The motion of the Rev. R. E. L. Craig, at the last Convention, was referred to this Committee (see p. 22, 23, Journal). This Committee is of the opinion that it would be unwise to adopt or prescribe a uniform system of Sunday school instruction throughout the Diocese other than the Church Catechism.

The Committee would, however, strenuously urge upon the Clergy and their helpers in Sunday school work, the teaching of the Church Catechism most thoroughly, as the rubric and the canons direct, to the end, among other things, that this foundation of the intellectual part of the instruction of children for confirmation may not be left to their final class preparation for that apostolic rite.

Also, your Committee would advise that attendance upon the regular Church Services be made (when and as far as it can be) part of the duty of Sunday school scholars, and, if possible, with their families. And that effort be made at Sunday school, as part of its work, to train the children to take part in the Church Services, carefully teaching them the hymns, canticles and other appointed forms.

Respectfully submitted,

EDWARD PORTER LITTLE,
Chairman, on Behalf of the Committee.

Memorial to the late Secretary of the Convention, John Richards Triplett:

John Richards Triplett was born in Richmond, Va., December 26, 1831. He was educated at the Episcopal High School, in Fairfax County, Va., near Alexandria, and at the University of Virginia. January, 1853, he came to St. Louis, Mo., where he lived until his death, March 21, 1902.

In 1854 he married Miss Sallie Walker, daughter of Major Benjamin Walker, U. S. Army. He was confirmed by Bishop Johns in Christ Church, Alexandria, the old church where Washington worshiped, and when coming to St. Louis, became a communicant of Christ Church (now the Cathedral), and for forty-nine years his life and conduct illustrated the highest type of Christian character; and his intelligent, faithful, energetic and inestimable service to the Church of his devotion is attested by the official records of the Diocese of Missouri, and impressed upon the grateful hearts and memories of his clerical and lay brethren in Christ. He was for thirty years Secretary (and, indeed, parliamentary guide) to the annual councils of the Church, and Deputy from this Diocese to eight General Conventions.

He died, as he lived, sustained by an unfaltering faith in the atoning merit and mediation of his crucified and risen Redeemer, who, in his youth, spoke to him the words of eternal life, and in whose death, his sins were all dead.

In infancy he was consecrated in baptism to the service of his Saviour by Bishop Moore in the old Monumental Church in Richmond, and in his early manhood he chose that "Living Way" which leads no traveler's foot astray from the realms of love; and now we, to whom he has left the radiance of his spotless life upon earth, may follow him to the blest abode of peace above.

Resolved, That the Rt. Rev. President be authorized to certify to the record of this day's proceedings of this Convention.

On motion of Mr. D. F. Leavitt, the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That this Convention return its most hearty thanks to Mrs. Ten Broeck and her associates for the bountiful and delightful lunches served during our session.

The hour of recess having arrived, the Convention took recess until 2:30 o'clock p. m.

The Convention reassembled at 2:30 p. m.

The House then went into the election of a Treasurer of the Diocese.

The following was nominated to be Treasurer of the Diocese:
Mr. I. Shreve Carter.

On motion of Mr. H. H. Denison, the Secretary was instructed to cast the ballot of the Convention for Mr. I. Shreve Carter as Treasurer of the Diocese for the ensuing year.

The Secretary so cast the ballot.

The Rt. Rev. President thereupon declared Mr. I. Shreve Carter duly elected Treasurer of the Diocese for the ensuing year.

The Rev. E. Duckworth, Chaplain of St. Luke's Hospital, presented and read his report. (See Appendix No. 14A.)

On motion of Rev. F. M. Weddell, the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That this Convention tenders its sympathy to the Rev. Russell Todd, who is prevented by illness from being present.

On motion of Rev. E. Duckworth, the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That the Handbook of the Diocese, prepared by Mr. Charles Sparks, be referred to the Missionary Board for consideration.

Rev. H. W. Mizner, Chairman of the Committee on Missionaries' Traveling Expenses, presented and read the report of the Committee. (See Appendix No. 16.)

The report was unanimously adopted.

