Tuesday, May 22d, 1894.

In accordance with Article III. of the Constitution of the Church in the Diocese of Missouri, a number of the clergy and laity assembled this day in Christ Church Cathedral, St. Louis, the place selected by the last Convention.

At 10 o'clock A. M. the clergy, proceeding from the Schuyler Memorial House, entered the Cathedral, where they were met by the choir of the Cathedral singing the 232d hymn, "Onward Christian Soldiers," when the regular service was held.

The opening sentences and services to the First Lesson were read by the Rev. E. P. Little, of Trinity Church, Hannibal.

The First Lesson was read by the Rev. W. H. Tomlins, of St. Mary's Church, East St. Louis.

The Second Lesson was read by the Rev. J. L. Gay, of St. George's Church, Bevier.

The Creed and Prayers were read by the Rev. J. D. Ritchey, of Emmanuel Church, Old Orchard.

The Commandments were read by the Rt. Rev. the Bishop of the Diocese.

The Epistle was read by the Rev. John Gierlow, Ph. D., of St. Louis.

The Gospel was read by the Very Rev. M. Schuyler, D. D., Dean of the Cathedral.

The Rev. C. G. Davis, of Grace Church, Jefferson City, then preached the Convention Sermon, taking for his text the 12th verse of the 15th Chapter of the Gospel of St. John.

The Offertory sentences and notices were read by the Rev. W. W. Love, of the Cathedral.

The Holy Communion was then celebrated by the Rt. Rev. the Bishop of the Diocese.

On reassembling in the Schuyler Memorial House, the Rt. Rev. the Bishop, called the Convention to order, and the Secretary of the last Convention proceeded, under the direction of the Bishop, to call the roll of the clergy canonically resident in the Diocese, and thirty-eight Clergymen answered to their names.

The Rt. Rev. President called for the report of the Committee on the "Admission of New Parishes and Lay Credentials" appointed at the last Convention; whereupon the Rev. S. H. Green, Chairman, presented the report which was read by the Secretary including the names of the Lay Delegates entitled to seats in this Convention.

On motion the report was adopted.

The Secretary then, under the order of the Rt. Rev. President, called the roll of Lay Delegates, reported by the Committee as entitled to seats, and Delegates from nineteen Parishes answered to their names.

The Rt. Rev. President then announced a quorum of both orders present and the Convention ready for business.

The Rt. Rev. President announced as the first order of business the election of a Secretary.

On motion of the Very Rev. M. Schuyler, D. D., the rules of order were suspended, and the Assistant Secretary was instructed to cast the ballot of the Convention for Mr. Jno. R. Triplett, of St. Louis, for Secretary, with power to appoint his assistant. The Assistant Secretary so cast the ballot, and the Secretary appointed Mr. W. B. Coombe, of the Church of the Redeemer, his assistant.

The Rt. Rev. President announced that the Treasurer of the Diocese and, also, the Treasurer of the Board of Missions were present to receive all moneys due and payable to them.

On motion of Mr. M. S. Snow, the Convention then took a recess until 2.30 o'clock.

Convention reassembled, after recess, at 2.30 P. M.

The Committee on Admission of New Parishes and Lay Credentials submitted a supplemental report to the effect that the certificate of election of W. A. Luther, of Trinity Church, St. James, had been presented, and that the Mission was entitled to representation in this Convention.

The Secretary then called the name of the delegate, Mr. W. A. Luther.

Mr. M. S. Snow offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That visiting clergy and students preparing for Holy Orders be invited to the sessions of this Convention, and they be requested to hand their cards to the Secretary.

Card of Rev. W. H. Tomlins, of East St. Louis, was handed to the Secretary.

Rev. J. W. Higson offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the rules of order of the last Convention be adopted as the rules of order of this Convention.

Mr. J. A. Waterworth offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Convention meet each morning for Divine worship at nine o'clock in the Cathedral, and for business from 10 A. M. to 1 P. M., when it will take a recess to 2.30 and continue until 5.30 P. M.

Mr. W. R. Donaldson moved to amend by making the hour for closing five o'clock instead of 5.30.

On motion of Mr. McMaster, seconded by Rev. P. G. Robert, the request of the committee to be relieved of further consideration of the matter, was unanimously adopted.

The Rt. Rev. President called for the report of the Standing Committee on Missions.

Rev. W. A. Hatch, Chairman of said committee, stated that the Committee on Missions would only give a minority report, as three of the five members of the committee are at present outside of the Diocese and could not be reached for a meeting of the committee.

On motion of Mr. M. S. Snow, Rev. Mr. Hatch was requested to present the minority report.

The Rev. W. A. Hatch presented and read the minority report of the Standing Committee on Missions. [See Appendix No. 17.]

ANNUAL ADDRESS

OF THE

BISHOP OF MISSOURI

TO THE

FIFTY-FIFTH CONVENTION.

DEAR BRETHREN OF THE DIOCESE:

Every wise business house dealing in commodities takes a yearly account of stock. Doubtless the paramount aim of the managers is to buy and sell and make profit. But they well know that book keeping and account taking and statement making are necessary to the successful accomplishment of their aim. The Divine Master has entrusted us in the Church with goods. We are to buy and sell and make gain that we may return them to Him with increase,—with usury, as the parable puts it. And the account taking and statement making of the Annual Convention are quite in the line of a right and wise management of the spiritual merchandise which we hold in stewardship. Besides, to get together is a comfort and an inspiration. To see each other's faces, to grasp each other's hands, to think thoughts and feel impulses and speak words of brotherly love and fidelity, may be accounted things of much worth while we, as disciples, soldiers, stewards, are passing through and out from our earthly life.

In the march, four of my brethren in the Episcopate have gone away.

Bishop Southgate was eighty-two years old when he died, and was the Senior Bishop of the American Church, having been consecrated in 1844, six days after our own Bishop Hawks, and seven years before Bishop Williams, our present Presiding Bishop. It was in 1844 that we sent forth our first Foreign Missionary Bishops, Bishop Boone to heathen China and Bishop Southgate to Mohammedan Turkey. Bishop Southgate labored for six years in his field, making his headquarters at Constantinople. In that field were branches of the Oriental Catholic Church, Greek, Armenian, Syrian and others. His plan was "to cultivate brotherly relations with these Christians; scrupulously to avoid all offensive intrusion within the jurisdiction of his Episcopal brethren; to promote a friendly intercourse between the two branches, Eastern and Western, of the One, Catholic and Apostolic Church; to impart to the brethren in that country any knowledge of the Scriptures and of the doctrine of Christ which through the Lord's goodness we may have obtained, and gladly to receive any such light from them." The American Church charged him to go forth to the prosecution of his work in this spirit, and with this aim. But in the Board of Managers of Foreign Missions in New York demands voiced themselves that the Bishop at Constantinople should bring converts of the Oriental Churches out from the errors of Greek Catholicity, and make them, equally with regenerated Mohammedans, to be fixed and formal members of the Protestant Episcopal Church. So, dissensions waxing loud as to the true and wise line of direction of his Missionary work, Bishop Southgate resigned in 1850. Subsequently he served two or three Parishes as Rector, though for the last score of years he has lived in retirement near New York. I remember seeing and hearing him when he was Rector of Zion Church, New York City. He was a native of Portland, Maine, a graduate of Bowdoin College, of handsome face and form, a man of ardent spirit and erudite scholarship.

