12. When a question is under consideration, a motion shall not be received, except to lay it upon the table, to postpone it to a certain time, to postpone it indefinitely, to commit it, to divide it or amend it, and motions for any of these purposes shall have precedence in the order herein named. If a motion to lay an amendment on the table be carried, the matter before the House shall be proceeded with as if no such amendment had been offered. An after-amendment to such second amendment shall not be in order; but when an amendment to an amendment is under consideration, a substitute to the whole matter may be received. A proposition different from the one under consideration shall not be received under color of an amendment or substitute.

15. Every member who may be in the House when any question is put, shall, on a division, be counted, unless he be excused by the Convention.

16. All questions of order shall be decided in the first instance by the Chair, without debate; an appeal, however, may be made from his decision to the Convention by any member of the same.

17. The Secretary may employ one or more pages, not exceeding three, to act as messengers during the sessions of the Convention.

18. The reports of all Committees shall be in writing, and shall be received, of course, without motion for acceptance, unless recommitted by vote of the House. All reports recommending or requiring any action or expression of opinion by the House shall be accompanied by a resolution for the action of the House therein.

The Committee on THE CHURCH NEWS, through Mr. Potter, presented the following report:

To the Seventy-Second Convention of the Diocese of Missouri:

Your Committee on THE CHURCH NEWS for the year 1910-1911 begs to submit its report herewith:

The last Convention of the Diocese appropriated the sum of Three Hundred Dollars ($300.00) as a subsidy to THE CHURCH NEWS. The paper has been issued regularly each month for the past year, and the subscription list has increased from 667 to 1120. A total of approximately 15,000 copies has been printed and circulated during the year.

In view of the very low subscription price as at present authorized, and in order to provide a reasonable operating margin for the successful conduct of the paper, your committee recommends a continuance of the same subsidy.

Balance Sheet for the fiscal year, representing the issues from June, 1910, to May, 1911, inclusive, is appended hereto as a part of this report:

The Bishop declared in order nominations for Trustees of the Permanent Episcopate Fund.

Mr. Denison nominated the following:

On motion of Mr. Taylor, the Secretary cast the ballot of the Convention for Messrs. C. S. Freeborn, I. Shreve Carter, and James M. Bull, as Trustees of the Permanent Episcopate Fund, and the Bishop declared them elected.

On motion of Mr. Von Renthal, the Secretary cast the ballot of the Convention for the Rev. J. Courtney Jones, Mr. H. H. Denison, and Mr. Wm. P. Nelson, as Trustees of the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund, and the Bishop declared them elected.

On motion of Mr. Von Renthal, the Secretary cast the ballot of the Convention for the Rev. Wm. A. Hatch, Mr. E. J. Thomas, and Mr. H. H. Denison, as Trustees of the Theological Education Fund, and the Bishop declared them elected.

The Standing Committee on Christian Education, through the Rev. Mr. Horton, submitted the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Convention, recognizing the importance of the State University as a missionary point, and the obligation resting upon the Church throughout the State in connection with the work there, heartily commends the effort of the local parish at Columbia to secure funds for the erection and endowment of a Guild Hall.

Resolution adopted.

The appointment of Standing Committees by the Bishop was passed over until the following morning.

Rev. Mr. Wise introduced the following resolution:

Resolved, That all assessments and apportionments for Diocesan Missions, Diocesan Assessments and Domestic and Foreign Missions be referred to the Committee on Assessments.

Resolution adopted.

The Rev. Mr. Kemerer introduced the following resolution:

Be it resolved, That the Treasurer of the Diocese be instructed to pay the railroad fares of missionaries attending this Convention as delegates.

Resolution adopted.

Mr. Taylor submitted the following report and resolution:

On May 16, 1910, Grace Parish, St. Louis, was dissolved and ceased to exist. It became merged with Holy Cross Mission, to be called thereafter Grace Church-Holy Cross Mission.

Grace Church, at its dissolution owed to the Diocese $55.00 Diocesan assessment unpaid. Grace Church-Holy Cross Mission has paid up this delinquency in full.

Grace Church-Holy Cross Mission is assessed this year on the Diocesan Treasurer's books in the sum of $110.00.

We beg respectfully to represent that this assessment is not lawful. Grace Church-Holy Cross Mission is neither a parish nor an organized mission and is therefore not subject to assessment.

We respectfully submit to the Convention the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Convention accept from Grace Church-Holy Cross Mission a voluntary contribution of Forty Dollars to its Diocesan Fund for the year ending April 30, 1911; and that the Treasurer be instructed to strike from his books the $110.00 now charged against Grace Church-Holy Cross Mission.

We beg furthermore to say that we are willing to make a contribution of $40.00 for the year beginning May 1, 1911, to the Diocesan Missions Fund if the Convention desires to receive it.

GEORGE FARRAND TAYLOR.

The Rev. Mr. Richards introduced the following resolution:

Resolved, That the sum of two hundred dollars be appropriated by this Convention and paid to the Registrar and Librarian as his salary for the Convention year May 1, 1911, to May 1, 1912.

Resolution adopted.

Mr. F. J. McMaster presented the report of the Special Committee on Grace Church-Holy Cross House:

The Special Committee to whom was referred, for investigation and report, the status of Grace Church-Holy Cross House, respectfully report, that they find upon investigation, that it was started in the eastern part of the city as Holy Cross Mission, and was sustained by funds furnished chiefly by the Church Woman's Club. That the work done was what is generally known as settlement work, and was in charge of the Rev. Mr. Cochran and Deaconess Anne.