There being no further business before the house, the Rt. Rev. President announced that after the singing of the Gloria in Excelsis, and the reading of the appropriate collects by the Very Rev. C. M. Davis, this Convention would be adjourned sine die.

ANNUAL ADDRESS OF THE
BISHOP OF MISSOURI
TO THE
SIXTY-THIRD CONVENTION.

DEAR BRETHREN—The years glide by. They are freighted with responsibilities. They are filled full with the changes and chances of this mortal life. In one way or another we mark them off and speak of one of them as gone, and another of them as come. And the markings are times to count up the past, what we have done and what we have been and what we are, and to forecast the future, what we want to be and what we ought to do. It is in our very nature to need such times for marking and accounting. And the Church Militant in a world of responsibilities and changes could not well fight a good fight without them. A Diocesan Convention, therefore, is not an occasion gotten up for the cold and formal telling of facts and citing of figures. It is a philosophical entity. It is an outgrowth of church life, a marking of church progress, a celebration of church success. Or, if there be failure instead, it is a fit opportunity for wholesome church confession.

Four of my brethren in the House of Bishops have departed during our year of record.

Bishop Littlejohn preached the sermon at my ordination to the Diaconate, June 29, 1862, in the Church of the Transfiguration, New York City, since widely known as the "Little Church Around the Corner." He was then rector of the Church of the Holy Trinity, Brooklyn. He was learned and eloquent, and a wise Bishop for thirty years. It is understood that it was he who formulated the four principles as pre-requisites for Christian Unity which have become known as the Chicago Quadrilateral, and later as the Chicago-Lambeth Quadrilateral.

Bishop Whipple was one of the most strikingly picturesque figures that have trodden the stage of our American church history. Earnestness, industry, intrepidity, godliness and zeal were his characteristics. Missionary enthusiasm spread a bright halo over the earlier part of his forty-two years as Bishop; while the latter part, all through America and in England as well, was accompanied by "honor, love, obedience, troops of friends."

Bishop Burgess was a neighbor over our eponymous river. And he did neighborly things, helping our Diocese in its time of vacancy and visiting Bishop Robertson Hall on its commencement day. His expertness in parliamentary law made him a valuable member of the House of Bishops. Before being made Bishop he had been the presiding officer of the House of Deputies in the General Convention. The only other case that I know of, of such presiding officer becoming a Bishop, is that of Rev. Dr. Croes, who presided in the General Convention of 1814 and the year afterward became Bishop of New Jersey.

Bishop Spalding was my neighbor when I was Bishop of Utah. When he had charge of Wyoming I helped him to look after the Parish of Evanston in the extreme west of his field. For fourteen years he was a Missionary Bishop and for about the same length of time a Diocesan Bishop, and in either office was untiring in watchfulness and abounding in labors.

From the ranks of our own Clergy two have fallen out, Rev. William Bardens and Rev. Charles G. Davis.

Mr. Bardens, in Trinity, St. Louis, gave to the Diocese eleven years of service. And it was faithful, godly, zealous, self-denying service, as much so as any I have ever known. Devoted in his own immediate line of priestly duty, and disinclined to any interference with others in criticism or controversy, his was a career of singleness of aim, simplicity of life and strenuousness of endeavor. When rest came I am sure it was sweet.

Mr. Davis was very near and dear to me. For nearly fifteen years he was in this Diocese at Ironton, De Soto, Crystal City, Macon, Jefferson City and Ferguson. And for fifteen other years he was by my side in Utah, teacher, deacon, priest. I confirmed him. I ordered him deacon and priest. I buried him. These markings, in a sense, sum up a good man's life of fidelity and helpfulness and loyalty and love, and link in with it my past and my present most touchingly.

Deaths in the Diocese have been so many as to emphasize the truth that this earth is not the land of the living. It is the land of the dying. The other, not this, is the land of the living.