Bishop Gregg, dying at seventy-three, had been Bishop of Texas for thirty-four years. Texas was admitted as a State in the Union in 1845. In 1844 some presbyters, laboring as missionaries in the Republic of Texas, petitioned our General Convention for "such Episcopal supervision as is enjoyed by missionary districts in the United States." Bishop Freeman, consecrated October 26, 1844, at the same time and place with our own Bishop Hawks, was made Missionary Bishop of Arkansas and the Southwest, and given jurisdiction over Texas. In 1849 Texas was organized as a Diocese. In 1856 it elected Rev. Arthur Cleveland Coxe, of Maryland, for its Bishop. In 1857, Rev. Alexander H. Vinton, of Massachusetts. In 1858, Rev. Sullivan H. Weston, of New York. All these declined. Finally, in 1859, Rev. Alexander Gregg, of South Carolina, was chosen. He had an immense empire for a Diocese, and served it in patience, prudence, and devoted fidelity for fourteen years. I well remember how, when Bishop Gregg came to the House of Bishops to ask, in his gentle and earnest way, for relief from the crushing burden of his stupendously great field, all our hearts went out to him in deep and warm sympathy. But objections were loud that it was unconstitutional and incompetent for the General Convention to abstract any of its area from a sovereign Diocese. It was only the unremitting zeal for his brother of Texas on the part of that wonderful leader, Bishop Whittingham, and his consummate sagacity in insisting that it was competent for General Convention to give leave to a Diocese to shrink itself into limits of smaller area if it wished to, that won the victory in the General Conventions of 1871 and 1874. So in the autumn of 1874 the two Missionary Districts of Western Texas and Northern Texas received their Bishops, Elliott and Garrett.

Bishop Lyman served North Carolina for twenty years. Clergy and friends and neighbors had gathered to celebrate his twentieth anniversary. But he was on his sick bed and could not join them. Two days after he died. Though seventy-nine years old he was vigorous and energetic. Those who heard him speak at the Missionary Council in Chicago last October can bear witness to that vigor and energy.

Bishop Paddock was made the Missionary Bishop of Washington when fifty-six years of age. He did his duty manfully for near fourteen years. A holy life of personal religion, and consecrated devotion to the service of his Master and the Church, were eminently his. Toward the last, bodily infirmity assailed him, and his spirit was grieved that he could not do what he felt he ought. Men of younger years should generally be appointed for the rugged activities which face a Missionary Bishop.

Our clergy have all been spared unto the steady continuance of their work. But into their Parishes once and again death has entered and removed useful workers. Hannibal, Kirkwood, Old Orchard, Palmyra, and St. George's, St. Louis, have particularly suffered. God be thanked for the good examples of all those who have departed this life in His faith and fear! God mercifully help us to be ready, waiting, watching, working; for the summons hence will surely come, and will soon come to one and another and yet another of us.

The Diocese seems to be in a healthful condition. The only places vacant are Afton, Canton, Ferguson, Kirksville, and LaPlata. Of these, Ferguson will soon supply itself with a pastor. And I am not without hope that Kirksville and LaPlata will do the same. The Confirmations, 510 in number, exceed those of last year by 62. In meeting salaries of their pastors, assessments for the Diocese, and pledges for Missions, the Parishes have done wonderfully well. For this has been a hard year financially for everybody. It would be a natural thing to expect to hear of the cutting down of salaries, the repudiation of assessments, and of failure in meeting pledges. But I have yet to know of one single instance of this sort of thing in the whole Diocese. Natural such a course might be. Thank God that spiritual zeal and spiritual earnestness have overtopped the natural and put it clean out of sight. If the tables in the Church News be scrutinized, not one assessment of the whole Diocese is found in arrears, and only two pledges for Missions. And I feel persuaded that the new lists which the accounts of this Convention shall furnish will make almost as good a showing. Seven clergymen more than last year are working in the Diocese. Two new Church buildings are added and occupied; Trinity, at St. James, and St. Peter's, St. Louis. Trinity, St. Louis, was plunged into the depths of seeming financial submergence by the call of its creditor for the loan which had come due. But in a spirit of energetic loyalty and splendid self-reliance it extricated itself from the impending disaster; and with considerable of its debt paid off it is in better condition than ever. There are ten young men studying for the holy ministry. Towards their support $870.50 have been paid.

The record of gifts to General Missions is good. Every Parish has contributed except Afton, Kirksville, Prairieville, Shrewsbury, Shelbina and Thayer.

And every Sunday-school except two gave Lenten offerings for Missions. The amount given by the children was $1,100.09, against $1,346.18, last year. The falling off can be charged to the account of "hard times."

Yet in scrutinizing, I seem to see a putting of the children forward as soldiers, and a putting of ourselves behind them, which is not manly nor praiseworthy. There are fifty-four Parishes and Missions in the Diocese. Only sixteen of these have contributed, other than what the children gave, to General Missions. Suffer me to name the sixteen. Clarksville, Cuba, Hannibal, Moberly, Rolla, St. James, and the following Parishes in St. Louis: All Saints, Ascension, Cathedral, Grace, Holy Communion, St. Andrew's, St. John's, St. Mark's, St. Peter's, and Trinity.

Flooding memories come over me of missionary work and missionary sustentation belonging to my first twenty years of a Bishop's life. Can I be blamed if my heart specially warms towards those sixteen Parishes who loyally remember the needed sustentation? May I not be pardoned if in deep earnestness I ask the clergy of the other thirty-eight Parishes,—Why do you so let slip the privilege, and neglect the duty of asking your people to help the General Missions of the Church? Long ago the Master said,—“Go into all the world and preach the Gospel to every creature.” Sixty years ago the American Church said that every baptized person is a member of the great Missionary Society and is bound to help it on. Why will you then, dear brethren, so neglect and forget? How is it that in loyalty to the Master, in love for souls, in duty to your own great Church, you can allow any Advent season to go by without asking your people for gifts to Domestic Missions; or any Epiphany season, without asking for Foreign Missions? The children are indeed learning to think about Missions and to give for Missions. God bless them all! But men, women, brothers, sisters, if you are not also thinking of and giving for General Missions, you are losing one of the greatest blessings, and shirking one of the plainest duties of Christianity.

For Diocesan Missions, too, the record is good. In my address of 1893, I pleaded for pledges to the amount of $4,300.00. My heart had many glad beats in it when the pledging list was found to foot up $4,630.00. But twenty-one missionaries have been employed this year against seventeen of last year, and the Board felt obliged to appropriate $4,750.00. Fortunately we had a surplus of $500.00 in the Treasury over and above the reserve of $1,500.00 which we must always carry. I may be allowed to express my anxious hope that $4,750.00 will be pledged this year.

Diocesan Missions, translated into the imperative mood, mean,—“Forward with the work of the Church in Missouri!” I take it, brethren, we are ready to join in the cry. Let us be equally ready to join in the work and the giving needed. Your Bishop is a General, commanding forces in the field. The enemy is at the front, on the flank, everywhere. If the chief cannot have and order reinforcements here and there, where the line is weak and the strain is heavy, from centres where supplies are massed, then you may be sure the fighting cannot be of the most hopeful sort. Blessings manifold God bestows upon us as we are Missourians. The Church in her organization, discipline, and doctrine, has that to give which is of value to Missouri. For the sake of the Church, then, and for the sake of Missouri, let us faithfully and generously stand by Diocesan Missions.

The increase of the membership of the Missionary Board from six to eighteen has worked well. Information about missionary matters has been disseminated and interest in them has been deepened; power for action has been extended and wisdom of counsel has been increased.

The City of St. Louis is undeniably a most important portion of the Diocese. Missionary work in it presents itself under two aspects.

I. Caring for the poor and neglected.

II. Helping the beginnings of Mission Stations until they grow into self-supporting Parishes.

Under the first head would fall the aid rendered to our colored brethren in All Saints' Church, and to our deaf-mute brethren in St. Thomas' Church. For unwearied devotion to duty and unflagging zeal in its discharge, I do not know of any more faithful brethren in the ranks of the clergy than are the Rev. Mr. Mason and the Rev. Mr. Cloud.

In the care of the poor and neglected in what may be called the East End, several of our Parishes are called upon to render incessant service, notably, the Cathedral, St. John's, Holy Communion, and Grace. But the two special organized efforts for this care of the poor and neglected of the East End, in which all the Parishes are engaged and interested, are Sister Eliza's work, and St. Stephen's Mission.