That on December 12th, 1906, the Missionary Board of the Diocese took charge of the missionary operations thereof, and placed a clerical member of the board in charge for supervision, the Deaconess still continuing to manage the work.

On November 17th, 1908, the Missionary Board, by resolution, established the status of the mission to be the same as that of St. Stephen's, under the Constitution and Canons, except that was not an organized mission.

On February 19th, 1910, the Board approved a plan suggested by the Bishop to form a special committee of laymen to advise and aid the Bishop in its care and authorized the appointment of that committee. The committee was appointed and has continued so to act ever since. Subsequently the name was changed to Grace Church-Holy Cross House, and the church buildings and grounds of Grace Church were deeded to The Parochial Trust Fund of the Diocese of Missouri for the benefit and use of Grace Church-Holy Cross House, and have been used and occupied in its work ever since.

Your committee further find that under the Constitution and Canons, and the usage and custom of the Church in the Diocese, there are two kinds of missions, organized missions and unorganized missions.

That all missionary operations in the Diocese are under the care and direction of the Bishop and the Missionary Board, and therefore under the care of the Bishop and the Convention.

Annual reports have been made to and received by the Convention, giving an account of the work done and accomplished at Grace Church-Holy Cross House.

Your committee are therefore of the opinion, and so report, that Grace Church-Holy Cross House is an unorganized mission of the Diocese under the care of the Bishop and the Convention, and that the minister in charge thereof is, under the Constitution, entitled to a seat and vote in the Convention.

Your committee further find that at the time Grace Church-Holy Cross House came into possession of the church buildings and grounds of Grace Church, the Church was delinquent in an assessment of $55.00, which Grace Church-Holy Cross House paid. That the assessment of $110.00 made by the last Convention was made against Grace Church, and not against Holy Cross Mission. That Grace Church-Holy Cross House now offers to pay $40.00 of this $110.00; that Grace Church is no longer operating as a parish. Your committee therefore beg to offer the following resolutions:

Resolved, That Grace Church-Holy Cross House is an unorganized mission of the Church in this Diocese under the care of the Bishop and the Convention.

Resolved, That upon payment of $40.00 by Grace Church-Holy Cross House of the $110.00 assessed against Grace Church at the last Convention, that the balance of said $110.00 so assessed be remitted, and stricken from the books of the Treasurer.

F. J. McMASTER.
C. M. JENNINGS.
GEORGE FARRAND TAYLOR.

The Rev. Carroll M. Davis, Rev. L. F. Potter, Rev. J. Courtney Jones, Mr. M. S. Snow, Mr. James L. Ford, and Mr. C. M. Jennings.

Mr. McMaster's report for the Committee on Grace Church-Holy Cross House was called up.

Report accepted and both resolutions in said report were adopted.

Mr. McMaster reported for the Committee on the Dispatch of Business as follows:

Resolution adopted, and in accordance the Bishop appointed the following Committee:

Rev. B. T. Kemerer, E. H. Lycett, A. S. Pidding, W. R. Armstrong, and the Secretary of the Diocese.

Dean Davis reported for the Trustees of the University of the South for the Diocese of Missouri, as follows:

The Trustees of the University of the South for the Diocese of Missouri beg leave to report that affairs at Sewanee are moving along well with the usual deficit of $20,000.

The Diocese of Atlanta agreed that for the year 1911 the sum of $1,200 should be assessed upon the Parishes and Missions in the Diocese to meet the current expenses, and if possible avoid the deficit of the University of the South.

It was then and there further resolved that all the Dioceses affiliated with the University of the South be notified of this action of the youngest Diocese in the South and earnestly requested to stand with us in this action.

We have already accepted an apportionment of $300 a year for the Theological Department.

We believe that the Diocese of Missouri should take a more active interest in the development of the University, and to that end we recommend the following:

Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed to consider what practical steps may be taken by the Diocese to help the University of the South in meeting its current expenses.

Report accepted and the resolution therein adopted.

In accordance with said resolution the Bishop appointed the following committee:

The Very Rev. Carroll M. Davis, and Messrs. James A. Waterworth, Walker Hill, H. P. Knapp, and H. L. Chase.

The Rev. Mr. Reed reported for the Committee on Sunday School Work as follows:

The importance of the Sunday School as a Department of Parish work for the general interest of the Church, especially for the increase of classes for Confirmation and for foundation-laying and Church character building, cannot be overrated. Two facts, apparent, verify this statement—one, as a rule larger number of Confirmees in our Parishes, are from the Sunday Schools and the most efficient workers in Church life, are generally those who have been Confirmed in early years.

Two important questions confront us here—and we may speak in general terms only—How to increase the Sunday Schools numerically—and how to make them more effective. The answer to one is an answer to both.

The means of increasing them is well known, but not as thoughtfully regarded as they should be. Efficient superintendents, interested teachers, lively varied services, intelligent and earnest religious instruction in the school and the keeping in close touch with the children, both in the School and in the homes, are generally speaking, first principles in successful work. Any school will revive under these agencies, and any school will decline as these agencies are neglected. One important feature must be mentioned—as all efficient Sunday School work is largely dependent on it—and that is, regular weekly meetings of the superintendent and the teachers to study the lessons and consider the “good of the School.”

Your Committee trusts it has supplied to the Convention food for reflection and suggested a line of action, sufficient to advance in sure, steady and efficient work, the Sunday Schools of the Diocese of Missouri.

To the Convention of the Diocese of Missouri.

