMaster, the Secretary of the Diocesan Missionary Board, presented and read the report of the Secretary. (See Appendix No. 6, page 116.)

The report of the Treasurer of the Diocesan Missionary Board was presented and read by the Treasurer, Mr. Edward H. Lycett. (See Appendix No. 9, page 123.)

The Rt. Rev. President announced that delegates to the Convention are cordially invited to attend the supper of the St. Andrew's Brotherhood to be given at half past six o'clock tomorrow evening.

The Rt. Rev. President announced that four individuals would be given the floor for a specified time, the Archdeacon, Rev. Mr. Walton being allowed twenty minutes, and Rev. Mr. Cochran, Rev. Edmund Duckworth and Maj. Alexander M. Davis each ten minutes.

The Archdeacon then read a paper on the subject of Missions and the work in the Diocese, the substance of which will be found in the report of the Archdeacon, page 99.

Rev. W. Cochran then made a missionary address, and presented the work of the City Missions.

Major Alexander M. Davis then spoke on the subject of missions, and the amount desired to be raised by pledges from the various Parishes, showing that an increase of fifteen per cent on each pledge would make the entire amount necessary.

Following which Rev. Edmund Duckworth also spoke briefly on the same subject.

Thereupon the Rt. Rev. President called for pledges, which were responded to as follows upon the calling of the roll by the Secretary. (See Appendix No. 13, page 132.)

It was moved by Rev. Edmund Duckworth, and seconded by Rev. Mr. Colvin, that immediately after the reading of the minutes tomorrow, Thursday, morning, the Parishes that have not made pledges be again called.

It was suggested by the Rt. Rev. President that inasmuch as there is not as full an attendance at that hour as later, it might be wise to change the motion, making it "subsequent to." The suggestion was adopted by the mover, and the motion, as amended, was unanimously carried.

On motion, the Convention then adjourned to meet on Thursday morning, May 30th, at ten o'clock after divine service at nine o'clock in Bofinger Chapel.

THIRD DAY.

CHRIST CHURCH CATHEDRAL, ST. LOUIS,
Thursday, May, 30, 1907.

Pursuant to adjournment, the Convention was opened at nine o'clock a. m., with divine service, in Bofinger Chapel, after which the Rt. Rev. President took the chair and called the Convention to order for business in Schuyler Memorial House, at ten o'clock a. m.

The minutes of the preceding day were read by the Secretary, and on motion were approved and adopted.

Rev. Mr. Blaisdell announced that he had a resolution to offer, to be referred to the Committee on Constitution and Canons.

The Rt. Rev. President declared this out of order at present, as the order is Unfinished Business.

On motion of Rev. Mr. Fauntleroy the regular order of business was postponed for the reception of this resolution.

Rev. Mr. Blaisdell then offered the following resolution, and moved its reference to the Committee on Constitution and Canons, which motion was duly seconded and carried:

Resolved, That Section 2, Canon X, be amended by striking out the words "if such location is less than 1,000 yards distant in a direct line from the place of worship of any other Parish, the Bishop and Standing Committee may consent to same in manner provided in Section 3."

The Rt. Rev. President announced that the next order of business was the election of Deputies to the General Convention, and called for nominations.

The Rt. Rev. President appointed as tellers for the clerical vote:

Rev. Loaring Clark.

Mr. Thos. Buckland.

And as tellers for the lay vote:

Rev. Mr. St. Clair.

Mr. H. G. Cleaveland.

The following gentlemen having been nominated, asked permission to withdraw their names as candidates, which was granted:

Messrs. Wm. Bagnell, Walker Hill and Rev. Mr. Blaisdell.

The ballot being taken the tellers retired.

The Rt. Rev. President then announced that with the permission of Rev. Mr. Duckworth, the Secretary would call the roll of pledges made yesterday, so that any necessary or desired corrections might be made. The Secretary called the roll and the following additional pledges were then made. (See Appendix No. 13, page 132.)

On motion of Rev. Mr. Miller, duly seconded, it was ordered that a committee of three laymen be appointed by the Chair, as financial managers of the Church News.

The Rt. Rev. President appointed the following as such managers:

Mr. Chas. Sparks, of Jennings.

Mr. Vincent L. Price, of St. Mark's.

Mr. S. B. Sheldon, of St. Peter's.

The tellers returning to the room and the vote being declared, the Rt. Rev. President announced that the following-named gentlemen had been elected Deputies to the General Convention:

Rev. Leslie F. Potter.

Mr. Francis J. McMaster.

Maj. Thomas O. Towles.

Thereupon the second ballot was taken, and the tellers retired.

Rev. Mr. Elmer presented and read the following report of the Committee to which was referred that part of the Bishop's Address referring to the Missionary Thank-offering, and moved its adoption with the recommendations, which motion was duly seconded and carried:

Your committee, to whom was referred that portion of the Bishop's address relating to the Missionary Thankoffering, begs leave to report as follows:

1. Your committee would recommend that the request of the Bishop setting apart the third Sunday after Trinity, being the anniversary in the Church Year, of the first Celebration of the Holy Communion by the Church on this continent, be duly observed in all the churches of the Diocese, and that the Bishop be requested to set forth a prayer suitable for the occasion, to be said after the regular collect for that day.

2. That the Clergy of the Diocese be requested to distribute the literature provided by the Diocesan Committee on the Missionary Thank-offering relating to this great event, to preach sermons suitable for the occasion, and see that an opportunity is afforded in every Parish and Mission to purchase the History of the American Church for the Past Three Hundred Years, by Dr. Hodges, a book which ought to be in the hands of every churchman, and which is sold for the modest sum of twenty-five cents (unless another plan has already been adopted).

3. That before this service an appeal be made to every man in our churches to make a contribution to this cause, as an expression of his thankfulness to Almighty God for the blessings brought to all men by the Church, and for its influence in moulding the political freedom enjoyed by this nation.

WM. ELMER.

HUDSON E. BRIDGE.

For Prayer set forth in accordance with the recommendation of the committee, see page 97.

Rev. Mr. Mizner presented and read the report of the Sunday School Commission, appointed last year to report to this Convention. (Journal 1906, page 52.)

On motion the resolution thereto attached was adopted. (See Appendix No. 17, page 143.)

The hour of twelve having arrived, the Rt. Rev. President announced that the usual noon day services would be held. These were opened by the singing of the 261st hymn, the services being conducted by Rev. Dr. Lynch.

The Rt. Rev. President appointed the following committee called for in the resolution attached to the report of the Sunday School Commission:

Rev. Henry W. Mizner.

Rev. William M. Walton.

Mr. James A. Waterworth.

Dean Davis addressed the Convention concerning the Men's Thankoffering and explained about the use of envelopes that have been prepared by the committee.

On motion, the Rt. Rev. President appointed the following a committee of three to take suitable action on that part of the Bishop's Address referring to the death of Rev. Dr. Ingraham and of Rev. Russell Todd:

Rev. Mr. Cochran.

Rev. Mr. Miller.

Prof. M. S. Snow.

The tellers returning to the room and the vote being declared, the Rt. Rev. President announced that there had been no election, and another ballot was ordered.

The Rev. Mr. St. Clair being obliged to leave the Convention Hall, the Chair appointed Rev. Mr. Binnington in his stead as teller for the lay vote.

Mr. Walker Hill withdrew the name of Rev. Mr. Garrett as a candidate for Deputy.

Thereupon the third ballot was taken and the tellers retired.

Mr. Sparks spoke advocating the earnest support of the Church News.

A motion to dispense with the calling of the roll for the casting of the ballots was lost.

Mr. H. L. Chase presented and read the report of the Special Committee, to which was referred that portion of the Bishop's Address relating to the Apportionment, as follows:

PAROCHIAL PAYMENTS ON APPORTIONMENTS.

Your committee to whom was referred that portion of the Bishop's address alluding to the deferred parochial payments on apportionment, having talked the matter over and conferred with others, finds that many of the Parishes defer payment of their apportionment for General Missions until the month of August, for example, as will be seen by the October, 1906, "Spirit of Mission," where receipts from this Diocese amount to about $2,600.00.

This has been the usual custom, and it will be followed, no doubt, this year, it being a fact that some Parishes have already in sight the amount of their assessment ready to be paid.

But in view of the Bishop's solicitude it is suggested that a letter, urging the importance of quicker action, be sent to such Parishes as appear to be slow in making their returns, which letter might properly emanate from the Standing Committee for Apportionment on General Missions.

Respectfully submitted,

H. L. CHASE, Chairman.
E. H. LYCETT,
WILLIAM BAGNELL.

On motion, this report, together with the accompanying suggestion, was referred to the Standing Committee on Apportionment.

Rev. Mr. Fauntleroy presented and read the report of the Committee on Constitution and Canons, as follows:

Your Committee on Constitution and Canons begs to report on the resolution of the Rev. Mr. Miller in relation to the change of name of the Diocese, that in their judgment there exist no sufficient reasons for the change proposed, and recommend that said resolution be not adopted.

PHILIP WMS. FAUNTLEROY,
H. W. MIZNER,
J. COURTNEY JONES,
F. J. McMASTER.

Rev. Mr. Fauntleroy proceeding to remark upon the report of said committee, Rev. Mr. Miller rose to a point of order, stating that as the Constitution says any notice brought in must be held for a year before debate, there is no reason for remarks being made at this time.

The Rt. Rev. President announced that there was nothing for the Chair to rule upon, as the Rev. Mr. Fauntleroy was referring only to the report of the committee.

The tellers returned to the room and made their report.

Thereupon, the vote being declared, the Rt. Rev. President announced the election of the Rev. Edmund Duckworth as a Deputy to the General Convention.

The hour of recess having arrived the Rt. Rev. President announced that a recess was taken until 2:30 o'clock p. m.

After recess on Thursday, May 30th, the Convention reassembled at 2:30 p. m.

