Rules of Order of the Convention.

1. The daily sessions of the Convention shall be opened with Divine service.
2. When the President takes the chair, no member shall continue standing or shall afterwards stand up, unless to address the chair.
3. When the President shall have taken the chair, the Minutes of the preceding day shall be read.
4. During the Convention the following named Committees shall be appointed by the Bishop:
  - I. On Admission of New Parishes and Lay Credentials.
  - II. On Constitution and Canons.
  - III. On Raising Funds for the Endowment of the Episcopate.
  - IV. On Dispatch of Business.
  - V. On the State of the Church.
5. All Committees shall be appointed by the President, unless otherwise ordered.
6. All resolutions shall be reduced to writing, presented to the Secretary, and read by him. A resolution that is not a part of a committee report may be introduced only at the time indicated in the Order of Business. All resolutions, except those forming a part of a committee report, shall be referred immediately after introduction without debate to a special or standing committee.
7. When any member is about to speak, or deliver any matter to the House, he shall, with due respect, address himself to the President, confining himself strictly to the point in debate.
8. Any member shall not absent himself from the service of the House unless he have leave or be unable to attend.
9. A member, other than the Chairman of a committee whose report is under consideration, shall not speak more than twice in the same debate, nor longer than ten minutes at a time, without leave of the House.
10. Any member of the House may call for a vote by Ayes or Nays.
11. When a question has once been determined it shall stand as the judgment of the House, and shall not again be drawn into debate, except on motion for reconsideration, which must be made by a member who had previously voted in the majority, and all motions to reconsider must be made on the day the vote is taken, or on the next succeeding day.

12. When a question is under consideration, a motion shall not be received, except to lay it upon the table, to postpone to a certain time, to postpone it indefinitely, to commit it, to divide it or amend it, and motions for any of these purposes shall have precedence in the order herein named. If a motion to lay an amendment on the table be carried, the matter before the House shall be proceeded with as if no such amendment had been offered. The motions to lay upon the table and to adjourn shall be decided without debate. The motion to adjourn shall always be in order. No motion shall be considered before it is seconded.

13. Debate shall not be allowed upon a motion to refer any motion or resolution to a committee, or upon a motion to recommit any motion or resolution to a committee, or upon a motion to recall any motion or resolution from a committee, or upon a motion to suspend the rules of order; but the member who offers an undebatable motion may speak five minutes for the purpose of explaining its object.

14. All amendments may be considered in the order in which they are moved. When a proposed amendment is under consideration, a motion to amend the same may be made. An after-amendment to such second amendment shall not be in order; but when an amendment to an amendment is under consideration, a substitute to the whole matter may be received. A proposition different from the one under consideration shall not be received under color of an amendment or substitute.

15. Every member who may be in the House when any question is put shall, in division, be counted unless he be excused by the Convention.

16. All questions of order shall be decided in the first instance by the Chair, without debate; an appeal, however, may be made from his decision to the Convention by any member of the same.

17. The Secretary may employ one or more pages, not exceeding three, to act as messengers during the sessions of the Convention.

18. The reports of all Committees shall be in writing, and shall be received, of course, without motion for acceptance, unless recommitment by a vote of the House. All reports recommending or requiring any action or expression of opinion by the House shall be accompanied by a resolution for the action of the House thereon. All annual reports shall be received and filed by the Secretary as presented before or during the Convention, and may be called up on motion to be read and considered at any time during the Convention.

19. The names of the movers of resolutions shall appear in the minutes of the Convention.

20. All motions and resolutions requiring reference shall be referred as far as possible, to the Standing Committees.

21. In the case of an election by ballot requiring a concurrent majority of both Orders, the balloting shall be conducted in the following manner: the Tellers appointed to receive the vote of each Order shall take their stand near the platform at the same time, the Tellers for the Laity by the Secretary's table, and the Tellers for the Clergy in a place apart from them. The roll of the Clergy shall be called by the Secretary, and they shall come forward at the calling of their names and deposit their ballots; the roll of the Lay Delegates shall then be called by the Secretary, and they shall come forward at the calling of their names and deposit their ballots; and no persons whose names do not appear on either roll shall be allowed to vote. Whenever more than the canonical number to be elected by either Order are found to have received such majority of votes, the number required by Canon having the highest number of votes shall be declared duly elected.

APPENDIX No. 1.

The Address of the Bishop to the Ninety-seventh Convention of the Diocese of Missouri.