In compliance with the requirement of Article XI. of the Constitution, I hereby make known that the following alterations of the Constitution of the Church are proposed; to-wit, those comprised in the resolutions printed herewith, said resolutions having been constitutionally adopted by a General Convention held in the city of Cincinnati, in October, A.D. 1910.

HENRY ANSTICE,
Secretary of the House of Deputies.

New York,
April 15, A.D. 1911.

RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted at the next General Convention, in accordance with Article XI. of the Constitution, as follows:

1. Strike out Section 3 of Article I., and insert in place of it the following:

Section 3. Upon the expiration of the term of office of the Presiding Bishop, the General Convention shall elect the Presiding Bishop of the Church. The House of Bishops shall choose one of the Bishops having jurisdiction within the United States to be such Presiding Bishop, by the vote of a majority of all the Bishops entitled to vote in the House of Bishops, such choice to be subject to confirmation by the House of Deputies.

His term and tenure of office shall be prescribed by Canons of the General Convention. His salary as Presiding Bishop shall be fixed and paid by the General Convention.

When, for any reason, a vacancy in the office shall occur, or if by reason of infirmity the Presiding Bishop shall become disabled, the House of Bishops shall elect one of its number to act as Presiding Bishop until the next meeting of the General Convention.

Resolved, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted at the next General Convention, in accordance with Article XI. of the Constitution, as follows:

2. Strike out Section 4 of Article I., and insert in place of it the following:

Section 4. The Church in each Diocese which has been admitted to union with the General Convention shall be entitled to representation in the House of Deputies by not more than four Presbyters, canonically resident in the Diocese, and not more than four Laymen, communicants of this Church, having domicile in the Diocese; but the General Convention by Canon may reduce the representation to not fewer than two Deputies in each order. Each Diocese shall prescribe the manner in which its Deputies shall be chosen.

The Church in each Missionary District within the boundaries of the United States of America, which shall have been established in accordance with the Constitution and Canons for the government of this Church, shall also be entitled to representation in the House of Deputies by not more than one Presbyter, canonically resident in the Missionary District, and not more than one Layman, communicant of this Church, having domicile in the Missionary District. Each Missionary District shall prescribe the manner in which its Deputies shall be chosen. Deputies from such Missionary District, except as otherwise provided in the Constitution, shall be subject to all of the qualifications and with all of the rights of Deputies from Dioceses.

To constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, the Clerical order shall be represented by at least one Deputy in each of a majority of the Dioceses entitled to representation, and the Lay Order shall likewise be represented by at least one Deputy in each of a majority of the Dioceses entitled to representation.

On any question the vote of a majority of the Deputies present shall suffice, unless otherwise ordered by this Constitution, or in cases not specifically provided for by the Constitution, by Canons requiring more than a majority, or unless the Clerical or the Lay representation from any Diocese require that the vote be taken by orders. In all cases of a vote by orders, the two orders shall vote separately, each Diocese having one vote in the Clerical order and one in the Lay order, and each Missionary District within the boundaries of the United States of America having a one-fourth vote in the Clerical order and a one-fourth vote in the Lay order; and the concurrence of the votes of the two orders, by not less than a majority of whole votes in each order of all of the Dioceses and Missionary Districts within the boundaries of the United States of America represented in that order at the time of the vote, shall be necessary to constitute a vote of the House.

Resolved, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted at the next General Convention, in accordance with Article XI., of the Constitution, as follows:

3. Strike out Section 6 of Article I., and insert in place of it the following:

Section 6. One Clerical and one Lay Deputy chosen by each Missionary District of the Church established by the House of Bishops, beyond the territory of the United States of America, and one Clerical and one Lay Deputy chosen by the Convocation of the American Churches in Europe, shall have seats in the House of Deputies, subject to all the qualifications and with all the rights of Deputies, except the right to vote when the vote shall be taken by orders.

Resolved, That the following change be made in the Constitution, and that the proposed alteration be made known to the several Dioceses, in order that the same may be adopted at the next General Convention, in accordance with Article XI. of the Constitution, as follows:

4. Amend the new Section 4 of Article II., so that the first sentence shall begin: It shall be lawful for a Diocese, with the consent of the Bishop of that Diocese, the consent of a majority of the Standing Committees of the Dioceses, and the consent of a majority of the Bishops of this Church exercising jurisdiction in the United States, to elect one or more Suffragan Bishops, etc.—

Resolution adopted.

The Rev. Mr. Duckworth, for the Committee on Missions, submitted the following report:

Your Standing Committee on Missions to which was referred the question of delinquencies on apportionment, wish to emphasize the value of the apportionment method for raising funds for Diocesan Missions as shown in the splendid results of the past year. It is a remarkable fact that we are lacking less than $400.00 of the $10,000.00 apportioned for this first year of its working.

They therefore recommend that following the custom of the General Board of Missions we do not consider it advisable to charge Parishes and Missions as a delinquency, such amounts of their apportionment as may be unpaid, but we urge upon all Parishes and Missions that to meet the apportionment for Diocesan Missions is a moral obligation and should be a point of honor.

Annual Address
OF THE
Bishop of Missouri,
TO THE
Seventy-second Convention.

Dear Brethren of the Clergy and Laity:

We gather once more to get in hand the threads that are weaving the web of our Diocesan life. It is a good thing to feel them and count them and test them, and to watch what kind of web they are weaving. We are more responsible for the work which they are doing, or are failing to do, than for other work; and we do not seek, I hope and believe, to shirk our responsibility. Therefore accounts and reports are scrutinized, and methods are suggested, and plans are weighed and found wise or wanting. We are only a small bit of Christ's Church Militant here in earth,—but we are an integral part of it and we are gratefully proud of our heritage and want to be loyally true to our duty.