The Rev. Alfred A. V. Binnington and the Rev. Henry P. Horton requested that their names be withdrawn from the list of nominees as Deputies to the General Convention.

The Rev. Mr. Clark asked to be excused from serving further as teller for the clergy, and the Rt. Rev. President appointed the Rev. Wm. Cochran in his stead.

Thereupon the ballot was taken for the fourth time, and the tellers retired.

In Memoriam

The members of the Sixty-Eighth Convention of the Diocese of Missouri, assembled May 30, 1907, in memory of

Rev. Russell Todd.

The Rev. Mr. Todd, canonically connected with this Diocese, was retired from active work several years ago, and died at Lansing, Michigan.

His career is an instance of a life devoted to Christ and His Church, unheralded in the world, but precious in the sight of God, and of helpful good to many souls who came under his ministration.

WILLIAM COCHRAN
MARSHALL S. SNOW
G. D. B. MILLER

Committee.

The Rev. George Lloyd, in accordance with his notice on yesterday, introduced the following amendment to the first section of Canon X, and moved that it be referred to the Committee on Constitution and Canons:

"At the end of the first section of Canon X add these words:

'That no Parish shall decide upon the permanent location of its property without the consent of the Bishop of the Diocese and the Standing Committee.'"

Which motion was duly seconded, and unanimously carried.

Rev. G. D. B. Miller moved that action upon the report presented by the Committee on Constitution and Canons, in regard to the change of name of the Diocese, be postponed until next year.

Upon this motion the ayes and noes were called for, which being taken resulted in Ayes 30, Noes 53.

The Rt. Rev. President thereupon announced that the motion to postpone had been lost, and the question before the Convention was the adoption of the recommendation of the Committee on Constitution and Canons that the resolution to change the name of the Diocese be not adopted.

The question being submitted to the Convention, the Rt. Rev. President announced that the Convention had approved the recommendation of the Committee on Constitution and Canons, that the change of the name of the Diocese from "Missouri" to "St. Louis" be not adopted.

Prof. Marshall S. Snow presented the resolutions upon the death of the Rev. J. P. T. Ingraham and the Rev. Russell Todd:

The Secretary read the report of the Librarian, as follows:

REPORT OF THE LIBRARIAN.

May 29, 1907.

Since the last report twenty-one volumes have been loaned. The books have also been used to a considerable extent in the library room, but no record has been kept of the number of books used in this way. The Spirit of Missions and the Church News have been bound up to date.

There was a balance of $11.96 on hand at last report. Since then a bill of fifty cents has been paid for drayage on bookcases, leaving balance of $11.46, with outstanding bill for binding two volumes.

Respectfully,

CLAUDE E. REMICK, Librarian.

The Rev. Mr. Miller moved that the Convention appropriate for the benefit of the Librarian the sum of $25.00.

The Treasurer announced that the appropriation of $25.00 made at the last Convention had not been drawn upon, and thereupon the Rev. Mr. Miller withdrew his motion.

The Rt. Rev. President announced that the election of a Librarian was in order, and upon motion of Rev. Mr. Miller, duly seconded, Rev. Claude E. Remick was nominated.

There being no other nominations, on motion of Prof. Marshall S. Snow, the Rev. Mr. Miller was instructed to cast the ballot of the Convention for the Rev. Mr. Claude E. Remick for Librarian.

The Rev. Mr. Miller so cast the ballot, and the Rt. Rev. President announced that the Rev. Mr. Remick was elected Librarian.

The tellers returned and made report of the ballot cast, and the vote being declared the Rt. Rev. President announced that Mr. Henry L. Chase had been elected a Lay Deputy to the General Convention.

Rev. B. E. Reed and Messrs. E. C. Lycett and Major Alexander M. Davis, asked that their names be withdrawn from the list of nominees.

Thereupon the ballot was taken for the fifth time, and the tellers retired.

Mr. E. J. Thomas presented and read the report of the Committee on Assessments.

Mr. Krochle moved that the assessment of the Church of the Good Shepherd be reduced from $60.00 to $50.00, the amount assessed the previous year, which motion was duly seconded.

Mr. E. C. Lycett explained that the assessment was made, after due thought, the Committee on Assessments taking into consideration the fact that on the regular pro rata the assessment should be $85.00; and also that the minister in charge was receiving a stipend from the Missionary Board; therefore the committee considered that $60.00 was a very reasonable assessment.

The motion to reduce the amount was then submitted to the Convention, and was declared to be lost.

The Rt. Rev. President thereupon announced that the business before the Convention was to take action upon the report of the Committee on Assessments.

On motion of Mr. Lycett, duly seconded, the report of the Committee on Assessments was unanimously adopted. (See Appendix No. 15, page 140.)

Rev. H. P. Horton moved that a committee of three be appointed by the Chair to nominate to the Convention six clergymen and nine laymen to serve upon the Missionary Board for the ensuing year.

President announced that the Annual Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary would be held tomorrow, Friday, May 31st, beginning with Holy Communion in the Cathedral at half past nine o'clock, followed by the business meeting in Schuyler Memorial House, at which meeting an address would be made by Rev. Dr. W. C. Brown, of Brazil.

The election of Registrar being next in order, Rev. G. D. B. Miller was nominated by Mr. Arthur J. Watling. There being no other nominations, on motion of Rev. Wm. Elmer the rules were suspended, and Mr. Arthur J. Watling instructed to cast the ballot of the Convention for Rev. G. D. B. Miller.

were suspended and the Secretary was instructed to cast the ballot of the Convention for Mr. I. Shreve Carter.

There being no other nominations, on motion of Mr. McKenzie, the rules were suspended and the Secretary instructed to cast the ballot of the Convention for the above-named gentlemen.

Rev. L. B. Richards moved that a committee of three be appointed by the Chair to nominate delegates to the Missionary Conference, to be held at Des Moines, Iowa, in January, 1908, said committee to report to the Convention.

Upon suggestion of Rev. Mr. Potter the Rt. Rev. President requested the Rev. Mr. Richards if there be no objection to submit a list of ten names, which was done accordingly, no objection being made, and the following gentlemen were so nominated:

The following resolution was introduced by Major A. M. Davis:

Resolved, That this Convention instruct its deputies to the General Convention to offer to that body the hospitality of the See City of the Diocese of Missouri as the place of meeting for the General Convention of the Church in 1910.

The deputation is instructed to urge the fitness of this selection on two accounts, viz.:

1st. Out of honor to the presiding Bishop of the Church, who is the beloved Diocesan of this Diocese.

2d. The last two Conventions having been held respectively on the Pacific and Atlantic sea-boards, the selection of the city of a central State would be most appropriate.

Which resolution was duly seconded and unanimously carried, and the Rt. Rev. President announced that the deputies would be so instructed.

The Very Rev. Carroll M. Davis thereupon presented the report of the Special Committee on the University of the South, as follows:

Your committee appointed to consider that portion of the Bishop's address referring to the University of the South, respectfully report that they believe that this Convention should hail with joy the signs of increasing growth and development abundantly evidenced by the University of the South, which at this time celebrates the fiftieth anniversary of its foundation.

We respectfully suggest the following resolutions:

First. That this Convention extends hearty greetings to the Trustees and Faculty of the University of the South on the completion of fifty years of usefulness, and bids them Godspeed for the years to come.

Second. That the work of the University be commended to the people of the Diocese for their interest and support.

Rev. Mr. Horton thereupon stated that Rev. Mr. Garrett had especially requested that his name be not included, and Dean Davis insisting on his name being withdrawn, Rev. Mr. Horton asked permission of the Chair to withdraw the report of the Nominating Committee for the purpose of amendment, and it was so ordered.

The following motion was presented by Mr. Arthur B. Ambler:

Moved, That the resolution in regard to the University of the South be published in full on one page of the "Church News," for general distribution.

Above motion was seconded by Mr. Arthur J. Watling, and was unanimously carried.

Thereupon the ballot was taken for the seventh time, and the tellers retired.

Mr. F. J. McMaster, for the Committee on Constitution and Canons, stated that the amendments to the Canons proposed by Rev. Mr. Blaisdell and Rev. Mr. Lloyd had given the committee more trouble than any other amendments proposed, and moved that the committee be granted further time, with instructions to report upon the proposed amendments at the next Convention.

There still being only three clerical deputies elected, another ballot was ordered.

Very Rev. Carroll M. Davis thereupon asked that his name be withdrawn, and asked the privilege of introducing the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Secretary be instructed to cast the ballot for the Rev. Henry W. Mizner.

This was objected to by Rev. Mr. McKenzie.

DANIEL S. TUTTLE,
Bishop of Missouri.

ANNUAL ADDRESS
OF THE
BISHOP OF MISSOURI
TO THE
SIXTY-EIGHTH CONVENTION.

Dear Brethren of the Clergy and Laity:

May I speak first of myself? It is one month more than forty years since I was made bishop. The House of Bishops then consisted of forty-four members. It has now one hundred and one. The dioceses were then thirty-five. They are now sixty-three. The missionary districts were then seven. They are now twenty-six. My earthly eyes have been spared to see great growth in this Church in America. I was made bishop a little after our dreadful civil war closed. God's merciful Providence preserved this Church entirely from disruption, and almost from any disharmony arising out of the sad and sharp struggle at arms. Under the flag and in the field of civil organization this Church has always stood for union. She accentuates this fact by the scrupulous care taken to see to it that not a square rod of American soil be left unprovided with her own bishop, chosen and commissioned to exercise jurisdiction thereon. It is a hopeful dream to me—nay, it is a sure, deep faith with me—that under the same merciful Providence, in His own day and in His own way, this Church shall be made the rallying center for Christian unity which shall intensify, spiritualize, and perfect patriotic union. My earthly eyes shall not see the blessed sight. I permit myself to envy those who are to see it. Please God, my spirit shall rejoice with them with joy unspeakably great. God help us all, not only to be hopeful and outreachingly expectant, but helpful also, and loving and allowance-making, in view of the consummation devoutly to be wished.