Sister Eliza makes the Church Mission House at 1531 Washington Avenue to be as a city of refuge to the sorrow and the want crowding all round about. Her's is sagacious, discriminating, wholesome help, which relieves and sustains and uplifts, and never pauperizes. I do not know of as much good done anywhere else at as little money cost. My loving thanks go forth to the good ladies, who form the sustentation Committees, which stand by the sister in her self-sacrificing earnestness. Sister Eliza's greatest need is for some other one to come by her side as a personal helper. The strain of service is making inroads upon her physical strength. She greatly needs and earnestly calls for some one to come to share her work, its blessings, and its burdens.

St. Stephen's Mission, under the Rev. Mr. Tuckerman, on Seventh Street, is at the East End indeed. My hope and prayers are that it may be steadily and generously sustained. My loving thanks go forth to the clergymen and laymen who, at my request, went, two and two, in the autumn and early winter, before the Churches to plead its cause. How can we, with good con-sciences, sleep peacefully in our West End houses and worship reverently in our West End Churches if we do nothing for the East End needs? The Missionary Board of the Diocese have purchased and paid for a lot at cost of $5,000.00. They have about $5,000.00 more in hand or in sight. But they really need $20,000.00 or $30,000.00 for erecting suitable buildings to house this valuable Mission work. May the Holy Spirit put it into hearts to give us what we need! To push on and accomplish the good work which St. Stephen's aims to do, would be a blessing to the whole Church in St. Louis, a protection to the commerce and wealth of St. Louis, and a contribution, not only to the peace and prosperity, but to the better and nobler life, of St. Louis.

Under the second head would fall the work done at the Church of the Good Shepherd, under the faithful pastorship of many years of the Rev. Mr. Newton; and that of Holy Innocent's, Oak Hill; and St. Augustine's, Benton; and St. Matthew's, Clifton Heights; and St. Paul's, Carondelet; and St. James' Elleardsville. Missionary aid extended to these is to help them upon their feet, and to sustain them in steadiness awhile on their feet, until the strength comes to go alone. This is the Church Extension idea. Along the same line Rev. Mr. Wilkinson, of St. Mark's, is building up Epiphany Mission on Clayton Road; and Rev. Mr. Bardens, of Trinity, St. Chrysostonis Mission in the North of the City; and Rev. Dr. Ingraham, Grace Mission, also in the North; and Rev. Mr. Deane, of St. Andrew's, Holy Cross Mission in the West. I am glad and thankful for all these efforts. Yet whoso will take a map of the city and observe the large portions of it unoccupied by our Church, especially in the North and Northwest, and I may add also the Southwest, will be grieved to think that we are not at all making the growth of the Church in this great city keep pace with the growth of its inhabitants. I understand that a report from the Committee on Missions will lay before you some facts in this relation. And I reiterate my entreaty that Diocesan Missions, and that great part of Diocesan Missions which City Missions constitute, may claim and have the thoughts and prayers, the loving interest and generous gifts of you all.

Next Sunday will be the 25th anniversary of the "Missionary Host." God's blessings go with its Silver Day! The "Missionary Host" was a comfort and a source of sweet relief to my hard-working and oft-perplexed predecessor, I know. As for myself, I cannot say out enough my loving gratitude to it. It has gone right on, quite like the steady breathing of my lungs. I have not noticed it much. I have not been called on to notice it. I have not been bothered by it. When I have noticed it, it is quite like the lung-breathing again. It gives a sense of strength and power and deliciousness of living. Others have watched it. Others have worked it. Others have taken the trouble of it. And the blessed children have kept loyal and faithful to it. So when I have reached out my hand for help in sore need, with no call of proclamation and no fuss of demonstration the help has been ready and has been put into it. Only to God's good Providence and a Bishop's anxious heart is it known how help of that sort has made my sleep sounder and my heart stronger and saved me from much strain, and practically conserved and protected my working powers.

In like manner the Woman's Auxiliary of the Diocese has been a foremost helper for Missions. Not quite as unnoticed or unspeaking. Not to notice it would be impossible. To be unspeaking, perhaps, wouldn't be woman's way. But its speaking counts, and counts for sturdy help. With $1,000.00 more paid off for All Saints' Church reducing to $5,000.00 the debt which was $9,000.00 when the Auxiliary took hold of it. With hundreds of dollars given to the Missionary Bishops of Oklahoma and Western Colorado, who came to visit us. With $150.00 of help specially to St. Stephen's in a severe emergency; and with promiscuous to try hereafter to raise $1,000.00 per year for St. Stephen's; with $75.00 per year given steadily in subscription for Diocesan Missions; and with errands of merciful and generous succor sent to so many missionaries at every point of the compass, that I would need mathematical computation and nautical phraseology to recount them. The money value of this year's doing, let alone the sweet story of affection and sympathy and prayer, and intelligent interest aroused and quickened through the "Missions Class,"—the money value of their doing is $5,491.88, of which the cash gifts are $3,486.51. Two members of the auxiliary give me twelve dollars per year each to pay the dues of two clergymen in the "Clergymen's Retiring Fund Society." One earnest member, Mrs. J. J. Mitchell, laid by to sweet rest, left $6,500.00 for God's work, in various bequests.

Bishop Robertson Hall, spite of the hard times, has had a right successful year. There has been a larger attendance of pupils, and all the operations of the School have gone on well. The Sisters have been graciously relieved from the burden of interest which pressed sorely, by eighteen friends who subscribed $100.00 per year each for meeting the interest. I think the syndicate will generously stand by for the same relief for a year longer. It is a great comfort to see the school in its present healthful and hopeful condition.

In St. Mark's School, Portland, Rev. Mr. Alleyne and Mr. Gill have succeeded in founding a good boarding school for boys, with very moderate cost for board and tuition. The air of the school, physical, mental, moral and spiritual is wholesome and manly.

The Orphans' Home continues its beneficent operations. Scarlet fever has assailed its inmates. Consequently the lady Managers are striving to accumulate funds for the erection of a detached building for an infirmary, of the urgent need of which they are strongly convinced. The children are grieved to know that they are soon to lose out of their sight their faithful chaplain who has given them loving care for many years. The Orphans' Home, with Mt. Calvary Church, and with the entire Diocese, will mourn the departure of the Rev. Mr. Reed who has done untiring duty among us for more than a score of years.

St. Luke's Hospital, I feel sure, grows in the esteem of the people of St. Louis. Medical and nursing care of the best can be secured there, and cases of charity where succor is given to stranded ones without money and without price are very considerable. The "Giving Tuesdays," instituted and managed by ladies of the different Parishes, bring in excellent results of help. The "Training School for Nurses" is in a soundly established and well organized condition. Seven young women graduated from it this year.

The Brotherhood of St. Andrew is a blessing to the Diocese. I am glad for its members and proud of them. In their Sunday-school work and Bible Class work; in their duties as ushers and their duties as lay readers; in their efforts in social life to keep young brothers from yielding to temptation, and in their efforts of positive influence to bring such brothers to Church and to Holy Communion, I recognize in them a power for good altogether and conspicuously valuable. This year in an emergency they are concurring to extend important financial aid to the Building Fund of St. Stephen's Mission.

Some laymen of St. Louis have united together in a Church Club. I am glad to tell out the fact. I do not know where the Saxon word Club in its well-known meaning comes from. Sometimes the word and the thing signified by it are not pleasant. For a Parish congregation to think itself a religious club, and to act out the thought, sends a chill to my heart. But this Church Club and its membership, joining in prayer, learning about the Church, deepening sympathy, broadening fellowship, clasping hands across parochial lines, alive and earnest to be the visible hands and feet and voice of the invisible Christ to win souls to Him, and to defend and promote the interests of His kingdom,—my warm thanks to it, my best wishes with it!