Count not the three days of conference in our Convention as wasted time. There are many things to tell about and more things to ask about and all the things to take counsel about. And they are the things of the Master whom we serve and of the Mother, the Church, whom we love, and of our own spiritual selves whom we do not want to neglect. The days should not be dull. Interest should enliven them. Information should enrich them. Hope should brighten them. Love should warm them. And they should be a wholesome contribution to the make up of our Christian experience.

The tribute to my brethren of the House of Bishops who have departed this life must needs be an extended one. Almost never has a year of my experience called so many to come away to rest.

Bishop McVickar, of Rhode Island, died soon after our last Convention. A giant in frame he used not a giant's strength for force. His voice was gentle, musically soft and sweet, and his spirit and temper were in tune with the melody of the lips. Yet he did not lack firmness nor tenacity, and he did yeoman service in withstanding evils, spiritual, social and civic. He served Rhode Island as Coadjutor five years and as Diocesan seven.

Bishop Williams, once Bishop of China and Japan, then of Yedo, then a resigned bishop but persistent missionary living and working diligently as such in Japan for twenty years, died in his native State, Virginia, in his 82d year. He was Bishop for more than forty-four years. He was consecrated in St. John's Chapel, New York City, October 3, 1866, and I, a country pastor who had come to the city to attend the Diocesan Convention of New York, was present at his consecration. The second day thereafter I was elected by the House of Bishops in special session to be the Bishop of Montana, with jurisdiction in Idaho and Utah. So Bishop Williams was my senior. His modesty reached the degree of sensitive shrinkingness. I think he never once attended a meeting of the House of Bishops. He seemed glad to resign the honor and power of leadership. But, with love for the people of China and Japan and with unselfish and unsparing devotion to their service the days of the years of his pilgrimage were crowded full; and so, in return, Oriental hearts were crowded full of love for him, and spiritual lives not a few were nourished and uplifted by his example and influence.

Bishop Paret, of Maryland, though only twenty-six years a bishop, was in his eighty-fifth year when he died. It was wonderful how his strong powers of body and mind were preserved to the last. Accurate in learning, wise in judgment, positive in action, faithful to duty, clear headed and sound hearted, he ruled his Diocese wisely and well and was one of the valued and trusted leaders in the House of Bishops.

Bishop Vinton, of Western Massachusetts, served in the Episcopate not quite nine years and was only fifty-eight years old when he died. He came of military ancestry and had the soldierly characteristics of virility, integrity, justice and devotion.

In Bishop Whitaker elements of character met in rare combination. The loved pastor of the rude workers in the Comstock mine, he was taken from the field of his missionary work to be the Missionary Bishop of Nevada and Arizona. He served as such for seventeen years, and was then transferred to Philadelphia, becoming for one year the Bishop Coadjutor and for twenty-four years the Diocesan of the great Diocese of Pennsylvania. In depth of wisdom and strength of judgment and equity of rulership and kindness of personal relations the Missionary Bishop proved himself one of the very best of metropolitan prelates. I have never known a better instance of the suaviter in modo fortiter in re of executive action. His humility was equalled by his merit, his godliness suffused his superb common sense, his gentleness turned away the sharp edge from his severity, and men both loved and feared him. We two were yokefellows,—side by side in the working harness of the Missionary Episcopate for seventeen years, and then transferred at the same time, near twenty-five years ago, he to Pennsylvania and I to Missouri. There is loneliness of heart over his departure.

Bishop Atwill, of our sister Diocese of Kansas City, after carrying about for some years of suffering an unrestful and unstable heart within his breast has been laid by on sleep. Sparing of words, undemonstrative, with a heart filled with more love and sympathy than outward mien and visage told of, he was the embodiment of faithfulness to duty and of diligence in the discharge thereof. He met the growing weakness of later years like a soldier, patiently, bravely, uncomplaining in temper, unremitting of labor, steadily setting himself to do before God what he had to do so far as he had strength to do it. It was no blow from behind that met and bowed down to death my soldier brother after his score of years of active service.

Another of the brotherhood of bishops has fallen from the ranks of earthly action,—Bishop Holly, of Hayti, in his eighty-second year, bishop for nearly thirty-seven years. He was of Roman Catholic parentage, but received orders in our Church in 1861 and went to Hayti as a missionary. After serving his colored brethren there for more than a dozen years he was consecrated to be a bishop in 1874 under the terms of a Concordat between the Haytians and our own Church which was arranged largely by the efforts of Bishop Lee of Delaware and Bishop Coxe of Western New York. Ever since, the Haytian Church has been in a sense a protégè of the American Church, our Board of Missions appropriating yearly sums for its sustenance. Bishop Holly's life was one of wise leadership and godly devotion to the spiritual interests of his people. What will be done now I know not. There must needs be conjoint action by the Haytian Church and our House of Bishops in accordance with the provisions of our Article III of the Constitution and our Canon 12.

The home circle of our Diocese has not escaped attack.

The Rev. John Wilkinson died at an advanced age, not on our own soil, but in Illinois. He had been with us and of us as the faithful Rector of St. Mark's and the loving foster father of Epiphany Mission, St. Louis.

At the very time of writing these words Mrs. Jones, the wife of the Rector of Emmanuel, Old Orchard, has fallen on sleep. To the husband and children and indeed to the whole Parish our loving sympathy goes out in the great loss sustained.