During our convention year three bishops have been called away to their rest.

Bishop Schereschewsky could not and would not rest before. Stricken down by a paralyzing affection, but with brain and memory unimpaired, sitting in his invalid chair, he dictated, or, with one finger yet spared to strike upon the typewriter, wrote a valuable translation of the Holy Bible into one of the most important of the dialects of the Chinese language.

He was seventy-five years old and had been a bishop for twenty-nine years. His consuming zeal, his profound learning, and his indomitable determination to persist in active usefulness, made him a conspicuous hero in our missionary annals.

Bishop Nicholson's term of service was fifteen years. He brought for contribution to that service the experience and trained sagacity of a business man. He crowned all with a devotion of spirit, and a self-sacrificing industry which has helped to place Milwaukee, with its one hundred and three clergy, in a foremost rank of Western dioceses.

Bishop Seymour was for more than twenty-eight years a bishop of what is really a large missionary field in Southern Illinois. His earlier life and training had been all of the urban sort. Yet no man more than he grappled earnestly and assiduously with the difficulties and perplexities of rural life. An accomplished scholar, spite of the handicapping of imperfect vision, a skilled theologian, a brave champion of Church order and Church principles, a fearless, honest, unselfish, generous-hearted man, his seventy-seven years summed up a life of devoted service to the Master and His Militant Church. He preceded me by seven years in Columbia College, New York; and to us in college days was cited once and again by our Greek Professor, Anthon, the excellent scholarship of Seymour, who had graduated at the head of his class a few years before. In these later years he was my neighbor, and a kind, warm, helpful personal friend. His loss from my side plants a sorrow strong, but tender, in the heart.

Two of our clergy have been called away; both of them aged and retired from active service.

Rev. Dr. Ingraham was in his ninetieth year, and at his death the senior surviving graduate, I think, of Nashotah. He had been the faithful and loved pastor of St. John's Church, and of Grace Church of this city. His vigor, his cheeriness, his sympathy with the young and his pastoral fidelity kept him active and successful far into the afternoon of his earthly life.

Rev. Russell Todd died in his seventy-eighth year, at Lansing, Mich., whither he had gone with his family for a home. I knew him first when I was in deacon's orders, forty-five years ago. He began his ministry as an assistant in the very parish where I also began mine as an assistant, Zion Church, Morris, N. Y. In the old diocese of Missouri he served under me at Lebanon, and in the latter diocese faithfully at Cape Girardeau and Canton. It may be well understood how his death closes up another little chapter of associations of my earliest life.

One of our postulants has died, Pearl Lawrence Parsons, of Edina. He had completed part of his course of study at Sewanee, and his youthful enthusiasm and intelligence gave promise of great usefulness in the ministry. But it pleased God to summon him away to a higher service.

Captain Bofinger and Mrs. Trowbridge, of St. Louis, are among those of our Church people who have passed on from the Church Militant. Captain John N. Bofinger was an earnest and zealous member of the Cathedral Chapter, who, as a memorial of his lamented wife, had built the chapel of the cathedral bearing her name. Mrs. Sarah Trowbridge was for many years a devout communicant of St. George's, and a leader in benevolent and beneficent activity of all kinds. Mrs. O'Dell, who died more than a year ago, left to the bishop in trust $2,000 for burying the poor of the cathedral, and $500 each to All Saints' and St. Stephen's, St. Louis.

The changes and chances of this mortal life bring rest to some of us. They hold work and duty yet before others of us. God keep us faithful to the work! God, in His mercifulness through Christ, have us ready for the rest!

"Life's work well done,
Life's race well run,
Life's crown well won,
Now comes rest."

In the diocese we need not shrink from scrutinizing examination.

It is true we have sold out property, and seemed to close up work in two places, Bevier and LaPlata; and have loaned without interest the proceeds of sale to the vestry of St. James', Macon. But good reasons commending the approval of our action by the trustees of the Parochial Trust Fund existed in both cases. Nor are we estopped from re-entering into either town to push Church work in the future. In fact, in LaPlata we continue our work now, preserving our organization of a mission there.

In all other places, I think, forward and upward are our watchwords.

There is an aroused life in Columbia. Mr. Duckworth helped it with a special week of mission work. And the rector's steady faithfulness there, among both people and students, is admirably successful. There are thousands of students in that town. It is not easy to estimate the far-reaching results of Church influence among them. May I not bespeak the cordial sympathy and good will of all of us for the important work which the rector and vestry there are charged with; and substantial help to them, too, if they ask for it.

There is another college town where students are counted by the thousand, viz., Kirksville. The new rector there grasps the situation, and he is warming the parish with the fire of a contagious zeal. He sadly needs a new church. These college towns seem to me to have reasonable ground for asking outside help.

At Louisiana a growing weakness in the church edifice was making it quite unsafe. The vigorous rector has succeeded in getting the building repaired and put into excellent shape, and without having much of a debt left behind. He has relinquished the charge of Clarksville, and Louisiana has assumed a greater share in his support. Retaining Prairieville, he still seems to be a veritable bishop of Pike County.

In St. Charles a guild room, admirably convenient, has been added to the church, and paid for.

At Ferguson the people have put their pastor into a rectory where, by his paying rent for a time, he can have the privilege of helping them to sink the loan which was necessary to be made in erecting it.

In Old Orchard both church and rectory have been renovated and enlarged, and I think the prospect is good that all the improvements will be paid for at once.

In St. Louis, All Saints' has taken a long stride ahead in its sale of its former edifice, and its purchase of the church property, formerly Unitarian, on the corner of Locust street and Garrison avenue. No church in the city is now better equipped than All Saints', with its chapel and Sunday-school room and guild room.

The parish house of the Church of the Holy Communion is finished and occupied, and in good course to be paid for. Holy Innocents', with only a modest debt, has put up a comfortable rectory, in which the pastor and family are now happily at home. The Church of the Good Shepherd has reverently and gratefully placed upon its chancel wall an enduring tablet in memory of its late faithful and much-loved rector, Rev. B. F. Newton. St. Stephen's is a very hive of missionary activity and growth, and is accumulating a fund for enlargement, the need for which presses daily and hourly upon it. For the Church of the Advent the faithful city missionary, Rev. Mr. Cochran, has laid wise foundations in an excellent location, contenting himself at present to worship with his flock in the substructure, even though it be not dignified with the ancient and honorable appellation of the crypt. St. George's, after a parochial life of sixty-two years, and pensioning its last pastor, the Rev. Dr. Holland, who during two separated terms was its faithful rector for twenty-eight years, has gathered itself into co-operation with the cathedral under the name of St. George's Chapel. The Orphans' Home, by a fortunate sale of downtown property, finds itself assured of a reasonable income to meet the needs of the little ones under its care.

These things enumerated are outward and visible signs. I feel convinced that in parishes and congregations, and in hearts and lives, all through the diocese, there is also growth in inward and spiritual grace, and I earnestly give God thanks, and cheerily give you greeting in our review thereof.

It is a comfort also to know that not many places now are without a pastor. Clarksville, De Soto, Moberly, Thayer, LaPlata, Portland, Shelbyna, and Valley Park are all; and of these the last four can hardly be called vacancies. Archdeacon Walton, since he came, has the supervision of these, and by his excellent work in the diocese, and his quick grasp of the situat

the situation, he is lending efficient help in securing pastors for the vacant places.

In the vital matter of missionary work the outlook is a cheery one. In the city the Hospital Missions have a wise and untiring head in the Rev. Mr. Brittain. The city missions of Advent and Epiphany and St. Barnabas' and St. Timothy's, under Rev. Mr. Cochran and his assistant, Rev. Mr. Cuddy, are prospering. Deaconess Anne and Miss Skinker and their helpers, make Holy Cross Mission to be a very center of light and succor; St. Stephen's needs only to be seen to be recognized as a personification of beneficence. It has lately added another feature of merciful goodness. It has secured eighty acres of land, on which it is to erect some buildings in the country to give fresh air in the hot summer months to the cooped-up children of our city. The Convalescent Home rescues and revives scores of the weary, and the wasted. In the diocese, with the archdeacon's help, nothing is left neglected to fall back into weakness and despair. And the money for sustaining all the good work was provided by the $10,000 pledged for Diocesan Missions at the last convention, Missouri pledges being always, as we are proud to tell, as reliable for our needs as actual cash in hand. I feel obliged to make known that to keep all our diocesan missionary work in healthful continuance there is need this year of pledges for $11,500.

Honest pride also uplifts the eyes in looking outside of the diocese. Missouri paid its full apportionment of $5,500 last year for General Missions. Nineteen dioceses, out of the sixty-three, paid in full. Missouri was one of the nineteen. Eight Western dioceses only paid in full. Missouri was one of the eight. Besides, our Sunday-schools gave over two thousand dollars, and our Woman's Auxiliary over six hundred dollars. More than eighty-one hundred dollars in all. I was made very happy by the honorable record. But gladness and sadness are in our human life so likely to get near to each other and shake hands, that I am now wondering if we are to keep up to our good record in the present year, ending August 31. Up to April 1, the date of the last report, only $1,860.44, of the $5,800, have been sent in. That makes me a little sad.

I ask you to note what wonderful helpers the women and children are. The $600 are but a small part of the gifts and pledges for missions of the Woman's Auxiliary and the Junior Auxiliary. They have given in money this year $6,611.53, over and above their supplies of boxes sent. And the Young Women's Club is a supporter of Holy Cross; and other women are helpers of St. Stephen's; and women sustain the Orphan's Home and the Convalescent Home. And the children give, besides their $2,000 for outside missions, their $1,000 also through the Missionary Host to their bishop for inside missions. Verily, in the hand shake, after all, triumphant gladness shakes and doubting sadness is shaken.