Unless one be grossly stupid, revolving years bring grave thoughtfulness. How is American life to be kept true to duty, and strong for righteousness, and sweet in brotherly affection? What shall bring classes and masses alike to walk in ways of love and loyalty to the flag, and of obedience and reverence to law and order? Are Socialism and Paternalism on the one hand, or Individualism and Anarchy on the other, to sap the blood of all that is sweet and strong and wholesome for both the Individual and the Community? Shall self-will and pride, or self-assertion and unbelief or self-indulgence and sense gratification crowd out and sink from sight trusting faith in the Divine Master and child-like love of His dear Person? How shall the great commonwealth of Missouri, blest in wonderful resources of wealth by God's bounty, and this mighty City, destined, if the world be spared and our nation remain one, to be the home of busied millions, be kept beating time and standing steady to righteousness and Christianity? What shall be the life and growth of our own Church here? How can our Parishes, under the fever of change and chill of depletion, remain healthy and vigorous? How can the down-town ones of the City survive at all? In the turmoil and strife, in the straining and out reaching, in the gain and growth, in the din and confusion, will any room be found or time be given for still, small voices of conscience, and the Church, and the Holy Spirit?

One is almost inclined to answer;—God knoweth. We fear not. But that would be a faithless answer. And faithlessness is not only unwisdom and weakness, but, for us Christians, treachery and sin.

It may be said, it seems as if true, that materialism is the faith and worldliness the practice of the day; that selfishness and sin in dominant force work discordant wrangling and one can see no end thereof. But, "when the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the Lord shall lift up a standard against him." We may not forget that we live under the dispensation of God the Holy Ghost. These Sundays of the latter half of the Christian year on which we just have entered are, in the old Service Books, Sundays after Pentecost, taking their source and inspiration from Whit Sunday. With God the Holy Ghost the guide and leader, the personal inspirer and worker for good on the earth, how shall Christians lose heart and faith, however self and Satan, sin and death, may seem to have the high hand?

Besides representing the Blessed Saviour by lighting the reason and conscience and hope of every man that cometh into the world, He, God the Holy Ghost, has the three Divine Institutions, the Family, the State, and the Church, for the channels of His grace and the instruments of His beneficent activity. Let the world intensify its seductions. Let pride swell, and gain grow, and sense tyrannize, and self claim imperial rule; and Satan shout cries of victory. Yet set against them is an opposing host. And God the Holy Ghost is the Commander-in-Chief. And the Home, the State, and the Church are the powerful intrenchments. These three are not settings up of our own for defence; the sharpened stakes of an improvised stockade protection. No, they are walls of adamant and strong towers heaven reaching furnished by the Almighty Himself for refuge and succor to the souls whom He hath made.

Clanging discord shall not bring disintegration and dissolution. Arrogant selfishness cannot choke to the death brotherly kindness and love. The perplexing questions of practical economics touching the making of wealth and the distributing of wealth shall not run on to ruinous distraction of men's thoughts and aims. Because God the Holy Ghost is the Divine personal worker on earth for good. And because the three Divine Institutions, the Family, the State, and the Church, are the everlasting embodiments for earth of His beneficent activities. If pessimism be loud-voiced to-day it is because it does not so much as know whether there be any Holy Ghost; and it does not realize the tremendous and enduring strength of protection to the better in man afforded by the Divine Institutions which God's goodness hath set up on the earth.

Onsets shall be met, then, and problems will be solved, as they come. In the beginning God's merciful goodness made the Family. It is a survival of Eden. It is a prophecy of heaven. Blessings center in it and flow out of it that are mightiest forces to keep the world sweet and strong. Love, purity, reverence, self-sacrifice, fidelity, personal honor, consideration for others, patriotism. Let pessimism take note of all this.

The State is an aggregate of families. It erects thrones, and seats upon them law and order. There is some sternness in its beneficence. It sets fixedness of restraint over against the Home's winningness of love. But it is God's good servant for the preservation and promotion of righteousness. "The powers that be are ordained of God." If the service be not complete or good, ours is the fault. God means it to be complete and good. Out from the Family the State gets its best things of fidelity, honor, consideration for others, patriotism.

The Church is a nourishing mother. She is not as old as the Family. She does not lay direct hands of restraint and influence upon all, as the State does. Because choice, freewill, love are primal principles with her as they are not with the State. But her's is the domain of the highest hopes and deepest faiths which human beings can experience. And home love, and the righteousness of law and order, are intrinsically precious to her, and she is unceasingly their promoter. She is not to die from off the earth while man is left upon it, any more than the Family and the State. "The Gates of Hades shall not prevail against" her, said the Master. In her ministry and sacraments, her discipleship and brotherhood, her prayers and praises, her faith and life, she is in special sense inhabited, inspired, and guided by God the Holy Ghost.

Let there be no loss of heart or courage to us, dear brethren. With feet set in the way of duty stand we steady shoulder to shoulder. Our Commander-in-chief on earth is God the Holy Ghost. Shall we not trust Him and obey Him and follow Him? Things may seem to be out of joint. Then work we manfully to set them right. But stop with work. Go not on to worry. God the Holy Ghost is the Director. He sees the things. To Him they are not what they seem to us. Leave them to Him. The world is not to go to pieces under Him. Society is not to be thrust down into an abyss of ruin. Governments are not to be put back into the confusing chaos of anarchy. "The Lord is King, be the people never so impatient; He sitteth between the cherubim, be the earth never so unquiet."

We may go on to take our annual account of spiritual stock, to reason together, to ask and receive counsel, and to lay plans and march on to execute them, though we well know how soon one or another of us is to fall out from among the workers, and leave to others to do the work.

But though,

"The world is very evil,"

and,

"The times are waxing late,"

we decline to make company with the pessimist or to think with him. Our hearts are hopeful. Our eyes are upward. We refuse to be cast down or dismayed. Our trust in God the Holy Ghost is unshaken. "O Lord in Thee,—in Thee, have I trusted, let me never be confounded."

Then renewing old Rocky Mountain experiences I helped to fight the fire for a couple of hours, but eight buildings or more were consumed.

The following Missions are reported vacant: Afton, Canton, Kirksville, and La Plata.

The amendments to the Canon relating to the Missionary Board, adopted at the last Convention, clearly drew a distinction between Missionary work and Church Extension, and commissioned the enlarged Board to go forth with renewed energy and zeal to execute these two branches of the Church's work. The Board, recognizing the duty devolved upon it, at once sent out its investigating committees, and discovered that there were Missions already established that stood in urgent need of assistance, while there was also a large territory of the city, west of Grand avenue, extending north and south, thickly populated, into which the Church should be extended. Before it had determined how it would execute the commission from the Convention, or whether or not it would concentrate its energies for the first year upon one branch of the work it had to do, there came a proposition from that noble band of workers, the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, that left no alternative for the Board, but to accept it, and devote its first labors to the building up of St. Stephen's Mission. This proposition was, that if the Missionary Board would agree to raise $5,000, for the securing of ground, and erecting building thereon for St. Stephen's, during the year, that the Brotherhood would pledge itself to raise the sum of $3,000 for the same purpose. This opened up the pathway of duty. This proposition was at once accepted, and a campaign organized for the purpose of raising the $5,000. A clergyman and a layman were selected by the Bishop, and, under his direction, visited every Parish and Mission in the city, with the consent of the Rector and Missionary in charge thereof, and laid before the congregation the needs of St. Stephen's, and asked for pledges and offerings for it. Notwithstanding the financial stress resting upon the country, there were cash and pledges obtained amounting to over $3,800. The Board commends this work to the Convention and the church people of the city, and trusts that their generosity will enable it to secure the remainder of the $5,000 before the first of October, next.