To the Clergy and the Lay Delegates:

We come now to the Ninety-seventh Convention of the Diocese of Missouri. Will you join with me, as is our custom, in a moment of silence, recalling those of our friends, former delegates to this Convention, members of our Parishes and Missions, members of the House of Bishops whom we have lost during the past year, thanking God for their friendship and their good examples, beseeching Him to grant them continual growth in His love and service.

During the past year there have been changes in the clergy staff of the Diocese which I wish to record. The Reverend Robert C. Batchelder, Jr., who came to us two years ago from the Diocese of Connecticut to be Rector of St. Stephen's Church, Ferguson, left us last summer to return to his former Diocese as Assistant Minister in St. Paul's Church, at the gate of Yale University, New Haven.

The Reverend Lee W. Heaton, who for five years was our "doctor of sick churches," and who was so very great a factor in enabling the Church of the Holy Apostles and the Holy Innocents' Church to begin life anew, could not resist a challenge offered him by the Bishop of Western Nebraska to assist him in that Missionary District. He is now Rector of St. Stephen's Church, Grand Island.

The Reverend Sumner Walters, for five years Rector of the Church of the Redeemer, was called to one of the most important Churches in the Diocese of California. It was an unusual opportunity for very wide service and we all felt, as did he, that he ought to accept it. He is now rector of Christ Church, Alameda, California. With his departure a change was determined on in the status of the Church of the Redeemer. Our Churches in the city are badly bunched, having moved, broadly speaking, in a straight and narrow line west. The Church of the Redeemer was part of an over-churched neighborhood from the point of view of our Church, with the Church of the Ascension and the Church of the Holy Apostles not far distant. After canvassing the situation thoroughly, the members of the Parish felt that it would be better to abandon the Church of the Redeemer as an independent Parish and ally themselves with other Parishes. This was done, and the property was turned over to the Diocese. Arrangements were completed with Trinity Parish whereby it was to purchase the property of the Church of the Redeemer in time. Trinity Parish accordingly moved to its new location last summer.

We have had one change within the Diocese: The Reverend John E. Hines, who for two years was the very able Assistant to Dr. Block at the Church of St. Michael & St. George, last May became Rector of Trinity Church, Hannibal.

We have had four additions to the clergy staff during the past year. From the Diocese of New York, where he had been Assistant to Dr. Bowie at Grace Church, came the Reverend Charles C. Wilson to be Rector of the Church of the Holy Innocents, and in charge of Mt. Calvary Church and the new development in St. Louis Hills. From the Cathedral staff of the Diocese of Bethlehem came the Reverend Kenneth E. Heim to be Rector of St. Stephen's Church, Ferguson. To be Rector of Grace Church, Jefferson City, we secured from St. John's Church, Waterbury, Connecticut, one of Dr. John Lewis' Assistants, (and he has such a very sure instinct for men) the Reverend Wilbur D. Ruggles. And the youngest member of the clergy staff was received from the Diocese of Massachusetts, straight out of the Senior Class of the Episcopal Theological School in Cambridge, to become Assistant Minister in St. Peter's Church, St. Louis, the Reverend William H. Kirk. We are more fortunate than we can say, in securing these four splendid men.

There have been two Ordinations in the Diocese during the past year: On September 30th the Reverend Charles C. Wilson was advanced to the Priesthood, and on January 5th the Reverend William H. Kirk was likewise advanced to the Priesthood.

Two Postulants were received during the past year. Mr. Ralph Daniel Bonacker, who is now a Senior in Yale Divinity School, was accepted as a Postulant on October 7th, and on the same day Mr. George F. Tittmann, now a Senior in Harvard University, was also received. Mr. Darby Wood Betts, another Postulant in this Diocese, is now in his first year at the Seminary in Virginia.

Mr. James Lichliter, now a Senior in the Theological Seminary at Alexandria, Virginia, became a Candidate for Holy Orders, and during the coming summer we hope to add him to the clergy staff of the Diocese. Again, these are excellent men.

As the reports from the Financial Department will show, we have come through the year very well, with all bills paid and a substantial balance in the bank for the work of the coming year. This has been accomplished, however, by cutting the budget at the beginning of last year and rigidly adhering to it.

Through the Apportionment, plus the money received from the Pence Plan and through some assistance from a surplus in the Diocesan Expense Budget, we were able to exceed slightly our Expectation to New York. We had pledged ninety-nine hundred dollars and we paid ten thousand. I should like to call the attention of the Convention, however, to this fact: we are advised by National Headquarters that if the Church is to continue to work on the basis of a budget of two million seven hundred thousand dollars, our fair and apportioned share would be $17,500.00. Consequently we are falling short by a considerable amount. In order to try to close the gap somewhat, the Council has voted, subject to your ratification, that for the year 1936 we accept ten thousand dollars as our Expectation—but also set the sum of twelve thousand dollars as our objective and exert every possible effort to secure that full amount. I hope very much we shall be able to do this.