I must not neglect to make known that a new mission of the diocese, St. Paul's, Overland Park, has been organized.

Difficulties have beset Bishop Robertson Hall. It has been a burden upon the Sisters to pay interest on the mortgage of $25,000, and to meet the cost of repairs, taxes, and insurance. After thoughtful consideration we have decided to sell the property. The good done by the faithful and devoted Sisters, not only to individual pupils, but to the Church tone, and the Church work, and the Church growth of the diocese is beyond calculation. Blessings have constantly flowed forth from their influence and their school. May blessings return and rest upon them and their future lives!

This is the Jubilee year of the University of the South. In 1857 it was founded under Bishops Otey and Polk and Elliott. I think it a well-planned, a well-managed, and a nobly efficient institution. I shall be glad and grateful for the diocese to be loyal to it, and to be generously helpful to its needs.

The General Clergy Relief Fund, from its office in Philadelphia, has been generous to our aged and infirm clergymen, having given us $600 last year. Our offerings to the supply of its treasury were $199.07, and only nine of our parishes contributed. I should be glad and grateful if on Quinquagesima Sunday, or some other Sunday of the year, each and every congregation should be asked to contribute to this fund.

There is a spirit abroad in the Church, I think, waking up the men. The Brotherhood of St. Andrew has been a help in begetting and promoting it. The Brotherhood, in our diocese, is awake and active. Witness its provision and guidance of the late daily Lenten services for business men. And also its placing a man of its own in the field to help Holy Cross Mission and the hospital missions. Then Church Clubs and Laymen's Forward Movements and Laymen's Conferences have arisen all over the land. And now, especially, the Men's Missionary Thankoffering is presented to our consideration. The plan of this thankoffering, it seems to me, is admirable. First, to get the register of the names of all the men over fifteen years of age of the American Church. Second, to have a brother man interview each and every one of these men to tell him of the great missionary work of the Church, and to ask him for an offering in grateful commemoration of three hundred years of English Christianity in America, which began at Jamestown, Va., in 1607. To get this done all over the United States should be a great enlargement of missionary interest, and a great uplift of missionary zeal. I honestly want to help all I can as bishop, and I earnestly ask the clergy to help all they can, and I no less earnestly beg all our laymen to lend a hand in accomplishing this end, viz., that every man among us shall hear something from fellowman about our missionary work, and shall give something in gratitude for our three hundred years of Anglo-Saxon Christian life. We clergymen are men. I hope the brother man will come to us, and that each of us will be represented. Will not one man give $1, and another $5, and another $50, and another $100, and even more, that Missouri shall not be left behind and writ down least in the count? On Wednesday morning, October 9, at a service of the Holy Communion in Richmond, it is proposed to hand in the Thankoffering, and in a mass-meeting, in a large hall at night, to make it known. My heart is full of hope that our men will not let Missouri lag far in the rear in that count. It is proposed that Monday, June 17, be the closing day for the registering and the giving. May I not earnestly ask that those parish committees who have not acted, and those men who have not given, will in these two coming weeks do both these things? Also, on the third Sunday after Trinity, in 1607, Rev. Robert Hunt, at Jamestown, celebrated the first English service of the Holy Communion ever held in America; and I ask that the clergy on Sunday, June 16, being the third Sunday after Trinity, will, in their services and sermons, have special and grateful remembrance and reference to that early day.

In talking of men and trying to rouse men to active work, is it out of place for me to name two men among us who have stood up to and staid by such active Christian service for extended periods of time? Mr. James B. Gazzam has been continuously treasurer of Christ Church and Christ Church Cathedral for more than forty years. Mr. William H. Thomson, as Sunday-school teacher and superintendent, and vestryman and warden, has been in service in Trinity, St. Louis, for more than fifty years. And may I be permitted to name one man more who shows the zeal of a Christian and the wisdom of a statesman in the faithful work he does, viz., Mr. Charles Sparks in his care of the Union Sunday-school at Jennings.

The Director of the National Census is endeavoring to compile a correct and complete return in the religious department. I am helping him all I can. But he has sent cards and lists for information to each one of you of the clergy. We all want correctness and completeness to be secured in this matter. They can not be secured without our help. I ask that every clergyman will take pains to fill out the list and return to the office. If you have not done so already, and have lost the listed card, please write at once to Mr. S. N. D. Horth, Director of the Census, Washington, D. C., and ask him to furnish you a duplicate.

Two things suggest themselves to me to dwell upon before I close.

The first concerns St. Luke's Hospital. I know the blessed and blessing service which it renders. A few days since I received a letter from a clergyman whose wife had been cared for there, filled with expression of the warmest and deepest gratitude. By history and by charter it is a Church institution. Now hospitals, under modern demands for equipment and service and skill, are necessarily expensive institutions. Under the large expenses St. Luke's needs help. It needs gifts. It needs endowments. May not the clergy who, with their families are blessedly helped by it, help it in turn by calling attention to it. In the office of the Visitation of the Sick in the Prayer Book, this following is enjoined upon the clergyman: "And if the sick person hath not before disposed of his goods, let him then be admonished to make his will, and to declare his debts, what he oweth and what is owing unto him, for the better discharging of his conscience, and the quietness of his executors. But men should often be put in remembrance to take order for the settling of their temporal estates, whilst they are in health."

The clergyman then has the authority of the Church to speak to men about their wills. God blesses the men of America—many among them—with prosperous conditions, and the possession of considerable fortunes. May not the clergyman, in a timely word to a steward of wealth, put into his thoughts the needs of the hospital, and how a bequest made to it in the will would be a sure way to do great and kindly good to his suffering fellowmen?

The second is suggested to me by the gratifying number of confirmations reported this year. They are 686, more than ever reported before in any year since the present diocese has existed. I am rejoiced at this, for I think confirmation to be an important and valuable part of the ways and means possessed by the Church for impressing her demands and her Master's commands upon the hearts and souls of men. But I am constrained to dissociate myself from sympathy with two utterances that sometimes come to my hearing.

One clergyman says: "It is not my habit to ask people to be confirmed, and still less to urge them. They know that the Church wants them, and that it is their duty to be confirmed, and that they ought to do their duty. It is for them to move and not for me. If they come I shall be glad and grateful, and accord them a cordial welcome."

My dear brother, I can not but esteem your view to be a mistaken one. You are the man of God among your parishoners. For a few years and till the evening comes, and the account of stewardship must be handed in, you are set to speak for God to the wandering souls of men. Can you think that God, with all His love in Christ for men, does not want men asked to close in with that love, and to place themselves in the inner circle of grace which he abundantly provides? And who is to be voice for Him to do the asking if not you, the man of God? God the Holy Spirit speaks to them, I grant, in their inner thought and conscience. But God wants an outward voice to speak to them too, to deepen and strengthen and enforce the inner message. And you, the man of God, ought to be that voice, speaking to fellow men, man to man, eye to eye, heart to heart, about their souls. Home, society, business, experience, moral standards, the very newspapers may teach them of duty to fellowmen and drill them in such duty. But duty to God, duty to confess gratefully the Lord Jesus Christ before men, and to be His sworn soldier in confirmation, who is to wake each soul to this, and to urge the doing of it, but you, the man of God? And, surely, surely, men will thank you for the speaking, and honor you for the speaking, and love you for the speaking, even if for some strong or strange reason they will not move for your speaking. The old meaning of prophet is one who speaks for God. O, my brother, if you speak not for God to men and women, urging them to come to confirmation, are you the true prophet that you ought to be?

Another clergyman says, "I want my class for confirmation to be well instructed. I would rather have five well-instructed ones to present to the bishop to be confirmed, that they may be true and steadfast churchmen afterward, than fifty uninstructed ones, loose in their attachment to the Church, untrained in, and it may be unloyal to her practices and requirements."

My dear brother, it is the ideal you are thinking of. So thinking, you are right. It is of the children who have been baptized, and who must be taught and instructed before coming to confirmation. The rubric before the catechism and the office for Infant Baptism bear you out in your view, and so you are quite right. But, if you think of the practical, will you forgive me if I say honestly that I esteem you quite wrong. If the two classes are lined up and I must choose between them, indeed I had rather have the fifty uninstructed ones to come to confirmation than the five well instructed. There would be ten times the number of souls come to Christ and to His Church, and to the influences these would draw forth around them. God's love in Christ wants souls, rather than well-instructed Churchmen. The Blessed Saviour's yearning is for souls. He wants, as it were, to go out and compel them to come in. When the three thousand on the day of Pentecost were at once baptized, after Peter's sermon, are we to think they had any prolonged course of instruction? And, anyway, can you say the men and women about you, whom you want to plead with to come to confirmation, are not instructed? Homes have instructed them. Experience has moulded them. Business has taught them. Social duties have disciplined them. Life itself has educated and developed them. They know the right and the wrong. They know much of the false and the true. They discern between the good and the bad. Much instruction in these things they have had. You might have a confirmation class under faithful and valuable instruction for six months, and yet these men and women in the thick of the world's duties and the heat of the world's temptations, and the cloud of the world's sadnesses, shall know vastly more of these necessary things than your well-instructed class. Do not, I would urge, make your class and your instruction everything. Be not afraid to take in for confirmation those whom you may deem uninstructed, if only they be honest and earnest. The Church is not an ark for the perfectly instructed, the perfectly sane, the perfectly healthy, the perfectly sanctified to flee into. It's a workshop. It's a hospital. It's a school. It's a brotherhood lodge room. In it we are to be helped. And we are to help each other. In it God's grace overflows to help us. And if His Holy Spirit has already helped the uninstructed ones outside to be good, and to think true and to do right, how should we not be glad and grateful to welcome all such ones, even though uninstructed, to come to receive by the laying on of hands, into their wondering and humbled souls the covenanted gift, and the overflowing pledged and promised gift of God, the Holy Ghost.