Mrs. Hugh Campbell, of St. Louis, fell asleep in advanced old age, but an old age which to the very last kept itself in touch with the cheerfulness of the young, and was sweetened and refreshed by its own sympathy and benevolence. Only a little less old, Mrs. Johnson, of Rolla, widow of our former faithful Missionary there and herself a most faithful Missionary, went away from a large mourning household of children and grandchildren. Miss Rebekah Parker left us sorrowful and amazed that God's wisdom should withdraw so much of sweet and efficient goodness from this needy world. Mrs. Worley, of Montgomery; Mrs. Stewart, of Louisiana; Sister Mary; Mrs. Staples and Mrs. Martin Collins, of St. Louis, were among the most zealous churchwomen of the Diocese.

Among the men summoned away are Mr. H. H. Curtis, of St. Louis, and Mr. Robinson, of Old Orchard, the latter a very Brother Cheeryble of hope and helpfulness. Mr. Wayman McCreery, almost from boyhood, had been zealously active in promoting the service of song in the Lord's sanctuary and he is greatly missed. While to-day a new voice at the Secretary's desk in this Convention, most acceptable though it be, reminds us sadly that we no longer have the presence and the guidance and the help of one who for twenty-nine years filled that important office. And Mr. Triplett filled the office completely, dutifully, untiringly, acceptably to men, faithfully for the Church, and, I do not hesitate to say, with a conscious, loving devotion to the Church's Divine Head. I will not anticipate aught of the tribute which I am sure the Convention will wish to render in grateful memory of his services. I only want to bear witness that the sixteen years in which he and I have stood side by side are one long record of such diligent, efficient, uncomplaining, unselfish, kindly helpfulness on his part as, I feel sure, no other Bishop or Diocese could overpass.

The recital of our diptychs sounds a warning. We are not always to be here for the marking of the year out and the year in. May God have us ready, each one, through the mercies of the Saviour, when the empty chair or the changed new face in it tells up the tale of our story. And with a sort of cheery readiness, too.

"For, lo, there breaks a yet more glorious day;
The saints triumphant rise in bright array;
The King of Glory passes on His way.
Alleluia!"

In the Diocese, encouragement is the watchword. The number confirmed is five hundred and sixty-five, fifteen more than last year. Canton has added to its little church (which, by the way, was built by our own Rev. Mr. Scheetz) a modest recess chancel, and a vestry room, in which, as could not be done before, more than two persons can turn themselves about without disagreeable personal collision. Kirkwood is also enlarging its church, and, by the aid of one of our generous St. Louis laymen, has secured an assistant minister to stand by its faithful rector in the missionary work all around about which he has on his hands. Thayer has built of stone one of the prettiest churches in the Diocese and has paid for it. Under the wise pastoral guidance of the rector of St. Mark's, St. Louis, Epiphany has put up its own church. Ascension, St. Louis, and Macon are preparing to build new churches. St. Paul's, St. Louis, has added a guild room. Ironton has secured a rectory. Fredericktown and Poplar Bluff, two new mission stations, are planning to build churches. Palmyra, with its proposed new organ, and Moberly, with its aroused parish life under Rev. Mr. Burke, move cheerily on. Trinity, Hannibal, attacked fiercely more than once by the fire fiend, has driven him back and triumphs in repairs and betterments. All Saints', St. Louis, under its most faithful pastor, Rev. Mr. Mason, is even more than ever before a central hive of busy good work.

And the Diocese is well manned. Only three mission stations are vacant; Ironton, La Plata and Shelbina. Of these, only the first can, at present, think of sustaining a minister. I had hoped to report to the Convention one new mission, to-wit: St. John's, Washington. It was indeed pronounced an organized mission on December 23d. But habits of migration with which Americans are familiar have taken away from Washington quite all of those who were interested in the mission. Therefore, it is deemed best by all concerned that this mission should be considered de-organized and terminated.

This incident shows how difficult it is to forecast the future in the question of organizing and establishing new mission stations, and explains how it is that the Bishop has visited or visits with some regularity the following towns without yet deciding it to be a wise step to organize and establish a mission in each of them: Bonne Terre, Centralia, Clarence, Dexter, Roe Run, Edina, Farber, Farmington, Fulton, Glenwood, Grandin, Gregory Landing, Hermann, Hunnewell, Huntsville, Jackson, Jefferson Barracks, Jennings, LaBelle, Malden, Nadine, Paris, Piedmont, Salem, Sullivan, Troy, Vandalia, Wentzville.