Mr. Wm. A. Munger, of Hannibal, a vestryman of his Parish for thirty years and more, and in St. Louis Mr. W. D. Guiney, of the Good Shepherd; Mr. Henry C. Scott, of the Cathedral; Mr. Ezra H. Linley, of St. Peter's, and Mr. Charles Hofman, of St. George's, are gone. Mr. Hofman in 1886 was the Secretary of the Standing Committee and it fell to him to do the official act which transformed me from the Bishop of Utah into the Bishop of Missouri.

Two earnest and intelligent Churchwomen of the Mission at La Plata were for years my devoted helpers,—Mrs. Biggs and Mrs. Doneghy. Of late Mrs. Doneghy had been of the Church of the Ascension, St. Louis. Both have passed away this year. In their lives of Christian faithfulness they were intimately associated. In their times of departure they were but little separated. Mrs. Davison, of Jefferson City, rests after the weariness and pain of a protracted illness.

All these and other ones yet have been committed and commended to the Savior who loves them and who was loved by them; and we are still spared to speak and hear the words of good-by.

In the General Convention at Cincinnati the fervent missionary spirit fused all action into the mould of harmony and unity. Six new Missionary Bishops were elected, and all have accepted and gone to work save Dr. Pott, of China. In my experience in General Conventions heretofore there have always been some things presented in the way of criticism, objection and opposition to the multiplying of Missionary Districts and Missionary Bishops. In Cincinnati, so far as my knowledge goes, not one word of opposition or objection or criticism was offered. Suffragan Bishops were authorized and already one vigorous Suffragan is hard at work by the side of the busied Bishop of New York.

I confess I am proud to connect our Diocese of Missouri practically with the missionary fervor adverted to. We were asked last year to give $5,800.00 for the great work of General Missions. Our Diocese gave $7,225.00. Do you not think I had a good right to be glad all over and all through at that story? God the Holy Spirit has touched hearts. We humbly thank Him for that. And the Laymen's Missionary Movement taught heads and moved wills and led the touched hearts to put on the practical harness of work. This year we are asked for $6,600.00. Because the great missionary work is expanding and increasing. It cannot be kept down or shut back. I do hope we shall meet the $6,600.00 in full before the year ends, August 31. Up to April 1 we had given $3,201.36. Five months still remain.

Last year our Diocesan Convention resolved to apply the apportionment plan in securing the funds for our Diocesan Missions. An apportionment was made amounting to $8,105.00. Payments up to May 1 have been about $6,500.00, and they have been enough, I am glad to say, to restore our sacred surplus of fifteen hundred dollars.

Under the former system pledges were seldom, almost never, repudiated. The figures for this year look as if apportionments do not address themselves to the consciousness, or if the word be applicable, to the conscience of Parishes with the same sense of obligation as the pledges did. A pertinent question in the matter needs to be asked and answered. Is the Treasurer of the Diocesan Missionary Board to carry on his books, and to publish the list of delinquents in payment of apportionments as he has been wont to do of the delinquents in the payment of pledges? I should think it well for the Convention to give its plain direction to the Treasurer touching this matter.

Yet, even if the money balances be in a way unsatisfactory, the Missions of the Diocese have been very much alive. There is no end of good work done at St. Stephen's under Mr. Mizner. There's a big beginning of a new work doing in Holy Cross which is now amalgamated with the former Grace Church. Rev. Mr. Taylor is the leader of it, assisted by Deaconess Anne and Miss Skinker and Dr. Hild, and supported by an interested and vigorous committee of business men headed by Mr. Churchill Whittemore. Noise cannot be predicated of the Deaf Mute Mission under Mr. Cloud, but life and zeal and growth can. St. Mary's Mission has had a remarkable growth of development under Mr. C. E. Wilkinson, and it now looks hopefully forward to building a church on its excellent site. Hospital Missions, though losing Mr. Brittain to his great and good work at St. John's, are well cared for under the Rev. T. W. Jones, who has come to us from Iowa. Really I know not a more blessed Christian work than our ministering through him to the sick and the poor and the prisoners and the wretches stranded on the lee shore of our storm swept human life. St. Timothy's mission under Dean Davis and Mr. Kemerer and St. George's, and Epiphany Mission under Mr. Garrett and Mr. Shipler and St. Peter's, are warmly alive and thriving.

The country Missions and vacant Parishes have been fathered, not to say mothered, under the protecting wing of the Clérgy of St. Louis in a remarkable way. St. Charles by Mr. Richards, Callo-way by Mr. Duckworth, Mexico by Mr. Wise, all the south of the Diocese and Valley Park by Mr. Potter, St. Louis County, with its jail, and Crystal City by the ubiquitous Mr. Reed. And the Diocesan League of Lay Readers under Mr. H. L. Chase as chief has supplemented this work most efficiently and admirably. It seems as if half a dozen of Suffragan Bishops or more have been working round about me and with me of late. And under such seeming I put the puzzling question to myself,—“How is it that at Cincinnati you so argued against and voted against Suffragan Bishops?”

Yes, indeed, if perhaps the money balances about Missions are not quite satisfactory, yet the life balances and the harmony balances and the loyalty balances and the work balances and the growth balances are all right.