Dear brethren of the clergy, the time is short. Are we speaking for God to the souls of men as we ought while the daylight lingers? The night cometh, and with it comes the call for the account of our stewardship. God mercifully have us ready for it for the loving Saviour's sake! Be not wanting or weary in urging men to be confirmed. Be not afraid to bring in uninstructed ones, if only they be honest and earnest. The Church in her Christian year, in her sacred worship, in her kindly brotherhood, in her holy sacraments, will instruct them; and you and they, please God in His mercy through Christ, shall be of that "great multitude which no man could number, of all nations and kindreds and people and tongues, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands."

A Thanksgiving for the Introduction of the Church Into America.

O Most Glorious Lord God, Who dwelling in heaven beholdest all things below; Who hast been exceeding gracious unto this land in planting here, at its first settlement, to our comfort and joy, a true branch of Thy Church to tell in English tongue the wonderful works of God, we render thanks and praise for this great benefit, humbly beseeching Thee to continue this Thy goodness to us, that the heritage we have received from our fathers may be preserved and prospered in our time and transmitted to the generations to come. Pardon every failure that we have made to use these blessings aright, and grant that in the future we may show forth our thankfulness not only with our lips but in our lives, by giving up ourselves to Thy service, and by walking before Thee in holiness and righteousness. Grant that all who seek salvation in Thy name, O Lord Jesus Christ, may be led into the unity prayed for by Thee; grant that peace may prevail in our midst and among the nations of the earth; grant that all peoples may know that Thou art our Saviour and Mighty Deliverer, and our King foreyer, to Whom, with the Father and the Holy Ghost, be all honor and glory, World without End.—Amen.

A Prayer for the Hague Conference.

O God, the King of Glory, Who hast exalted Thy Son, Jesus Christ, with great triumph unto Thy Kingdom in heaven, leave us not comfortless, but send Thy Holy Spirit into all the world to enlighten all men everywhere with the knowledge of the blessed truth that they are brethren, Children of One Father, and subjects of a universal redemption through His Son. Fill Thou their hearts with love of this truth and enable them to hold it in unity of spirit, in the bond of peace, and in righteousness of life. Make wars to cease in all the world, and bring in peace, and good will to men, that truth and justice, religion and piety may be established on earth for all generations. To this end visit with Thy favor, we pray Thee, The Hague Conference, and so guide and govern the members of it by the mighty power of the Holy Ghost in the great work in which they are to be engaged, that blessed results making for peace may be secured; so that wars shall cease, and the earth be full of the knowledge of the Lord as the waters cover the sea; and that at the name of Jesus every knee shall bow and every tongue confess that Jesus Christ is Lord to the glory of God the Father. Grant this, Our Father, we beseech Thee, for the glory of Thy Name and for the sake of Thy Son, the Prince of Peace, Our Lord and Saviour, Jesus Christ.—Amen.

The Bishop requests the Clergy to use these prayers specially at the appointed service for June 16, 1907.

Archdeacon's Annual Report.

To the Rt. Rev. Daniel S. Tuttle, D.D., S.T.D., LL.D., Bishop of Missouri:

Elected to the office of Archdeacon of the Diocese as the Convention year was drawing to a close, this report must assume, necessarily, a somewhat general character. Under the personal direction of the Bishop the work, so far, has consisted of visits of inspection, a study of the population and location of rural towns and some special work of an incidental character. You will, therefore, perceive that no systematic attempt at church extension can as yet have been undertaken. This tour of inspection is now in progress and will not be completed for several months.

As the result of my investigation of the Diocese of Missouri I find about thirty counties and at least one hundred towns of appreciable size where the Church is practically unknown, and the churchman settling in rural districts must seek some large adjacent town if he desires our church ministrations. It is, however, evident, both in the city of St. Louis and other localities that the Church has not lacked faithful and consecrated men conspicuous for missionary zeal and ability and whose work has been crowned with success. The sad destitution in the State at large is due, partially, to an insufficient force of these men and, partly, to the constant shifting of the missionary clergy consequent, often, upon salaries inadequate to their support. If the Bishop and Archdeacon could only reinforce the present corps by a few men of similar caliber and a strong effort were made to increase salaries all along the line, the future would be bright with hope and promise. Capital is being invested in our Diocese, industries are multiplying, the larger estates are being subdivided and sold to small farmers in certain localities. Our policy should be to preëempt these districts in the interest of the Church, occupying strategic points susceptible of being worked in groups by one man. It has been too much our custom in our older Dioceses to follow rather than to precede and create the demand for the Church. As a business principle men of the world would unhesitatingly condemn this policy.

In conclusion, I will state briefly the policy of the Archdeacon in certain important details. This is always subject, of course, to the wise guidance and ripper judgment of the Bishop of the Diocese. It is:

First, to develop towns, systematically in groups, creating (in Methodist parlance) a convenient circuit for the local missionary.

Second, being thoroughly convinced that any attempt at propagating church principles has larger promise of success when we possess a building of our own, to build at such places small but churchly chapels wherever I can find or create a sufficient basis for local co-operation.

Third, to organize, principally in St. Louis, a force of lay readers, to be utilized outside of the city in all the silent churches of the Diocese.

I would add to this third point that a slight prejudice existed at one time amongst quite a number of the clergy against the use of this class of church help—and, I believe, in exceptional cases, this prejudice still survives. But my own experience is that a lay brotherhood is of great practical utility when properly handled, and this opinion is reinforced by the verdict, I think, of the Church, both in this country and abroad.

As an illustration of the extent to which this factor is utilized, I quote from an article in the Living Church the 11th of May: "In response to an appeal of Archdeacon Lloyd, of Canada, the Colonial and Continental Church Society have just sent out seventy laymen from England to act as catechists and lay readers; each has been assigned from 300 to 400 square miles, principally along the Grand Trunk R. R. System of Canada; the Archdeacon supervises and directs the entire force." A broad observation, both at home and abroad, indicates that the lay reader is becoming, increasingly, each year, a working power of the Anglican and American Churches. I shall also endeavor,

Fourth, to systematize contributions by enrolling members of a certain society, the object of which will be to erect immediately and on demand buildings at given points by a co-operative offering. I shall endeavor also,

Fifth, to increase the salaries of all the missionary clergy. Men have their commercial value; we must get good men in the missionary field, and we must keep them. There is no other way of accomplishing this object. I pray the time may speedily come when our laymen and missionary boards will no longer figure out an income for the individual clergyman on which he may just decently exist. There are certain reasonable demands in the ministerial life which can only be supplied by an income at least a trifle in excess of absolute necessities.

Substantial results from these policies may not always be immediate, but we know that we have at least taken the first step correctly. The conditions of growth have been complied with initially—a logical basis for church development has been provided. The actual harvest in many instances may possibly be reached after our ministry is over. Let us labor wisely and patiently, in faith and hope, content if we obey the Master's command: "In the morning sow thy seed and in the evening withhold not thy hand for thou canst not tell whether shall prosper either this or that."

Respectfully submitted,

W. M. WALTON,
Archdeacon of the Diocese.

At a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Theological Education Fund, the following resolution was adopted:

"Resolved, That the Board begs to call the attention of the Clergy to the provision of Canon XX, requiring an annual collection on the Third Sunday in Advent, in each congregation, for the Theological Education Fund, and to the fact that during this last year seven Parishes in the city of St. Louis and eight in the country failed to comply with this requirement."

Report of Committee on Finance.

Your Committee are glad to report that the finances of the Diocese are in good condition. The assessments made on the Parishes and Missions at last Convention for the support of the Episcopate have nearly all been met, and any delinquencies we are assured will be paid in the near future. We have examined the accounts of the Treasurer of the Diocese, Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund, Theological Education Fund, and the Permanent Fund for the Support of the Episcopate, found them all correct, with proper vouchers for all disbursements, and the securities and cash balances as reported by the Treasurer.

The Bishop reports the following trust funds, and has shown us the securities in which the several funds are invested, viz.:

By resolution of the last Convention, the plan of distributing The Church News free was continued for another year. The expense of publishing and mailing the paper exceeded the receipts by some $400. For this deficit we have to provide.

About $6,600 will be required for the following purposes the ensuing year, viz.:

|--|-------------------|
| Bishop's salary | $4,200 00 |
| Traveling expenses | 300 00 |
| Secretary | 300 00 |
| Secretary of the Convention | 200 00 |

| Church News | 400 00 |
| Expenses of delegates to the General Convention 1/3..... | 200 00 |
| Expense of the General Convention, 57 clergymen of the Diocese, at $3 each | 171 00 |
| Miscellaneous | 279 00 |
| | $6,600 00 |

The Treasurer has cash on hand, $600, that can be applied in part for the above-named requirements. We therefore submit the following resolutions, viz.:

Resolved, That the Committee on Assessments be directed to make an equitable assessment on the several Parishes and Missions for the sum of $6,000.

Resolved, That the salary of the Secretary of the Convention be made $200 per annum in place of $100, and that the Treasurer be authorized to pay that amount.

Resolved, That the Treasurer of the Diocese be authorized to pay the manager of The Church News the amount of the deficit for last year, said payment not to exceed $400.

The last two appropriations were made from funds furnished the Board by the Woman's Auxiliary and the Young Women's Club.

The Brotherhood of St. Andrew agreed to raise the sum of $600.00 for the support of a layman to assist in the work of hospital and other missions for the period of one year from January 1, 1907, and the Bishop appointed Mr. F. A. Fanning to assist in such work. The Board appropriated this amount to be paid to Mr. Fanning in monthly installments, if the same was paid to the Treasurer of the Board.

The Bishop appointed Rev. Wm. M. Walton as Archdeacon of the Diocese, and the Board, at its regular meeting, held on the 23d day of January, 1907, approved the appointment. He entered upon the duties of his office on the 15th day of February, 1907.