In furtherance of its fond purpose to permanently anchor St. Stephen's in the midst of a careless and indifferent people whom the Church was passing by in the westward moving of its temples, the Board proceeded to purchase a lot of ground upon which to erect the buildings. The property is located on the southeast corner of 6th and Rutger streets, and contains a front of 86 feet, 6 inches, on 6th street, and a front of 82 feet, 6 inches on Rutger street. The price paid for it was the sum of $5,000, but the vendor, Mrs. Thomas, kindly donated $100 to the good cause. The Board is now securing plans and estimates for a building, and hopes soon to commence the erection thereof.

The financial summary in relation to St. Stephen's is about as follows.

Cash collected by Missionary Board.....	$3,366 36
Cash in hands of Brotherhood of St. Andrew.....	681 00
Pledges considered good.....	500 00
Result of efforts in behalf of St. Stephen's.....	$ 4,547 36
Bishop's Fund.....	6,805 61
Total	$11,352 97
Cost of Lot.....	5,000 00
Balance.....	$ 6,352 97

While the Board takes pleasure in reporting the results of its efforts in this direction, it does not desire to divert, and it trusts that it has not diverted, your attention, your interest and your sympathy from the general cause of Missions in the Diocese. We have twenty-two Missionaries, and twenty-six Missions, organized and unorganized, and fourteen Parishes, that need, and must have, our help and aid. They must be taken care of, or we are faithless to the cause we espouse. To meet these demands, pledges are annually taken in the Convention. The stipends that these faithful and self-sacrificing Missionaries are receiving, as you have heard, are disgracefully small. To lessen them, means not only hardship and distress to the Missionary, which so many of them uncomplainingly endure, but it means a serious crippling of Missionary operations. Further encroachment has been made on what we have been pleased to term the surplus fund, until it is nearly exhausted. It is a serious and delicate matter for the Board to make contracts with these faithful servants of God, without knowing beforehand, the amount that will be in its hands to expend. $4,750 is the minimum sum needed for this purpose. The Diocese of Missouri has never yet failed to provide for those of its own household, and the Board feels that the pledges this day made will not allow the stamp of "worse than an infidel" to be placed upon it.

Respectfully,

F. J. McMASTER,
Secretary.

APPENDIX No. 10.

Report of Missouri Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary.

To the Rt. Rev. Daniel S. Tuttle, D. D. Bishop of Missouri, and Members of the Woman's Auxiliary:

While the figures in our report this year are not as encouraging as usual in the aggregate, it is because we had two unusual gifts last year. Our chief joy is that we have completed one line of general work, our part of the payment of All Saints' Debt. Not only have we given $4,000 in four years to the colored work here in our midst, but a feeling of sympathy and kindly interest has been engendered between the members of that Parish and the others working for it. At the request of the Bishop we are to turn our energies to St. Stephen's, and have pledged $1,000 for the coming year. We can readily raise it, and it is hoped that every name on the list of All Saints' subscribers will be transferred to St. Stephen's, and much the same method of contributing will probably be adopted.

Our President has made two Missionary journeys in the Diocese, and established a branch in Jefferson City and reorganized the work at Hannibal, which heretofore had been largely individual, and which promises work in the coming year. Another valuable adjunct to our work has been found in the Cathedral Guild of St. Mary for Ecclesiastical Embroidery.

All of our regular obligations have been met, the Scholarships, Diocesan Missionary Pledge, and we had a part in the great Thanksoffering made by the women for the Mission House. We have had visits from the Archbishop of Zante, Bishop Hale, Bishop Brooke and Bishop Barker, and practically showed our appreciation of each one. The United Offering is increasing. There is a decided decrease in the Mite Boxes, which implies a temptation to forsake the old lines for the new.

The Missions Class held its regular meetings at the Schuyler House. There was some variation from our old methods, in having two afternoons conducted by Bishops. The work in Oklahoma was the subject of Bishop Brooke's talk, and Bishop Hale spoke on the Greek Church and our Mission work in Greece. The class is a distinctive feature of the work in Missouri, and has proved a source of education and inspiration to us all.

The great loss of this year is the resignation of our faithful Treasurer. It is only a keen sense of the undue tax it would be upon her already much occupied time, that reconciles us to giving her up. Her careful reports and well kept books tell better than any words, how great the loss will be.

Report of Diocesan Missionary.To the Rt. Rev. the Bishop of Missouri:

RT. REV. AND DEAR SIR:—During the past year, under your direction, I have had four classes of duty: 1. Missionary work in the Diocese; 2. Official correspondence of the Bishop, and writing up the records of the Diocese; 3. Editorial care of the Church News; 4. The charge of St. Augustine's and St. Matthew's Missions. By your appointment I have given one Sunday each month to outside Missionary work, and have held thirty-two services in seventeen different Parishes and Missions. On these visits I administer the Holy Communion, catechise the Sunday-school, confer with the Vestry or Committee as to the needs of the Parish or Mission, and visit as many of the Church families as possible.

I am happy to report that the income of the Church News for the last year was slightly above the cost of publication. With the change of form to the magazine style with better paper and type, together with some changes in management, the publishers hold out flattering encouragement for future financial success. We have reason to be proud of our Diocesan paper, now in its twenty-fifth year, in the fact that it is the oldest one in existence, and that its life has been uninterrupted from the beginning. While we shall endeavor to keep the Church News before the people, giving everyone an opportunity to subscribe, yet we cherish the hopeful dream that the happy time will come when the Diocesan paper will not go begging for subscribers, but will be a felt want for its own sake, and become a necessity in every Church family in the Diocese.

G. D. B. MILLER.

APPENDIX No. 13 A.

Report of the Chaplain of St. Luke's Hospital.

It always seems incumbent on me in presenting a report of St. Luke's Hospital to the Convention, that it should embrace more than a presentation of dry statistics, as to the number of services and the amount contributed by the Churches, or otherwise, to its current expenses. The main design of a report to the Convention would seem to be, that the claims of the Hospital may be brought before the Church throughout the Diocese.

By a by-law of the Association, every Clergyman in charge of a Parish in the Diocese is "ex-officio" a member of the Association, and is entitled at any meeting of its members to give expression to his opinions and to vote upon any measure that may be proposed. The annual meeting, by provision of the by-laws, is held on the last day of the Convention, when the Board of Managers for the ensuing year are elected and any other business connected with the interests of the Hospital may be transacted. While this is an important meeting, yet it has never been attended with any manifestation of special interest. Any measures bearing upon the management of the Hospital, or matters affecting its well-being, may there be proposed and discussed. It is by no means a close corporation, but invites the active co-operation of every Clergyman, and of every Layman who is willing to pay $10 annually towards its support. There has been a gradually increasing interest in the parishes outside the city in their contributions on Hospital Sunday, and in sending their gifts of fruits, vegetables, canned provisions, old linen, etc., on Giving Tuesday, and on other days suiting their convenience.

The Treasurer reports—

There are now eight endowed beds, the income from which, will enable the Hospital, the debt being fully provided for, to increase, materially, the number of their charity patients. As I have said before, the Hospital is a great charity in itself, as furnishing a home where the transient sick may be cared for with a comfort and a skill never found in any private residence. As a matter of economy also, whether in the ward or a private room, board, medical care, and nursing, can be procured at a much less cost, and as a rule, with far more comfort and better attention.

As to the strictly charitable work of the Hospital, it has been extended to the limit of its means, without reference to the religious views of the applicant, creed or no creed. I quote from the annual report of the Superintendent, Mrs. Mary Chambers:

"The Hospital has cared for 78 cases, to whom 1,928 days of treatment, 111 days of special nursing, i. e., constant attendance day and night by a specially appointed nurse, were given absolutely free of charge. These figures, to any one unfamiliar with hospital life, convey but faintly the amount of work done and benefit received. The patients were of both sexes, all ages, and all classes and creeds. They suffered from various ailments, and in some cases underwent serious surgical operations. These were performed by our surgeons, without counting cost, time or skill; they simply saw a chance to relieve suffering humanity and took it whenever it was prudent. The free cases are treated side by side with those who pay and it is not known outside the office who they are, to any save themselves and the friends sending them. It is possibly due to this fact that we so often hear that we take no charity patients; but if any one will take the time and trouble to make inquiries at the office, or of the friends of the Hospital, a very different state of things can be proven, and a worthy charity shown to be doing a good work, though quietly and unostentatiously."