As for our Diocesan paper, THE CHURCH NEWS, my cordial thanks are hereby given, and I think the thanks of the entire Diocese are due, to the members of the Committee, Messrs. Potter and Richards and Randolph, for the excellent showing that they are able to present about it to this Convention. And added thanks are due and proffered to Mr. Richards for the admirably efficient way in which he has untiringly given himself to the work of its editorship. I understand that the treasury of the CHURCH NEWS shows a surplus this year of $200.00. I ask to be allowed to make two recommendations in the premises. 1. That $150.00 of this surplus be appropriated by the Convention to the Rev. Mr. Richards in grateful recognition of his faithfulness and efficiency in the work of editing and publishing. 2. That the Convention continue for the coming year its appropriation of $300.00 to the CHURCH NEWS.

There are things in the Diocese, it must be confessed, over which there may be some shaking of the head.

Vacancies in such important Parishes as Mexico, Moberly,

Kirkville, St. Charles, St. James, Crystal City, Cape Girardeau and Thayer. Vacancies also in such other places as St. Matthew's, St. Louis; Valley Park, Portland, Canton and Montgomery. But in some of these places Vestries and Mission Committees are already moving to call pastors. And there is a cheering upkeep provided for nearly all of them through the beneficent activities of the so-called suffragans whom I have spoken of. While one need not look far or long to find not a few encouraging things.

Macon has cleared off entirely the debt of $3,000.00 upon its church and is preparing to build a rectory. Columbia, from a struggling Parish needing a large missionary grant on my first coming here, has emerged into a self-supporting Parish with such an earnest and generous spirit of helpfulness to missions waking in it as to make it really an example to others. Hannibal is waking up as almost never before to her all around obligations and privileges. Old Orchard is moving to revive the life and work of St. Mary's, Shrewsbury. In St. Louis St. Paul's has added a most desirable plat of ground, ample for future needs, to her belongings. All Saints' not only flies the flag of honorable self-respect and self-support but takes pleasure in responding to all requests for her share in sustaining benevolences and beneficences outside; and she grows yearly stronger from such wholesome exercise. The Redeemer, with its church relocated and enlarged by the generous giver, is the centre of renewed and increasing activities. The Holy Communion is a bee hive of industry and has consecrated a modest new chapel for special services. Trinity has entered and occupied the St. Mark's of former years and so saved the latter fabric to the uses of the Church. St. Philip's is preparing plans for building a new church; and the Cathedral is erecting its tower of massive dignity and receiving its altar piece of attractive splendor. Funds have also been proffered to the amount of forty thousand dollars for building a church in the vicinity of Washington University on a lot already secured.

Our Confirmations have been 657; larger than in any one of the twenty-one years since Missouri was divided, save only in 1907, when they were 686.

These all are things to be glad for though not to be proud over. They are outward and visible signs of inward life and health and growth.

As for the works and ways of the Sisters in Bishop Robertson Hall; and the women in the Boards of the Orphans' Home and the Convalescent Home and the Girls' Friendly and the King's Daughters; and the Trustees and officers and physicians and nurses of St. Luke's Hospital; and the young men of St. Andrew's Brotherhood and the Church Club; and the members of the young Churchwomen's Club,—these are the blessed things of expectation and experience like the sunlight and fresh air. In the one case and the other they are blessings in constant flow even though we talk not of them and perhaps sometimes think not much about them.

But, about the Woman's Auxiliary and the Sunday Schools I want to be more specific.

The gifts of the Woman's Auxiliary for the Missionary work of the Church sum up this year,

In cash	$7,275.35
In boxes	2,080.84
Total.....	$9,356.19

It is a pleasure to tell of it and a reduplicated pleasure to have it told.

The children of the Sunday Schools gave in Lent a year ago for General Missions, $2,057.32; and this besides $1,044.70 for the Missionary Host. Who can call that other than an admirable record?

I regret that I feel called upon to record that I have heard of one or two cases in the Diocese where funds in a Parish given specifically for one purpose have been diverted to and used for another. This is not business straightforwardness. This is not sure and sacred custodianship of trusts committed to Rector and Vestry and Treasurer. I do earnestly beg that officers in a Parish entrusted with funds will be specially and conscientiously careful never to allocate a penny of such funds in any other way or to any other object than that for which they were given. This is simple honesty as well as sacred duty.

I ask now to address myself directly to the subject of the provision of a Bishop Coadjutor for the Diocese of Missouri.

In the statement in the Bishop's Address of a year ago I said, "It seems to me I would not be justified, and I should not be willing, to ask for a Coadjutor unless the Permanent Episcopate Fund shall have been augmented by the amount of $25,000.00, bringing it up to the sum of $45,000.00." In that address I also said, "I can go on as I am alone. So long as God spares my present health and strength I do not think there is any extreme difficulty in doing so. When the former Diocese of Missouri was divided, in 1890, the field was so cut down that I have never since been overworked or unduly pressed in filling it. I think I could at present by myself alone meet with measurable success all reasonable Diocesan demands."

I want to confine myself now to comment upon these two pronouncements.

With regard to the first, I would say that it has been quite the habit of my life to trust the judgment of business men in preference to my own in the matter of getting and raising the money needed for the Church. Acting now along the line of such habit I beg leave to withdraw the statement of a year ago as quoted above and to say that I desire to leave the matter of securing a proper fund, or providing adequate pecuniary support, entirely in the hands of this Convention, in the membership of which are not a few competent business men. The Bishop of the Diocese therefore professes no restrictive condition whatever to the securing of a Bishop Coadjutor.

With regard to the second pronouncement, I am prepared to reiterate it. "I can go on as I am alone." "I do not think there is any extreme difficulty in doing so."