There is one matter which must come before this Convention for ratification. Let me tell you the story. Some years ago, as the depression deepened and the returns from the Parishes on the Apportionment were diminished, we were faced by the alternative of closing some of our Missions, or securing additional revenues. But we had adopted the policy in this Diocese of putting a period to any further retreat from cities or towns where our work was established and needed. To close any of our Missions even temporarily would be to imperil their future. Consequently, as you know, a friend of the Diocese established a Trust Fund of one hundred thousand dollars for a period of five years, giving us the income of five thousand dollars a year from this Fund provided it was matched by a similar amount from other individuals or organizations. This extra income of ten thousand dollars a year, plus an average of one or two thousand dollars each year in addition, which was required by our budget, has literally saved the Diocese during this depression. A further condition of the gift was that at the end of five years the principal of this Fund, one hundred thousand dollars, must be matched by a similar amount, in order to establish an Endowment Fund of two hundred thousand dollars for Diocesan Extension and Maintenance Work. The date of expiration is May first, 1937. The Diocesan Council has therefore voted to undertake a campaign this spring, immediately after Easter, in order to match this one hundred thousand dollars. But as the necessary Budget of the Diocesan Extension and Maintenance Fund is now in the neighborhood of twelve thousand dollars a year, which the income from the two hundred thousand dollars would not be sufficient to cover, the Council voted to try to raise the sum of two hundred thousand dollars, making a total endowment of three hundred thousand dollars, the income from which would not only take care of our present budget but also would give us a margin with which we could undertake building operations from year to year at points where this has become a necessity.*

WILLIAM SCARLETT.

Report of the Diocesan Council for 1935.

The Council recommends to the Diocesan Convention that 30% of the Receipts from Parishes and Missions on their Apportionment for the Church Program for 1936 be sent to the Treasurer of the National Council, and 70% be retained for work in this Diocese; and that this Diocese expects to pay the sum of $10,000.00 on account of the National Church Program, for 1936, with an objective of $12,000.00.

The Council further recommends that an Everyman's Offering campaign be conducted during the current year, with Mr. J. K. Stribling as Chairman, the entire proceeds of this Offering to be disbursed at the discretion of the Bishop and Council.

The Council has approved the Diocesan Expense and Church Program Budgets and the Assessments and Apportionments for 1936 which will be recommended by the Finance Department for adoption by this Convention.

Respectfully submitted,
C. E. REMICK, Recording Secretary.

APPENDIX No. 11.

Report of Department of Religious Education
For the Year 1935.

Mr. Chairman and Members of the Convention:

During the year the Department lost the services of three of its members: The Rev. Sumner Walters, former Chairman of the Department, who was transferred to the Diocese of California; the Rev. Robert Batchelder, who was transferred to the Diocese of Connecticut; the Rev. R. O. Kevin, Rector of Grace Church, Kirkwood, who, because of the pressure of work in other Diocesan activities, has resigned from the Department. The Department feels the loss of these former members, and appreciates the splendid service they have rendered. The activities are now being conducted by the following Committees: The Rev. John L. Hady, and the Rev. O. V. Jackson in charge of work in the college centers; Mrs. Irvin Mattick, work among the Isolated and Adult Education; the Rev. Leighton Nugent, Teacher Training School; Father Rawson, Church Schools; Mrs. O. H. Vornbrock, Secretary. The Rev. Frank Maples has just brought to a close his term of office as Chairman of the Church School Service League.

During the month of May, the annual presentation Service for the Lenten Mite Box Offering was held at Christ Church Cathedral with Bishop Parsons of California as speaker.

From June 16-21, the Missouri-West Missouri Summer Conference was held at Stephen's College, Columbia. The Rev. Richard M. Trelease of the Diocese of West Missouri was Dean, and the Rev. John L. Hady of Columbia was Associate Dean. The following subjects were offered: "Prayer," "New Testament," "Adjustments to Daily Life," "Girls' Friendly," "Review of Old Testament," "Youth Movements," "Religion and State," "How to Make the Parish Grow," "Aids to Worship," "Anti-Social Behaviour," "World Challenge to Christianity." There was a total enrollment of 165 with 55 enrolled from the Diocese of West Missouri, and 110 from the Diocese of Missouri. Twenty-seven scholarships at ten dollars each were allowed by the Diocese to Parishes and Missions of this Diocese.