A word as to the "Training School for Nurses," which has become an important feature in the present management of the Hospital.

The third annual graduating exercises for the class of this year, took place at the Memorial Chapel (St. Luke's), on Friday evening, May 4th. The Bishop conferred the diploma of the institution upon seven young ladies who had devoted two years of faithful study and practice to the acquisition of the needful skill and knowledge to fit them for their life work, in ministering to the sick, whether in the Hospital or in the private house.

There are now eighteen students pursuing this course, and it is presumed there will be a growing interest and increasing numbers as the years go by; and also enlarged and more comfortable quarters for those who deserve the highest consideration at the hands of the friends of the Hospital.

The Church News, for the present month, contains two interesting addresses delivered by the President of the Hospital, W. H. Thomson, Esq., and Dr. M. H. Post, of the medical staff, on the occasion to which I have referred. I bespeak for these addresses your careful perusal.

Services in St. Luke's Memorial Chapel and Hospital have been as follows:

Holy Communion, Public Celebrations	67
" " Private " 	1
Ward Services.....	42
Baptism—Infant.....	1

The Rev. W. W. Love has assisted at times in the celebration of the Holy Communion, and has had entire charge of the services in the wards, assisted occasionally by the Rev. A. K. Smith. Rev. W. W. Love has also acted as Chaplain of St. Barnabas' Guild for Trained Nurses, which is, no doubt, an organization of great merit and usefulness, and will be a bond of union for its members wherever their lot may be cast. The Bishop delivered a most interesting sermon to them during the winter in the Cathedral.

The Altar Department has been under the care of Miss Triplett, assisted by Miss Cousland, together with an occasional service from one of the nurses. To these ladies we owe the special acknowledgment of a grateful recognition. It is no inconsiderable service to attend sixty-seven times during the year, in all weathers, through heat and cold, rain and sunshine, and occasionally at an early hour, to keep the linen and sacred vessels in order and attend many other calls upon their care and attention. Like the attending Priests they have a higher reward than any earthly compensation, through loving ministry in His service, who has left the blessed assurance.

"Inasmuch as ye did it unto one of the least of these; my brethren, ye have done it unto Me."

M. SCHUYLER,

Chaplain.

Report of Registrar and Librarian.

The Registrar and Librarian submits the following report:

In November of last year, the Library was removed from its cramped and dismal quarters in the Cathedral, to the beautiful and commodious room provided for it in the Schuyler Memorial House. The books were thoroughly cleaned and sorted and placed on the shelves. Had it not been for the intelligent labors of my predecessor, the Rev. Mr. Higson, to whom so much credit for painstaking care is due, my labors would have been much more arduous.

It is found, on examination, that there are about 1,270 volumes on hand, under the various heads of theology, biography, history, education, etc. The old catalogue is now useless, and a new one is in course of preparation. It is gratifying to state that there appears to be a revived interest in the Library, as manifested in the number of volumes withdrawn for reference during the six months it has been in its new location. The Librarian is to be found in the room between 11 and 12 o'clock, daily, except Sundays, and esteems it a privilege to assist any one desiring to make use of the books. Copies of the Church News, keeping the files complete, have been received from the editor, the Rev. Mr. Miller; the Very Rev. Dr. Schuyler has supplied numbers of the Spirit of Missions, and Mr. Jos. P. Gazzam has kindly contributed the following named works: Sermons, Newman, 2 volumes; sermons, Onderdonk, 2 volumes; Ecclesiastical History of England, Ven. Bede, 1 volume; Law of the Church, Hoffman, 1 volume; Church Documents, Connecticut, Volume 2; General Convention Journals, 1785 to 1853, Volume 1. Journals of the Conventions have been received, through the Secretary of the Diocese, from nearly all the Dioceses, and copies of the Journals of Missouri have been furnished the Diocese of Colorado, on application of the Registrar of that Diocese.

May not this Library have a larger future? The books are old, but the Librarian is new. The contempt or indifference for the Library may be largely overcome, if the clergy will manifest a more decided interest in it. Contributions of desirable books are asked for, and will be acknowledged in the annual report. When times become easier, and money more plentiful, the Convention will be asked to do something annually, for the intelligent increase of the Library. In the meantime your Librarian proposes to do his best to keep it and its interests and advantages before the Diocese.

He has received $50 from the Treasurer of the Diocese, and has expended $35.25 for the moving and cleaning of the books, and the incidental expenses of his office, leaving a balance on hand of $14.75. A record of the various Episcopal Acts have been kept as required of the Registrar, by Canon.

Respectfully submitted,

KENNETH M. DEANE,

Registrar and Librarian.

Report of Committee on Constitution and Canons.

The Committee on Constitution and Canons, to which was referred the proposed new Canon XXIV., of the Rev. Mr. Robert, to be considered during recess of Convention, respectfully report that they have examined the same, comparing it carefully with the present Canon XXIV., and agree that the present is preferable to the proposed: they also ask to be relieved from further consideration of the same.

It is due to the Rev. Mr. Robert to add that a very large part of his Canon agrees word for word with the present. The important changes proposed are:

First—In Section 2, Sub-Section third, and also in Section 3, to change, “three Communicants, two of whom shall be Presbyters,” to “three Presbyters.”

Second—To omit such parts of Sections 12, 13, 14 and 15, as refer to the appointment and duties of the Commissary; the latter to be performed by the judges for triers as they are called in the present Canon.

Third—Section 27, last clause, after the word “trial” (8th line), to omit the words, “it shall be at his option to perform the remaining duties prescribed for him in this Canon, or to delegate them to the clerical members of the Standing Committee,” and insert, “then one of the Bishops of the Dioceses adjoining that of Missouri, shall be invited to perform the duties prescribed in Sections 17, 18, 19, 20 and 21 of this Canon.”

No one of these changes was regarded as desirable by any member of your committee, but may, by a majority of the Convention, and hence the reason for this statement.

Respectfully submitted by the Committee,

FRED’K B. SCHEETZ,
Chairman.

APPENDIX No. 17.

Report of Standing Committee on Missions.

The past year is signalized by a new departure in Missionary activity.

The beginning of this was shown in the last Convention in the new Canon providing for an increase in the membership of the Missionary Board.

The report of the Secretary of the Board will show what has been accomplished, and while the results may not have been all that were hoped for, there is enough to show at least the dawn of a brighter day.

What has been done even in a time of unparalleled financial disturbance, is an incentive and encouragement for doing more.

Your committee recognizes the fact that the sustentation of the work already instituted in the city and in the country, is something that must be provided for, and the regular Missionary Pledges may surely be depended upon for that.

Beyond this the cause of Church Extension comes to us now appealing with mighty force. The opportunity is especially an open one in the rapidly growing city of St. Louis. In the last ten years a growth of from 250,000 to nearly 600,000, means possibly, we may say probably, in the next ten, a million inhabitants. This shows already a great many changes of habitable districts, much disturbance of Church and Parish affiliations. How many of our weak and wayward ones we are losing, and how many of the disturbed inquiring ones we might bring safely into the fold, if we could only make provisions for more pastoral oversight and establish new centers of aggressive work in new neighborhoods.

Between St. George's Church on Pendleton and Olive, and the Church of the Ascension in Cabanne, there is no Church or Mission station, although there is a population of 40,000 between those points. On the north side there is substantially the same situation. Grace Church almost alone bravely ministering to a large population, bound to be increasing. On the south side St. John's Church and St. Stephen's are doing heroic work among the poor, and such work is so blessed that there ought to be a great deal more of it.