But the reiteration is from a standpoint a little changed through the lapse of time. And therefore I venture to say to you that I think it is wise and well for this Diocese quietly and thoughtfully to provide its future Bishop now rather than to defer when a crisis might shut away from you opportunity for the quietness and thought.

Accordingly I do hereby, in compliance with the provisions of Canon 9, § II, [1], read this my written consent to the election of a Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Missouri; and I also hereby state that the duties assigned to said Bishop Coadjutor when duly ordained and consecrated shall be the care and direction of all the Mission stations of the Diocese, organized and unorganized, and parochial, and of all the activities along the line of new work or Church extension, with the single exception of the work projected and undertaken in connection with the church building to be erected in the Parkview region of St. Louis.

With loving gratitude to Him from whom all good things do come I feel in the depths within that God hath guided and blessed this Diocese in the past. I most humbly and most earnestly invoke the continuance of His presence and His guidance and His blessing for all its wonderful years now shut in the womb of the future, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

MARSHALL S. SNOW,
Secretary of the Standing Committee.

APPENDIX No. 7.

Report of the Registrar and Librarian.

The duty of the Registrar to "receive and safely keep the books, documents, and manuscripts belonging to the Diocese, and not required to be kept by any other person or official" has been attended to principally in the care of the Diocesan Library, which contains all the books and documents belonging to the Diocese which have come into the possession of the Registrar.

The records of the Diocese have not been kept, because these matters are attended to by the Bishop and his secretary.

Section 4 of Canon 5 pertaining to the duties of the Registrar is a dead letter and should be repealed and left out of the new edition of the canons.

The duty of the Registrar to collect such materials as can be obtained relative to the history of particular parishes of the Diocese should be attended to, as undoubtedly such a history would be of great value, but the present incumbent of the office does not feel able to entirely donate the amount of time and labor which this would demand, and therefore this duty has not been done.

Woman's Auxiliary.

THE THIRTIETH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE MISSOURI
BRANCH OF THE WOMAN'S AUXILIARY.

To The Rt. Rev. D. S. Tuttle, S.T.D., Bishop of Missouri, and Members of the Woman's Auxiliary:

We have the honor to present to you the 30th Annual Report of the Missouri Branch Woman's Auxiliary.

It gives signs of hopefulness and helpfulness everywhere. With such speakers as it has been our good fortune to have we would have been deaf and cold indeed not to have listened and caught something of the true spirit of Missions. Our Autumn Meeting was an aftermath of the General Convention and the leading Missionary Bishops of the Church were an inspiration unspeakable.

The Missionary Conference of the Department of the Southwest brought us again in touch with those who guide our forces. The whole year has been a wonderful feast of good things, and we have opened our hearts and our purses, and besides a deeper love and knowledge of the work we present the largest report in money that the Missouri Branch has ever made and that without any one large individual gift. It is the aggregation of small gifts which represent self-denials, personal service and the best gift of all, the love of a thankful heart.

The minor strain is the loss of some of our small Missions. Thayer and Louisiana have made no report and with deep regret their names are omitted this year, with the hope of renewed activity in the succeeding one.

If by some arrangement an Auxiliary Meeting could be held annually in each Convocation as a part of the regular Convocation business it would be possible to reach many women in the smaller towns and bring the Auxiliary work to their attention. It would seem a decided step towards strengthening the bond between the Parishes and between the officers and the representatives. This might obviate the sad duty of reporting that the work is languishing in the rural Parishes. The officers of the Auxiliary respectfully offer this suggestion to the Convention.

Respectfully submitted,

MARY W. TRIPLETT,
Secretary.

APPENDIX No. 16.

Report of the Hospital Missionary.

The work of Hospital Missioner is primarily and chiefly with the inmates of the following institutions in the city of St. Louis: The Infirmary, Sanitarium, City Hospital, Work House and City Jail. Regular services held as follows:

CITY INFIRMARY.

On the first and third Sundays at the Infirmary in the afternoon, beginning at 2:30 in the Female Hospital and ending at 4:30 in the Chapel. One-half hour's service is held in the Female Hospital, another half-hour's service in the old ladies' ward and an hour's service in the regular Chapel. In the two first named places the services are necessarily informal, but in the latter the shortened form of Evening Prayer is the custom.

In all these services we are aided by a number of voluntary helpers from the city parishes, to whom much gratitude is due for their self-denying and devoted work. Not only are they present at the services, but on Sunday afternoons and during week days they visit the inmates, distributing literature and speaking words of comfort and cheer to those whose lives are necessarily circumscribed. The services are well attended by the inmates and the fruits of our labors can be seen by the number of confirmations and baptisms. Holy Communion is administered regularly on the first Sunday and first Thursdays of each month—in the Chapel for such as can attend and in the wards for the invalids. The Rev. Mr. Hatch officiates in this institution on the second and fourth Sundays.

CITY SANITARIUM.

At nine o'clock on each Sunday service is held in the chapel, and is attended on an average by over one hundred of the inmates. The interest manifested by this people is remarkable. Here also we have regular Communions.

CITY HOSPITAL.

At the City Hospital regular services are held at 3 p.m. on Sundays. Your missionary officiates on the fourth Sunday, the Rev. Mr. Cox on the third and the Rev. Mr. Masker on the first and second. At these services we have an average attendance of about 50 convalescent patients.

CITY JAIL.

On each Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock your missionary, aided by Mr. Fanning, meets the prisoners in the lobby of the jail for an hour's service. The work here has been very encouraging. While the attendance is voluntary, it is a rare thing if as many as a half-dozen out of the two hundred and more prisoners remain away from the services.