The Board appropriated the sum of $2,000.00 per year as the salary of the Archdeacon, and the sum of $500.00 per year for his traveling expenses, to commence at the time he began work.

The Board also adopted the following regulations governing the traveling expenses of the Archdeacon, and the moneys collected by him.

TRAVELING EXPENSES.

"The expenditure of the appropriation made by the Diocesan Missionary Board for traveling expenses of the Archdeacon, shall be paid upon vouchers prepared by him and presented to the Treasurer of the Missionary Board; said vouchers shall cover actual expenses incurred by the Archdeacon incident to travel in connection with his work, and shall not in any one year from September 1 to August 31 exceed the sum appropriated for this purpose, except by specific and prior approval of the Missionary Board."

MONEY.

"It shall be the duty of the Archdeacon to render quarterly an account of all moneys coming into his possession in the discharge of his work, except such fees for marriages or other personal services as he may render. All offerings made at stations served by him shall be credited to the General Missionary Fund of the Diocese, and shall be turned in by him to the Treasurer. The credit so established may be drawn on by the Archdeacon in the furtherance of his work, subject, however, to such limitations as the Missionary Board may, from time to time, impose."

The following resignations have been received and accepted:

Rev. E. Phares, Christ, Moberly, February 1, 1907.

" B. T. Kemerer, Hospital Missionary, February 1, 1907.

" D. A. Blose, Trinity, Thayer, February 11, 1907.

" Arthur Brittain, Trinity, De Soto, April 1, 1907.

" Jas. Noble, Grace, Clarksville, April 30, 1907.

The following missions are reported vacant: Clarksville, De Soto, Moberly, LaPlata, Portland, Shelbina, Thayer and Valley Park.

The Board appointed a committee of its members, consisting of Rev. E. Duckworth, Rev. C. F. Blaisdell, and Maj. A. M. Davis, whose duty it should be to oversee and supervise the Missionary work in the city, and be a counsel of advice to the City Missionary and his assistants, and the Hospital Missionary and his assistants, between the meetings of the Board, and also to secure reports from them of their work to be submitted to the Board.

On April 10, 1907, the Board gave its consent, on petition, to the requisite number of persons to associate themselves together as a Mission, to be known as St. Paul's Mission, of Overland Park.

The Convention, at its last session, adopted a report of its committee on merging the various funds for Missionary work, in which a schedule was adopted, showing the sums to be used out of the $10,000.00 pledged for different purposes. In that schedule $1,500.00 was set apart for church extension. The Board construed this to mean that it might, out of such sum, pay indebtedness for the erection of a Mission House, and also liens that might be established in the way of special taxes against mission property. Accordingly, the Board appropriated $393.24 to pay the last installment of the indebtedness for building the Mission House for Advent Mission, and also $84.50 for special taxes against Epiphany Mission.

These are all the funds that were used for church extension, except what was paid out for services rendered by those engaged in Missionary work. The Board submits its action in this respect to the Convention, with the hope that if it was not warranted in so doing, the Convention will be more specific in designating for what purposes it desires the Board to appropriate the money furnished it.

The Board earnestly recommends that the Convention raise by pledges the sum of $11,500.00 based on the following needs:

1. Diocesan—Stipends of Missionaries, exclusive of Hospital Missions, City Missionary, Holy Cross and St. Stephen's Mission$4,130 00
2. Hospital Missions..... 1,800 00
3. St. Stephen's Mission..... 1,750 00
4. City Missionary..... 1,320 00
5. Archdeacon and his traveling expenses..... 2,500 00

All of which is respectfully submitted,

F. J. McMASTER, Secretary.

APPENDIX No. 7.

Report of Committee on Church News.

The Business Manager of The Church News begs to report that 48,000 copies of The Church News have been printed and circulated in the last twelve months. The paper has varied in size from 32 to 44 pages monthly, depending on the amount of matter received. Under the plan adopted by the Convention last year of giving away The Church News, receipts from subscriptions have dropped off very materially, only $227 having been received from this source. As delivery and mailing alone cost $145.90, our net income from subscriptions has been only $62. We have not been able to get a good advertising solicitor and our receipts from advertising have been very much too small to pay the expenses of running the paper. The Church News owes $400 for money borrowed to pay the printer, and we ask that this amount be appropriated.

Pardon me for again calling attention to the slow manner in which the pledges, due quarterly, are paid into the Treasury, and pardon me also for suggesting that if the plan of the Laymen's Co-operating Missionary Society for collecting money for Missions was instituted in each Parish, and the services of the younger people enlisted, there would be no trouble in meeting the pledges. The dimes, quarters and fifty-cent pieces which you would then get systematically would more than make up for the larger sums which you now even seldom get spasmodically, and would result, I am sure, in giving us a splendid Missionary Fund with which to extend the work of the Diocese.

APPENDIX No. 12.

Report of the Missouri Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary.

To the Rt. Rev. D. S. Tuttle, S. T. D., Bishop of Missouri, and Members of the Convention:

We closed our twenty-five years of auxiliary work last year with one regret, that every Parish in the Diocese had not participated in it.

There has been little improvement in that regard this year, and yet we have accomplished great things. All the regular work in pledges has gone on and our quarterly meetings have had the usual appeals which have been readily and generously met. Besides all this we have made two unusual gifts. The largest gift so far, to the Bishop Tuttle Church House, Boise, has come from the Missouri Auxiliary. In gifts both great and small, $1,000 has been gathered as a loving appreciation of our Bishop's great work in the far West, and at the same time is a small acknowledgment of his unfailing thought of us and our work.

The other unusual gift is a little church now building in the mountains of Virginia. The first church to be entirely built by our branch. In it there will be a tablet telling that the loving women of the Missouri Auxiliary have built it to commemorate the twenty-five years' of the Secretary's work. Her desire is that it shall bear the name of St. John.

To the clergy of the diocese we appeal not only for consent but for co-operation in establishing new branches. We can not enter into your borders without your invitation. We have proved that the Auxiliary never weakens any Parish work, but rather strengthens it by increasing missionary zeal and intelligence.

It is not money we ask for, that comes of itself when the need is presented if the heart be quickened to that appeal.

The reports of Parishes are as follows:

APPENDIX No. 14.

Report of St. Luke's Hospital Association.

St. Louis, Mo., May 1, 1907.

To the Board of Directors of St. Luke's Hospital:

My Dear Sirs—The following annual statement, compiled from the monthly reports and permanent records of St. Luke's Hospital, for the year ending April 30, 1907, is respectfully presented for the information of the Board of Directors and St. Luke's Hospital Association:

May 1, 1906, there remained in the Hospital:

|--------------------------------|-----|
| Patients | 53 |
| Received during the year | 798 |

|-------------|-----|
| Total | 851 |
|-------------|-----|

Of these:

|-------------------------------|-----|
| Died | 40 |
| Dismissed | 754 |
| Remaining April 30, 1907..... | 57 |

|-------------|-----|
| Total | 851 |
|-------------|-----|

During the year there were:

|--------------------------|-----|
| Pay patients, Male | 302 |
| Female | 385 |
| | 687 |

| | | |
|--|--------|-----|
| Beneficiaries, Male | 62 | |
| Female | 102 | 164 |
| Total | | 851 |
| Of the above 851 patients there were: | | |
| Of our own Communion | 142 | |
| Roman Catholic | 149 | |
| Presbyterian | 118 | |
| Methodist | 121 | |
| Lutheran | 38 | |
| Unitarian | 7 | |
| Baptist | 45 | |
| Christian | 32 | |
| Congregational | 20 | |
| Hebrew | 39 | |
| Evangelical | 7 | |
| No professed faith | 133 | |
| Total | | 851 |
| Religious belief of beneficiaries: | | |
| Of our own Communion | 45 | |
| Roman Catholic | 25 | |
| Christian | 8 | |
| Lutheran | 7 | |
| Presbyterian | 17 | |
| Congregational | 8 | |
| Methodist | 25 | |
| Hebrew | 2 | |
| Baptist | 13 | |
| Evangelical | 1 | |
| Unitarian | 1 | |
| No professed faith | 12 | |
| Total | | 164 |
| Days of paid treatment | 14,817 | |
| Days of free treatment | 3,837 | |
| Days pay patients subsisted | 14,817 | |
| Days free patients subsisted | 3,837 | |
| Days nurses, employes, et al., subsisted | 32,727 | |
| Operations for the year | 438 | |
| Of which there were free | 43 | |
| Days of special nursing | 3,731 | |
| Of which there were free | 11 | |

Total expenditures for strictly hospital expenses for the year were $52,891.24, for 18,654 days' treatment of 851 patients=$2.83 per day, subdivided as follows:

|----------------------------|-------------|
| For Employees | $17,971 48 |
| Nurses | 261 25 |
| Subsistence supplies | 20,181 85 |
| Medicines | 1,533 74 |
| Surgical supplies | 1,807 01 |
| Gas | 281 22 |
| Engineer's supplies | 547 11 |
| Fuel | 4,630 74 |
| Telephone service | 228 00 |
| Water license | 849 50 |
| Miscellaneous | 4,599 34 |
| Total | $52,891 24 |

The foregoing shows that the total number of patients cared for during the year was 851, or a total of 18,654 days of hospital treatment, costing $52,891.24, or an average rate of $2.83 per patient per day. Of this number of patients, 164 were beneficiaries, receiving 3,837 days of free treatment. Therefore, about 20 per cent of the total number of days of hospital treatment was thus given gratuitously to those unable to pay for same.