In the face of so much to be done, in the face of such an opportunity as we have to-day, what can we do? What shall we do? Shall we fold our arms and say, we are too feeble, too few and too poor, to keep up with this immense increase of population?

Shall we confess ourselves an insignificant poverty stricken sect of mighty respectable people, content to stay where we are and keep our own lovely little Parishes agoing, or shall we be true to ourselves, true to our rich Catholic heritage, our noble Prayer Book, our Episcopal order, and say to the people we have something for you, something we wish you to have, something which we are glad to give.

If we take the right course, the manly course, we must seize opportunities, we must reach out for good locations, corner lots; we must build temporary Chapels or hire rooms, and send out live preachers, establish Sunday-schools, visit from house to house, and gather in our own and all the others who will come with them.

This means effort, this calls for money, this means larger and more liberal giving.

Your committee has not a word of reproach for the Church people of this Diocese in the matter of giving. They have learned to give and to give generously, and are the richer for it; but in the face of an immense need when worldly wisdom and spiritual aspiration point in the same direction, we appeal to you most earnestly to give more, to do more, to pray more, and we can assure you all, that your individual Parish and corporate life will be quickened thereby, and instead of a hopeless indifference, we shall have a healthy activity in the grand work that the Master has given us to do.

W. A. HATCH.

C. G. DAVIS.

APPENDIX No. 18 A.

Report of Secretary of Orphans' Home.

EASTER TUESDAY, March 27th, 1894.

Our home has again been invaded by infection and disease. A siege of scarlet fever has been its Lenten cross. The epidemic has been complicated and malignant, proving fatal to the life of one of its victims. Through a long and trying period of care and anxiety, ten children have been nursed back to health and strength.

Last year the Secretary's report called attention to the inconvenient and necessarily ineffectual method of quarantining the sick in the main building, and to the great need of a detached infirmary. This need has become more pressing. It is urgent. We feel that we would be culpable longer to shirk or postpone the responsibility resting upon us. Two successive seasons of epidemic, continuing in each case through a period of several months, convince us that we must take some steps toward accomplishing our purpose of erecting an infirmary. We have too much heart in our cause, and too much faith in our friends to entertain any thought of failure.

There is another importunate consideration which urges prompt action. It is that, aside from the disadvantage and labor of caring for the sick under our present conditions, our charity is hampered during the whole period of these epidemics; for at such times, as there is no certain method of protecting those who are in health, from the infection, we dare not assume the risk of admitting applicants, be they never so needy and deserving of help.

Thus, in this present case, our doors have been closed and our hands tied since November, and this during a period of financial stringency when the distress of the poor has been unusual and extreme. Such long suspensions of the work which is the chief object of our institution, would be obviated by erecting a separate and independent house of isolation. So equipped we could proceed with our regular work without interruption. For this purpose we have set aside from funds in hand the sum of $1,000, a bequest of Mrs. John J. Mitchell; the sum of $150, being the proceeds of the sale of a portion of the land left to the Home as a legacy, by Mr. Theodore Betts; $1,350 being the proceeds of the sale of the right to use the partition wall of the Olive street property, and finally several contributions amounting to $50, making a sum total of $2,550. We hope that our friends will not be slow in adding to our nest egg.

We feel sure that fathers and mothers, who are grateful for the gifts of life and health to their own precious treasures, will aid us in building an asylum for the care of our sick children. Bereaved parents, in memory of those who are gone, will surely not slight their opportunity to help us to help others or fail to show their love of the Master by feeding His lambs.

No precaution has been omitted, or effort spared to secure proper sanitation in the building through the inspection by the officers of the City Board of Health and the thorough fumigation of the building after the epidemics.

The needs of the sick have largely increased the demands upon the time and skill of Dr. Saunders and others of our medical staff. We have, therefore, been placed under renewed obligations for their disinterested labors. Of this staff Dr. Todd, always ready to respond to our call in behalf of the sick, has recently passed to his reward.

No appeal to our legal counselor, Mr. Thomas K. Skinker, has ever failed to elicit his prompt response and secure for us his cordial and valuable advice. The Church guilds have come to our assistance in making up clothing for the children. The visiting clergy, whenever called upon, have responded to our invitation to conduct services at the Home. The use of the Schuyler Memorial House, during the time of infection and for special occasions, has been extended to the Board for its meetings. Mr. Fetherstone has continued his military training at the Home. For all of these services, and for the continued and earnest work of our faithful chaplain, the Rev. B. E. Reed, we desire to express our cordial and hearty appreciation.

We are fortunate to have retained the services of our matron and our teacher, who have been doing painstaking and efficient work, especially through the long and trying epidemic.

Christmas, Thanksgiving and Fourth of July have been celebrated according to our custom. The Exposition, Fresh Air Mission, and visits to the parks during the summer have all contributed to break the monotony of the daily routine. We have received during the year twenty children. The number is small, because of the epidemic. There has been one death from scarlet fever; twenty-five children have been restored to parents or friends; one has run away; six have been adopted, and two have been indentured. Present number in the Home, fifty-four.

Notwithstanding the hard times we have been obliged to have unusual repairs made on the building and some painting done, in order to preserve the woodwork; so that we are able to announce that at present the Home is, throughout, in a satisfactory condition of repair.

In behalf of the Board of Managers this report is respectfully submitted.

MRS. EDWIN HARRISON,

Secretary.

Louisiana, Clarksville and Prairieville practically amount to one Missionary Parish, as they are all under one Rector, and his time is divided among them. 15 have been confirmed at Louisiana, 4 at Prairieville and 6 at Clarksville, to which should be added 2 received to Communion from Roman Church, making a total of 27 brought to Communion during the past year in this Missionary jurisdiction. The work here is going ahead, but we wish to become self-sustaining and therefore ask for light assessments. The Parishes are now raising $300 more than when the present Rector took charge, but we shall have to increase $200 more before we are thoroughly independent and self-sustaining.

Prairieville Church is out in the woods, the membership is from the farming community within a radius of ten miles. They can only come to church when the roads are good. Only one Sunday a month can be given there, and as that service is sometimes missed by most of the communicants, church enthusiasm is hard to keep up. Many of the members are poor, and as the whole farming interest is depressed; even those who have good farms, have little ready money.

The Parish is suffering for a time from removals into the western part of the city, and from the dropping out of many because of the hardness of the times. It is hoped, by God's blessing, that the next Annual Report will be a more favorable one, and that the completion of plans now developing will result in the revival of interest and lead to greater success. It is a cause for thankfulness that the congregation is growing in spiritual health.

Respectfully submitted,
 P. G. ROBERT.

The present Rector, Rev. Philip Williams Fauntleroy, took charge of the Parish as Lay Reader on April 23, 1893. He was ordained Deacon on January 7, 1894. When he took charge the Parish was in a sadly demoralized condition, and being utterly unable to support a minister, he was compelled to continue his practice as a lawyer for the necessary support and maintenance of himself and family, serving the Church only on Sundays, and unable to do any Parochial work, such as visitation, etc., in the Parish.

But, through the noble and generous liberality and aid of a few good Christian men and women, the Parish has been able to effect an arrangement whereby the present Rector will be afforded such necessary support and maintenance, as will enable him to devote his whole time and energies to the work of the Rectorship of the Parish, abandoning the practice of the law. We therefore hope, with God's blessing on the work, to be able to report to the next Convention such substantial growth and progress all along the line, as will gladden the hearts of all who are interested in St. James' Parish. Amen.

This Mission has suffered extremely by the general hard times that have prevailed continuously since the last report, and particularly from the embarrassments of the great coal companies and the strikes of the miners. Two of these, one of which is on now, with no very hopeful prospect of its termination. All these operate as discouragements, inducing some to go away and others threatening to do so.