WORK HOUSE.

Your missionary has found it possible to give only one Sunday a month to this place, but the work here is done most ably and acceptably by Mr. Fanning, my lay helper. Mr. Fanning has endeared himself to these men and his ministrations are very acceptable to them. On each Thursday night, Miss Hofman conducts a service for the women in this place. I am glad to take this opportunity to praise the work done by this excellent woman as also that done by Mr. Fanning and Mrs. Holmes. Indeed your missionary would find it almost impossible to do the work assigned him without their splendid support. I will add also my sincere appreciation of the help given me by all the helpers who number over 50 self-sacrificing men and women.

Besides the regular services in these institutions, your workers make regular weekly and sometimes daily visits to these institutions, thus coming into individual and personal touch with the men and women—ministering to their material comfort in many ways, such as providing clothes, medicine, crutches, delicacies, &c. From time to time your missionary appears before the congregations of the city and presents the needs of this work and the response is money, clothing and periodical literature.

It is deeply gratifying to your missionary to meet with so much encouragement and good will both from the laity and clergy of the city. It is the one work that all can lay claim to and say, "It is our work."

APPENDIX No. 18.

Report of the Dean of the Southern Convocation.

To The Rt. Rev. D. S. Tuttle, D.D., Bishop of Missouri:

I would respectfully submit the canonical report required from a Dean of Convocation concerning the condition of the Church in his field.

There are a good number of encouraging items to report while it is also true that there is much to be done which we have left undone in a field ripe and ready for the harvest.

We have in the Southern Convocation five self-supporting parishes, Old Orchard, Jefferson City, Ferguson, Columbia and Kirkwood. There are besides these nineteen missionary points and missions.

A number of these points are vacant, but only certain of these have ever had resident clergymen but belong to groups of missions; so that the vacancies are not as many as they seem when we look over the list. Unfortunately there are, however, five actual vacancies. These are: Cape Girardeau, which has combined with it Jackson, and where with the help of the Missionary Board to the extent of $150.00 they are ready and anxious to pay $1,200.00 and the use of a handsome rectory; St. Charles, where the "Missouri Diocesan League of Lay Readers" are serving, with a monthly visit from the rector of Ferguson; Crystal City, where services have, however, been maintained by clergymen and laymen; the group of Missions which has St. James as a center, including also Cuba, Sullivan, and Salem, where I believe they will soon be ready to again call a priest; and Thayer, which has been without a pastor for a number of months. The League of Lay Readers is helping splendidly in the care of Valley Park, St. Charles and Bonne Terre, and Mr. Walter Slifer, of Cape Girardeau, has done much toward putting the parish in condition to call a rector, while the rector and Lay Readers of Redeemer, St. Louis, have looked after Portland. So that the list of missions where there are actually no services being held is not a long one. It includes Sherman, St. James, Cuba, Salem, Sullivan, Fulton and Thayer, four of which belong to one group.

At St. Charles, they have gotten out of debt, have bought or are about to buy a new organ. They have a good rectory and by combining this parish with Portland and Montgomery City, in the Hannibal Convocation, a support could be secured with some help of course from the Board. At St. James they are ready and anxious to go on with their work. They have a new organ recently presented to them and have a neat rectory nearly paid for, and the during the first week of May we held there, through the efficient help and management of the congregation, one of the best meetings of Convocation we have ever known.

Indeed it is a marvel to me how women's guilds in such places as St. Charles, St. James, Cape Girardeau, Poplar Bluff and Fredericktown, labor and plan a way for the work of the Master, often amid trying discouragements, and how they seldom lose heart in their efforts. And there is one thing that you can nearly always count on and that is, that however depleted may be the mission treasury, however scarce may be other funds, there is nearly always money in the guild treasury to fall back upon when financial crises arise.

At Bonne Terre, Salem, and Fulton they have small but churchly cement block churches, built toward the close of Archdeacon Walton's period of work in the Diocese. At Poplar Bluff they have at considerable expense improved their former building so that according to the picture you saw of it in the CHURCH NEWS it presents an excellent appearance. At Rolla I understand they are contemplating the building of a new church and have some funds already laid by for the project.

There are many items of encouragement but there is a vast work to be done in this wonderfully rich and developing territory. The greatest difficulty is the securing of men to man these stations. The money can be gotten from the field and from the Church people of St. Louis. It is remarkable what can be done in raising money even where the psychological atmosphere does not seem conducive to it. In my judgment and from my small experience the getting of the money is the easiest part of it. If the men are to be secured we must in these days of high cost of living pay salaries that we are not ashamed of. In my judgment that is one of the most crying needs of the Church everywhere to-day. We are suffering now from a dearth of men partly caused by the woeful failure of Christian people to adequately support the Church's ministry.

In the Southern Convocation there are many towns which ought to be occupied by the Church. The scattered Church folk, wherever there are two or three or even one, should be shepherded and fed with the Bread of Life. It depends upon the prayers, the devotion, the generosity of the people of this Diocese.

Respectfully submitted,

LESLIE F. POTTER,
Dean of the Southern Convocation.

In addition to the number of resident communicants given herein, there are between 30 and 50 non-resident communicants here at all times. They are students at the different Schools, and patients at the Infirmary. They are of no value to the Church materially. Some attend the services regularly, but more do not attend at all. Yet these Church people must be taken care of—must be looked after and kept sight of—so that they be not lost to the Church. The problem of the Church in a shifting population, in a college community, must be solved, or the Church will lose its hold in such an important centre as this.