A comparison of the results for the years ending April 30, 1906, and April 30, 1907, is here given:

|-----------|---|
| 1906..... | 826 patients=18,349 days @ $3.01=$55,314 99 |
| 1907..... | 851 patients=18,564 days @ 2.83= 52,891 24 |
| 1906..... | 164 beneficiaries=4,785 days or 27% |
| 1907..... | 164 beneficiaries=3,837 days or 20% |

This indicates an increase of 25 patients, or 215 days, and a decrease of expenditures of $2,423.75 or 18 cents per day, in 1907, and a decrease of 7 per cent, or 948 days of free treatment for beneficiaries for the same period.

The report for last year invited attention to the apparent excessive cost, $3.01, per day for hospital care, but for the present year this rate has been reduced to $2.83 per day—a rate, however, that may still appear to be unreasonable, but, as explained in that report, it is due to the fact that only about 50 per cent of the rooms and wards has been utilized, with a necessarily fixed outlay for maintenance sufficient to cover the maximum capacity of the hospital.

A summary of the accompanying statements of the Treasurer and Superintendent shows total receipts from all sources and expenditures for all purposes during the year as follows:

APPENDIX No. 17.

Report of Sunday School Commission.

Philadelphia, May 21, 1907

Mr. James A. Waterworth, Esq., 523 Odd Fellow's Building, St. Louis, Mo.:

My Dear Mr. Waterworth—In reply to your letter of the 18th instant, I enclose herewith answers to your questions as far as I have been able to do so. You can use this as you see fit. There is much in connection with our school which it is impossible for me to speak of, as you can no doubt understand and appreciate.

I am sending you with this the issue of our Parish Intelligence, giving an account of the closing of the Normal Class, which may interest you; and also the February copy, in which you will find our annual report, and to which I would specially call your attention under the heading of "The Sunday School."

I am sorry I missed seeing you at the Conference of Church Clubs in Washington, and trust that we may meet at the General Convention in Richmond.

I think the report of the Joint Commission will be generally acceptable to the Church and the results most useful. It is to be published as a manual, and I feel sure will do good.

Yours very sincerely,

GEO. O. THOMAS.

INFORMATION FOR THE COMMITTEE OF THE CONVENTION OF THE DIOCESE OF MISSOURI ON SUNDAY SCHOOL INSTRUCTION.

| | | |
|--------------------------|------------------------------|-------|
| 1. Name of school..... | Church of the Holy Apostles. | |
| 2. Place | Philadelphia. | |
| 3. No. of officers..... | | 19 |
| 4. No. of teachers | | 75 |
| | | 94 |
| 5. No. of pupils | Primary | 165 |
| | Intermediate | 90 |
| | Main school | 580 |
| | Bible classes | 675 |
| | | 1,510 |
| | Total | 1,604 |

6. How do you secure teachers for your Sunday School, and what method of training or preparing them do you have?

For thirty-six years, a weekly class for lesson study, with certain elements for training teachers has been carried on, and during the past three years a normal class has been conducted for younger teachers and those intending to become such.

This latter has been most successful. The first year "Elements of Teaching" was studied. Second, Studies in the Bible and prayer book. Third, Church history. And the sessions will be continued another year when there will probably be a general review of the first year's work and a course of study on the subject of "Missions."

We have never had any difficulty in securing teachers as we have a supply on hand who act as substitutes when needed, and also take up the regular work when occasion arises.

7. Are teachers' meetings held, and of what kind?

The weekly teachers' meetings above referred to. Twice a year there is a special conference of all the officers and teachers of the Parish (embracing the Church and three Chapel Schools) preceding Advent and Lent. The business matters of the school are in care of a council composed of the Rector, Superintendent, Associate and Assistant Superintendents, Primary and Intermediate Superintendents, Choirmaster, one of the Librarians, one of the Secretaries, and two Teachers, elected by the Teachers' Association.

8. What subjects do you undertake to teach in your Sunday School?

I hardly know how to reply to this question, as it is so closely related to No. 10; but while the Bible is studied, it is illustrated from the Prayer Book.

9. What is the average age of your teachers?

I can not say. I should think about thirty years.

10. What lessons or lesson systems are you using?

The Joint Diocesan Scheme, with alternate ones for the Primary and Intermediate Department.

11. Do you provide reference books for teachers?

Each teacher is provided with the American Church S. S. Magazine, and there is a reference library which is quite complete and for use as may be desired.

12. How is your school graded?

In the Primary Department are the children from four to eight; Intermediate, from seven to eleven. In the main school and Bible classes there is no grading, as here we depend upon the teacher's personal influence.

13. What proportion of your scholars attend the services of the Church?

A very large number, as there are 909 of our scholars (out of a total of 1,510) who are communicants of the Church.

14. What do you find to be the best method of securing such attendance?

The best method of securing attendance at the Church services is to make them interesting, and not talk about it all the time.

15. Do you have a special children's service?

We do not, except in the Babies' Branch.

16. How far does your Sunday School work result in bringing children to confirmation?

The statistics for the past ten years are as follows:

| Year. | Total Confirmations. | Including From the S. S. |
|-----------|-------------------------|-----------------------------|
| 1898..... | 53 | 45 |
| 1899..... | 44 | 41 |
| 1900..... | 52 | 41 |
| 1901..... | 62 | 51 |
| 1902..... | 62 | 45 |
| 1903..... | 94 | 60 |
| 1904..... | 58 | 47 |
| 1905..... | 111 | 82 |
| 1906..... | 76 | 70 |
| 1907..... | 51 | 38 |

17. What proportion of the scholars in the school are above the age of seventeen?

I would say certainly more than one-half.

18. How do you interest your Sunday School in Missions?

This may seem an easy question, but it is a difficult one to answer, but by keeping the matter constantly before them once a month on what is called Missionary Sunday, the interest is maintained, as will be shown by the results of our Lenten and Easter offerings, which have been for the past ten years as follows:

| Year. | Lenten and Easter Offerings. |
|-----------|------------------------------|
| 1898..... | $3,685 97 |
| 1899..... | 4,049 44 |
| 1900..... | 4,979 76 |
| 1901..... | 5,530 93 |
| 1902..... | 6,407 13 |
| 1903..... | 8,030 38 |
| 1904..... | 8,540 85 |
| 1905..... | 9,126 34 |
| 1906..... | 10,084 02 |
| 1907..... | 9,904 88 |

19. How is the financial report of your school provided?

By an offering in the Church once a year, and the voluntary contributions of the officers, teachers and scholars one Sunday in the month, except during Advent and Lent, as we feel that the scholars should be interested in this matter, and should not feel that everything was done for them without their making any effort in behalf of it themselves. In this connection I would say that the school contributes once a month to the expenses of the Church.

20. What efforts do you make to interest parents in the work of the school, and what response do you find?

A great many parents are members of the Adult Bible Class, others connected with the Mothers' Meeting and the missionary organizations. We endeavor to interest them as much as possible, the children frequently take home invitations to their parents to attend the sessions, and we find a hearty co-operation therein.

21. How many homes represented in your Sunday School observe family devotions?

I can not answer this question.

22. Do you feel satisfied with the net result of your Sunday School, and if not, why not?

No one should be satisfied with the result of any work being done for the Church, or in behalf of our Blessed Lord, but when we have done our best we must leave the rest to Him. I have been superintendent of this Sunday School for thirty-nine years, and have found it essential to change my methods from time to time. I am always seeking such information as I can get to guide me, and the only suggestion I have to make is for one to be intensely interested in the work and stick at it.

23. What do you consider the principal need of the Sunday School today? And in what direction do you look for assistance to this end?

I consider one of the principal needs of the Sunday School today more male teachers. The men of the Church are sadly neglecting this work. As a means to this end, I feel that the Brotherhood of St. Andrew has done a great deal. I think also the Missionary Thankoffering may have influence in this direction; but wherever we can do anything to suggest to men their duty in this particular, I think we ought to emphasize it.

I also think the principal need of the Sunday Schools is not more pedagogy, but more spirituality; the bringing of the scholars to the knowledge of Christ is more important than that they should pronounce correctly, and other matters which tend to unsettle them. As a member of the Joint Commission, I have done what I could in this direction.

Right Rev. D. S. Tuttle, President Sixty-eighth Convention of the Diocese of Missouri:

Right Reverend Sir—The Sunday School Commission appointed at the last Convention "to investigate diocesan and extra diocesan conditions and methods" of religious instruction in the Sunday Schools of the Church, beg leave to report:

That the members of your Commission share the anxiety of the Committee, to whose earnest report to the last Convention and its accompanying resolution this Commission owes its existence, and believe that the time has come to adopt and introduce some uniform simple and systematic course of religious instruction in the Sunday Schools of this Diocese, including the instruction and training of teachers as well as of scholars, and a regular order for the school sessions and as your Commission is one of investigation preliminary to the consideration of proper subjects and methods and order in the schools, it submits the following facts for your information:

Your Commission has reports from sixteen schools in this Diocese and from the Church of the Holy Apostles, Philadelphia, and from the Church of the Epiphany, Chicago.

Scholars—

| The number of scholars reported in the above mentioned sixteen schools of this Diocese | 1,948 |

Teaching Force—

The number of officers and teachers in the above schools is as follows:

| In Diocese | Officers..... | 57 |

From an analysis of replies your Commission is justified in reporting that as a general rule teachers are appointed from such material as can be had, are untrained, and their fitness for the work is a matter known only to the Rectors.

The Results of the Teaching—

If measured by confirmations, the data are uncertain; if by permanent additions to active church membership, there are no data. The answers received can not be formulated, but the general reports indicate that the results are good.

The following data, however, are submitted, taken from the annual reports to this Convention for the five years, 1902-1906 inclusive:

| | No. of Baptisms. | No. of Scholars. | No. of Con- firmations. | No. of Com- municants. |

Or applying ratios to confirmations—

| Proportion of confirmations to baptisms..... | 88.4 |
| Proportion of confirmations to scholars..... | 12.16 |
| Proportion of confirmations to communicants..... | 6.75 |

Results of Sunday School Teaching in Church Attendance—

The reports from our own Rectors of Sunday School children attending regular services of the church run from "Few," "Very small," "One-sixth," up to "One-half." The Epiphany Church reports "A good proportion," and Holy Apostles "Very large, out of 1,510, 909 are communicants."