There is no Parish more punctual to its pecuniary engagements than this. At the moment of writing no salary is due the writer, and the accruing month's stipend will be paid almost as soon as it matures. I wish, earnestly, that in this and many other ways, (notably in good attendance at Sunday and Lenten Services) Ferguson might be copied universally. May she find just the man she now wants, is my parting prayer.

Indebtedness is for Church Building only, on loan made by Building Association. Dues and interest paid to January 1, 1895. Church property worth $4,000.

Trinity Church is still without a Rector. There have been held services about four times in the year by Rev. Father J. L. Gay and Rev. F. N. Atkin, of Bevier and Macon. The Bishop made his annual visit March 7th, 1894. The church building is in a sadly dilapidated state, and cannot be repaired until some debts, incurred by macadamizing the road and laying a brick sidewalk, have all been met, amounting to two hundred and thirteen dollars ($213.00). When a new minister will be able to get even a partial support, we are not able to say.

Little work has been done this year in the Mission, as all time has been given to St. Mark's school; hence, the apparent slow growth. I wish to call the attention of the Committee on Assessments to the fact that our Communicant list is continually fluctuating on account of a large proportion of Communicants being boys attending the school.

Of the 45 Sunday services in the Cathedral, Rev. A. W. Mann officiated six times alone, and four times assisted by me, at the remaining 35 services I officiated alone.

I have attended 13 Brotherhood of St. Andrew's meetings, St. Thomas' Chapter, and assisted at eight services outside of the Diocese.

I have officiated twenty times at Kansas City within the year, twice at Jacksonville, Ill., once at Joliet, Ill., and once at Chicago, Ill. At Kansas City I have brought six to Baptism, and seven to Confirmation.

Aside from Marriages, Baptisms and Brotherhood meetings, I have officiated 59 times within the year.

The Mission is not in financial debt, but it owes a great debt of gratitude to the Bishop, Clergy, and Officers of the Cathedral, and to the Sexton, for the many favors and privileges enjoyed.

The appointment as Diocesan Missionary for Church work among the deaf is desired, provided it would be a relief to Rev. A. W. Mann. Twelfth Sunday after Trinity, offerings will be acceptable for the expense of work among the Deaf in the Diocese.

Do not know what these amount to in the year; $30 or $35 perhaps.

APPENDIX D.

 Personal.

FROM REV. ED. F. BERKLEY, D. D., ST. LOUIS.

To the Rt. Rev. Daniel S. Tuttle, D. D., LL.D., Bishop of Missouri:

RT. REV. AND DEAR SIR:—I am still lying on my oars, drifting, waiting. Baptisms, 4. Marriages, 2. Funerals, 2.

ST. LOUIS, 1894.

FROM CHAS. H. CANFIELD.

To the Rt. Rev. Daniel S. Tuttle, D. D., LL. D., Bishop of Missouri:

During the past year I have resided at this place without rectoral charge, but have been active in helping my brethren as far as their needs. At different times have assisted the Rectors of the churches at Bevier, Macon, Moberly and Mexico. From Passion Sunday to Easter, I spent the time with Dr. Brown, of St. Paul, Mexico, and gave assistance. Have attended one funeral outside of the Church. The work, so far as I know, has been very acceptable, and, I hope, will bring forth fruit in time to come that will be for the advancement of the Kingdom of God. Some invitations I have not been able to accept. Assisted the Bishop when he visited our Mission, March 7th, 1894.

KIRKSVILLE, MO., April 29, 1894.

FROM REV. G. W. COBB, ST. LOUIS.

Full report of all ministerial acts performed by me since my ordination, January 7th, 1894, as required by Canon XIII., Sec. 3.

To the Rt. Rev. Daniel S. Tuttle, D. D., LL.D., Bishop of Missouri:

RT. REV. AND DEAR SIR:—I have officiated at Daily Even Prayer at Cathedral, 16; Friday Even Prayer and address, 1; total number, 17. Baptisms of Children and Infants at Bethel, 4; Burials at Bethel, 4. These ministerial acts are all on record at Cathedral.

At Grace Church, during absence of Rev. Dr. Ingraham: Morning Prayer and Sermon, commencing April 8th, 5; Baptism of Infants, 1. I suppose these are on record at Grace Church.

ST. LOUIS, May 14, 1894.

FROM REV. J. GIERLOW, PH. D.

To the Rt. Rev. Daniel S. Tuttle, D. D., LL. D., Bishop of Missouri.

RT. REV. AND DEAR SIR:—During the last conventional year I have assisted in, or conducted ministrations of the Church as opportunity offered. My private priestly acts have been: Baptisms, adults, 2; infants, 7; burials, 4.

ST. LOUIS, May 1, 1894.

FROM REV. GEO. H. HUNT.

To the Rt. Rev. Daniel S. Tuttle, D. D., LL. D., Bishop of Missouri.

RT. REV. AND DEAR SIR:—During the past year I have exercised the functions of my ministry whenever possible, I have only to regret that the occasions afforded me have been so infrequent and rare, notwithstanding the abundant field all around me. It seems hard that I must remain idle when there is so much to do, and where so much might be done; but I can only avail myself of such opportunities as are afforded me, and strive patiently to await the opening of some door to more abundant usefulness. Why the Church should leave any of her clergy unemployed who are eager and anxious to work, is a problem which I cannot solve; but so it is, and I must even submit. The responsibility for this must rest somewhere, and I only am anxious myself to escape it by using all due diligence and making every proper effort in my own behalf.

I have held services since May 2, 1893, upon one or more occasions, in Trinity Church, De Soto; Grace Church, Crystal City; St. Paul's, St. Louis; celebrating Holy Communion six times and preaching sixteen sermons. Besides I have assisted several of the city clergy, more or less, frequently, and have baptized one infant, officiated at one burial and solemnized one marriage.

ST. LOUIS, May, 1894.

REPORT OF REV. A. W. MANN, GENERAL MISSIONARY TO DEAF MUTES.

To the Rt. Rev. Daniel S. Tuttle, D. D., LL. D., Bishop of Missouri.

Most of what has been reported by me in past years regarding the work among the deaf of St. Louis and vicinity will now be reported by my co-worker, the Rev. James H. Cloud, Minister in charge of St. Thomas Mission. I may, however, be allowed to report having taken services for him during his absence in Kansas City; and having assisted him at a confirmation at the Cathedral on last Palm Sunday.

Outside of St. Louis I have officiated twice, and administered holy baptism in Christ Church, Rolla. In the first service, which was "combined," the Rev. Mr. Higson read the service and sermon and I interpreted. A deaf-mute man came twenty miles on horseback to this service. Twenty-five years had passed since he had attended religious ministrations at the school at Fulton. Many like him are isolated from these blessed privileges. The Church should have a larger force of Missionaries versed in sign language in order to meet their needs.

Prayer Books and Tracts on the Church have been distributed, as in past years, with very good results. For donations of books the Mission in St. Louis is indebted to the generosity of the Bishop White Prayer Book Society, of Philadelphia.

In July, 1893, a conference of Church workers among the deaf was held in All Angels' Mission, Chicago. The presence of workers from England and Ireland gave it an international character. Mr. Cloud and I participated in the proceedings. We also attended a congress of deaf-mutes the following week. I opened the first session with prayer and afterwards presented a paper on Church work among the deaf in the United States.

The Mid-Western Deaf-Mute Mission covers the Dioceses of Pittsburgh, Ohio, Southern Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Western Michigan, Chicago, Quincy, Springfield, Missouri, West Missouri, Iowa, Minnesota, Milwaukee and Fond du Lac, so that my sphere of travel is quite large. Three-fourths of my time since the beginning of the work in 1875 has been spent away from home.

The expenses of the work are met out of twelfth Sunday after Trinity offerings, and the small offerings taken up at deaf-mute services.