In September, Father Rawson reported that those Churches, which had in previous years carried on Daily Vacation Bible Schools, had undertaken this work during the past summer.

During the last two weeks of October, and through the month of November on six Monday evenings, the Diocesan Teacher Training School was held, under the leadership of the Rev. Leighton Nugent. The following courses were given: "Principles of Teaching," "New Testament," "Outline of Church History," "The Prayer Book." There was an enrollment of 50 with an average attendance of 38. Credit will be given to 25, who have fulfilled the necessary requirements.

Mrs. Irvin Mattick, in visiting through the state, is gathering as complete a list as possible for her work among the Isolated. She is sending copies of the Daily Bible Readings, put out by the Forward Movement Commission, to such families as she feels would benefit through receiving them.

The Church School League has maintained its fine attendance for the past two years under the leadership of its former Chairman, the Rev. Frank Maples. There have been many helpful programs. The enthusiasm and progress of this splendid organization is being continued under the thoughtful planning of the present Chairman, the Rev. Robert W. Fay of St. Paul's, Overland.

The Department hopes in the very near future to complete its membership, and desires to offer the following recommendations, not necessary, however, to be carried out in the form of resolutions:

1. The Department wishes to call to your attention a very helpful pamphlet, "Youth and Education," put out by the Forward Movement Commission. It commends its use or adaptation in all Parishes and Missions.

2. It will be of assistance to those in student centers namely, the Rev. J. L. Hady, the Rev. O. V. Jackson, and the Rev. Arthur H. Beardsley, to receive the names of members from Parishes and Missions attending college or school at Columbia, Rolla, and Cape Girardeau.

3. Mrs. Irvin Mattick will welcome the names of any isolated individuals or families.

4. The Department urges the whole-hearted support of the monthly meeting of the Church School Service League, and the Summer Conference at Columbia.

I wish to take this opportunity to thank the members of the Department for their help and fine spirit of co-operation during the past year. This word of appreciation includes all others who have given of their services in carrying out the projects sponsored by this Department.

Respectfully submitted,
J. MANLY COBB, Chairman.

APPENDIX No. 12.

Report of the Field Department for 1935.

The Field Department is charged largely with the responsibility of assisting the Parishes in the conduct of the Every Member Canvass. It is happy to report that in most instances there have been conducted very thorough canvasses with very gratifying results. These results can best be seen by studying the report of the Department of Finance.

The Field Department was responsible for bringing Bishop Cross to the Diocese, who visited six of our Parishes and brought much inspiration to them.

The Chairman has visited two of our out of town Parishes, and presented the facts concerning our Assessments and Apportionments.

Respectfully submitted,
HULBERT A. WOOLFALL, Chairman.

APPENDIX No. 13-A.

Report of the Finance Department for 1935.

In submitting the report of the Department of Finance for the year 1935 we are glad to point out that we have balanced Income with Expenditures. As was stated in this report last year, this has been brought about by applying the policy of reconciling projected budgets with expected revenue through the practice of the severest economy. This has meant, unfortunately, our having to continue the curtailment of some activities although we hope the time is not far off when the growing improvement in business conditions will be reflected in the finances of our Parishes and Missions, so that they may arrive at a position to assume greater obligations towards both the Diocesan Expense and Church Program Budgets, which will enable the Department to undertake their gradual re-instatement.

The Diocesan Expense Budget (see Appendix 4), finishes the year with a surplus of $2,535.73, and as all previous deficits in this Budget were wiped out last year, we may consider this a comfortable and encouraging situation. This condition enables us to extend a slight measure of relief to those Parishes who have borne the major part of the burden in financing this Budget in the past, by reducing their assessments from 11% to 10% of their expenses, for the year 1936.

The Church Program Budget (see Appendix 5), shows a deficit as of the date books were closed of $2,876.95, part of which is the sum of $2,566.61 due out of collections on our pledge to the National Church. Since closing, however, further collections have been received which, together with the money paid in through the Pence Fund and a transfer of a portion of the surplus in the Diocesan Expense Budget, have enabled us to remit $10,000.00 to New York, which is $100.00 more than our expectancy.

It might well be pointed out that the balancing of the Church Program Budget has only been achieved by reducing the payments of this Diocese to the National Church; but this is because of a very wise policy on the part of our Bishop to expend the necessary money to build up and strengthen our own weaker Parishes and Missions in order that they may be in a position to assume their own financial obligations and, in time, relieve the Diocese of contributing to their support. This consummation, devoutly to be wished, is already on the way.