No definite account can be given of the effects of our Sunday School teaching in making our scholars regular attendants and consistent members of the church.

Special Services for Sunday School Children—

Two Rectors report special services for children.

Four report no special services.

Three report special services in Lent.

Two report monthly services.

One reports four services a year.

Two at Christmas, Easter and before Thanksgiving.

Two occasionally.

Holy Apostles' reports no special services.

Epiphany reports monthly corporate communion for all confirmed scholars.

There are many other questions relating to modes of obtaining teachers and scholars and enlisting parents in the work, but above will suffice to give an idea of the nature and extent of the religious instruction given in our Sunday Schools.

From the nature of the case the instruction in our Sunday Schools can only be meagre. It is the more necessary, therefore, that it should be well chosen, well taught, and as nearly as possible, uniform, so that its effects can be watched and improvements made. The actual religious influence of the Sunday School will probably have to be measured by considerations different from all the foregoing; by the effect of the regular assembling of the children for a religious purpose, by the atmosphere of reverence in the school, especially by the reverential treatment of religious names and doctrines and things by the Rector and teachers, by the feeling inculcated at all times that all are engaged in a religious service appointed by the Church and part of the Church's own service, to prepare the children of the Church specifically for their place in the Church. By the extent to which loyalty and devotion to the Church, her doctrines, her ministry, her sacraments, her holy seasons and her worship, influence the teachers and are instilled into the scholars at a period in life when the child is susceptible and enthusiastic and capable of taking a grasp of this side of the religious life which nothing can ever shake.

This involves the personality and especially the religious character of both Rector and teacher, and it is probable that here can be discovered the reason why an almost systemless, unclassified instruction, nevertheless gives fruit beyond all expectation in numberless additions to the Church through the door of the Sunday School.

Your Commission offers the following resolution:

Resolved, That the work begun by this Commission be continued by a special committee (of which the Archdeacon shall be a member) who shall by conference with the Rectors of Parishes endeavor to introduce a uniform system of text-books and methods of Sunday School instruction and systematic training of teachers, in this Diocese, and report to the next Convention.

A goodly number of persons who are Communicants have removed from the Parish. I am unwilling to say at this time that these figures are exactly correct. My quarterly report the next time will positively show the exact number. At present we are scattered from the State of Washington to the District of Columbia, and from the Diocese of Calgary in Canada to the Gulf of Mexico. Look at the figures for the past year. Compare them with other years, and you must notice what has been done. I wish every member, Layman or Clergyman, of the Missionary Board, could and would come here and see what has, by God's grace, been done for the furtherance of our cause in this town.

During the three years of my residence here I have given much time to visiting in the houses of St. John's people. This year I purpose to spend even more time. It takes at least three weeks to make a visitation of a sufficient length. This is a country Parish in which the people are widely scattered over an entire county and a part of Pike county. This year, under present arrangements, I will give to this Parish the fourth and fifth Sundays of each month. It may seem that but a few services have been rendered during the past conventional year. Why is it so? It is because of the condition of the roads, even though the past winter has been an "open winter." I can go for I live on "the gravel," but the people can not come for they live on the dirt of Lincoln county. But we have had a good year and there is reason to be full of hope.

We received from the sale of our old church, at Twenty-second and Washington Avenue, the sum of $51,250.00. Out of this we paid commission on sale the sum of $1,250. Deed of trust on old church and interest due on same, $5,375.00. We bought our present church from the Messiah (Unitarian) Congregation, paying for the same $35,000.00. The cost of repairing and remodeling the church was $2,500.00. We purchased the eight (8) room house, 3309 Lucas Avenue, for a Rectory, paying for the same, including repairs, etc., $4,400.00. The balance from the sale of our old church, amounting to the sum of $2,725.00, was reserved as a nucleus for an endowment for our church, the Bishop of the Diocese, by action of the vestry of the church, being requested to act as trustee of the fund. The fund for the endowment, by the accruing of interest, by offerings of the congregation, and notably by a bequest of $500.00, received from the estate of the late Mrs. Mary E. O'Dell, has been increased to about $3,800.00. It is our purpose to endeavor to bring this up to at least $10,000.00, that the interest from its investment may assist in providing the salary for an assistant to the Rector. The proposed extension of our work needs an additional minister.

The present Rector assumed charge of the Parish on February 1, 1906. The statistics, so far as the communicants are concerned, are as correct as it is possible to make them, but many persons are regular Communicants in the Ascension Church whose names are still on the books of other Parishes. Also there is a continual coming and departure of Communicants in the Parish, and many leave without taking a letter of transfer or notifying the Rector of their departure.

The Parish finds the Parish House, built last year, the means of great service in many ways. New organizations have been formed, and the Church, through them, is making deep impression on the community. Every year large improvements are being made on the extensive grounds, and Marion Place is growing to be a beautiful park. While the removals have been many and many names dropped under the Canon, yet the Parish has never in its history been in a better condition than it is today.

I assumed charge January 1, 1907, there having been no rector for over a year, and register not kept up for a longer time. Found about 80 communicants, mostly students. At least 30 left, but prospecting and confirmation brought number back to 80. Church building in very bad repair, almost falling down; must be replaced by new at once, and larger one. Only about 20 resident communicants, the rest transitory, because students, and unable to do much financially. Very few children in church families. If work here is to be done to any extent, it must be as national rather than diocesan or parochial, as communicants come from every quarter of the country, Canada, etc., and parish can not bear burden of necessary work. Parish has almost disintegrated, and will take at least two years to get it into shape, but there are a large number of "inquirers" and persons leaning toward church. Strong evangelical sentiment prevails in community. Ought to have continued succession of educational Missions to work on continually changing population. Very few members bring letters of transfer and this matter ought to be urged on attention of all clergy.

APPENDIX C.

Personal.

To the Rt. Rev. Daniel S. Tuttle, D.D., S.T.D., LL.D., Bishop of Missouri:

RIGHT REVEREND AND DEAR SIR—In accordance with the provisions of Section 3 of Canon XIII, I hereby report, this 1st day of May, to you at the Sixty-eighth Convention of the Diocese of Missouri, to be held on the 28th day of May, my ministerial acts performed since the last Convention of the Diocese, as follows:

I have held services and preached at various places on twenty-seven different occasions. I have baptized one infant and two children, and at one time solemnized the rite of matrimony.

Yours respectfully,

ROSS P. CUDDY.

To the Rt. Rev. Daniel S. Tuttle, D.D., S.T.D., LL.D., Bishop of Missouri:

RIGHT REVEREND AND DEAR SIR—In accordance with the provisions of Section 3 of Canon XIII, I hereby report, this 1st day of May, to you at the Sixty-eighth Convention of the Diocese of Missouri, to be held on the 28th day of May, my ministerial acts performed since the last Convention of the Diocese, as follows:

I was made a deacon and licensed to preach on June 9th. I preached three times during June and July, at Trinity Church, Hannibal, and on two Sundays said morning and evening prayer, in the absence of the Rector. I also paid some calls for him. I officiated at morning prayer with sermon at St. Paul's Church, Palmyra, and said evening prayer and preached at St. Peter's Mission, Canton, on the first Sunday in July. I joined the Community of the Order of the Holy Cross, at West Park, N. Y., as a postulant, on July 27, and remained until October 25. My only ministerial acts during this time were from time to time assisting at Holy Communion by administering the chalice. I have been at St. Stephen's House, St. Louis, since December 1, assisting the priest in charge by calling, teaching in the Sunday School, etc., preaching and administering the chalice in Holy Communion. I administered Holy Baptism once, in the absence of the Priest.

Yours Filially, in Our Blessed Lord,

J. McV. HARRISON.

To the Rt. Rev. Daniel S. Tuttle, D.D., S.T.D., LL.D., Bishop of Missouri:

RIGHT REVEREND AND DEAR SIR—In accordance with the provisions of Section 3 of Canon XIII, I hereby report, this 1st day of May, to you at the Sixty-eighth Convention of the Diocese of Missouri, to be held on the 28th day of May, my ministerial acts performed since the last Convention of the Diocese, as follows:

Conducted two services during Lent and delivered two sermons in St. Paul's Church, Harrisburg, Pa. Also, March 16th, baptized John Patrick Morgan in said church. Celebrated Holy Communion at St. Paul's Church, Columbia, on Easter Day, by request of the Rt. Rev. Bishop Darlington, Diocese of Harrisburg, Pa. Preached three times at St. Andrew's Church, Harrisburg, Pa., and conducted morning and evening services on the third Sunday after Easter in said church.

Most respectfully submitted,

W. H. D. HATTON, Presbyter.

Harrisburg, Pa., May 1, 1907.

To the Rt. Rev. Daniel S. Tuttle, D.D., S.T.D., LL.D., Bishop of Missouri:

RIGHT REVEREND AND DEAR SIR—In accordance with the requirements of Section 3 of Canon XIII, I hereby report that up to the 1st day of May, 1907, I have solemnized two (2) marriages and officiated at one (1) burial. These are all the ministerial acts which I have been called upon to perform, although I would rejoice to be permitted to exercise the functions of my ministry far more frequently. Each of the above has been recorded in the register of the proper Parish and will doubtless be reported from thence.

Respectfully,

GEO. H. HUNT, Priest.

St. Louis, May 7, 1907.

OGDEN, UTAH, May 1, 1907.

Two baptisms and one burial, both reported to the Rector of this Parish for record in his books. Also, I took entire charge of his Parish during the month of August, and have assisted him at various times since at his request.

Respectfully yours,

W. E. MAISON.