The Bishop's Pence Fund instituted during 1934 has been carried on by some Parishes during the past year, from which the Diocesan office realized $898.66. This entire sum, however, being ear-marked for the National Church as an extra pledge, does not appear in the Budget, but was a part of our expectancy.

As has always been the custom in this report, the Finance Department again expresses its appreciation of the support received from all Parishes and Missions in financing the obligations of the Diocese, up to the limit of their ability. We know it has meant sacrifices on their part, and we are most grateful.

Respectfully submitted,

C. C. PANGMAN, Chairman.
G. N. Hitchcock.

APPENDIX No. 14.

Everyman's Offering Fund.

The suggestion of the Everyman's Offering Fund came from the members of the Church Council who had worked with Bishop Scarlett and realized the constant need of a fund to supplement the regular financial budget of the Diocese, and knew from actual experience the disappointments of budgets that did not work out as planned and the constant hardship of insufficient funds.

The women of this Diocese and many others have for years made their Thank Offering regularly, and only the Bishop and other heads of our Church can tell of the wonderful help this Fund has been in carrying on God's work. The loyalty of our women in this fine work is a challenge to the men of Missouri, which we believe they will accept in the same fine spirit, and carry on in a way that will make the Everyman's Offering Fund another real factor in our Church.

The collection of this Fund is to be within our Diocese, not of national scope, and the full amount so collected is to be turned over to the Bishop and the Council to be used at their discretion in the expansion of Christ's Kingdom on earth.

There is to be one Sunday set aside for the collection of this fund in every Parish and Mission in the Diocese of Missouri, and we earnestly ask in advance the full co-operation of the ministers and all other Church officers in making this new financial aid to our Church prove well worth while.

The Everyman's Offering is to be a free-will gift of one dollar or more from each man of the Episcopal Church of Missouri, and this gift is to be collected once each year on the Sunday so designated.

It shall be the duty of the committee to make all necessary preparations for collecting this Fund readily, to appoint a Churchman in each Parish or Mission to supervise this work, and the full amount collected is to be sent to the Chairman of the Committee at 1210 Locust St., no part of the Fund being retained by the Church or Mission in which it is collected.

This Committee welcomes now or at any future time helpful suggestions in establishing and carrying on this Fund and wishes to express in advance its appreciation of your co-operation.

Respectfully submitted,

Everyman's Offering Fund Committee,
J. K. STRIBLING, Chairman.

APPENDIX No. 15.

Report of the Department of Missions and Church Extension for 1935.

The notable achievement of the past year has been the further strengthening of personnel in the Diocese by placing men of great promise in parishes and missions, some hitherto vacant. We note especially the advent of the Rev. John E. Hines to Hannibal, the Rev. Kenneth E. Heim to Ferguson, the Rev. Chas. C. Wilson to Holy Innocents, St. Louis, and the Rev. Wm. H. Kirk, added to the staff of St. Peter's Church, St. Louis.

During the year the parishes of Trinity Church and the Church of the Redeemer were merged and are now using the location at Washington and Euclid Avenues.

We again urge that those parishes that receive aid from the Diocesan Budget or from the Bishop's Extension Fund will feel increasingly their obligation to permit the Diocese to reduce these allocations in the amount of ten percent annually—none of this sum to be taken from the clergyman's salary. We note with appreciation that St. Paul's, Overland, is relieving the Diocese this next year of the sum of $200.

The Church of the Holy Communion faces a serious problem because of drastic changes in population in the neighborhood. They hope to move into a location where the parish can more hopefully fulfill their parochial function. No decisions have been reached as by canonical order changes of location must be submitted to the Bishop and Standing Committee.

Efforts having been made to sell unused and unproductive Diocesan property so that the proceeds might be used for promising work elsewhere. Nothing definite has been achieved in this matter thus far.

Respectfully submitted,
KARL M. BLOCK, Chairman.

Report of Examining Chaplains for 1935.

The Board of Examining Chaplains was called upon during the year 1935 for only one official act. It gave its approval to the application of Mr. James Lichliter for admission as a Candidate in the Diocese of Missouri.

The record of examinations passed by the Rev. William H. Kirk in the Diocese of Massachusetts referred to the Chairman, was reviewed by him and certified to the Bishop.

Respectfully submitted,
KARL MORGAN BLOCK, Chairman.