Yet, it will not be denied that the yearly holding of services in these places does good. In one of them, Jennings, a member of our Diocesan Missionary Board and a lay reader, Mr. Charles Sparks, is the superintendent of a union Sunday school. He serves most acceptably to the entire community, and finds a way year by year for the blessed work of preparing two or three persons for confirmation.

I venture to report the mission of St. Chrysostom, St. Louis, as de-organized and terminated.

One of our missions is unique. I mean St. Thomas', St. Louis, consisting of deaf mutes, served by our deaf brother, Rev. Mr. Cloud. There are fifty-eight communicants. Look in the Church News and see how they paid the Diocesan Assessment and also gave $38.00 for Diocesan Missions last year. The Cathedral with its Bofinger Chapel gives a church home to St. Thomas'. Mr. Cloud is a very valuable man for Church work among his people. He wants to cease from his teaching in the public school, whereby now he supports his family, and to give himself up entirely to missionary work among his silent brethren of this and surrounding Dioceses. I am in correspondence with other Bishops about the plan. He must have $1,500 per year. I hope Missouri can give $400 to this sum. I shall be glad and grateful to be helped in any way prudently to carry out this plan.

The tone throughout the Diocese of unselfish loyalty towards missions makes me glad and proud.

1. There is St. Stephen's Mission, St. Louis. It does blessed work. Near half a thousand children are there to be looked after. The poor and the sick press in crowds. It is a center of light and help in the midst of a community otherwise largely churchless. Its doors are open all the time. Its work never lets up. One hundred and seventy-five communicants are there. With their nickels and pennies they gave about $400 last year. Their needs have gathered the West End Parishes and people around about them in a union of benevolence and beneficence. The Woman's Auxiliary has steadily kept up its $1,000. Other givers have furnished nearly $2,000. And so this most valuable mission work has gone on. We can not be too grateful to Rev. Mr. Mizner or to those who are holding up his hands and cheering his heart. Specially I am thankful to the women collectors in the different Parishes for their steadiness of tread in walking by my side in securing the $1,000 per year, which is an absolutely necessary foundation of wholesome supply. We owe a duty, do we not, to the lower and neglected part of our great City of St. Louis? In trying to discharge that duty, am I wrong in counting it a happy circumstance that the men and women of all the city Parishes can stand together in united and harmonious effort? Some outside of the city help also, as Old Orchard, Ferguson, Kirkwood, De Soto, Ironton, Hannibal and Palmyra.

The Hospital Missions, under Rev. Mr. Cornell, are along the same line of effort. A noble band of voluntary workers, men and women, stand by him, and givers furnish supplies, and so blessed good is done to the sick and the poor and the stranded ones in our city institutions.

2. There are the children's efforts. Fifty-three Sunday schools have sent in their Lenten offerings for missions, amounting to $1,592.47, a sum $20.00 more than that of last year. Our great Missionary Society doing world-wide work is now counting on the children of the Church for $100,000 this year, the same as last. I think the expectation is justified and will be fulfilled. Then our children give, besides, $1,000 a year to their Bishop, through their Missionary Host, for him to use at his discretion. Bless their hearts all. They do not know what a cheery comfort this Missionary Purse is to him.

3. There is the work of our women. Pledges here and gifts there and boxes everywhere; United Offering and Orphans' Home and Convalescent Home, and Rescue Home, and Giving Tuesdays and Woman's Auxiliary; cheering cheques to Missionary Bishops and a new church at Thayer and a rectory at Ironton and a guild room at Carondelet and a recess chancel at Canton. Figures can not begin to tell the preciousness of it all. Though the figures for last year, $1,197.77 in boxes and $5,654.88 in cash, are no mean ones, indeed.

4. There is our interest in Diocesan Missions. Last year we pledged for them $4,300.75, and $1,174.25 besides for Hospital Missions. And I am proud for Missouri to challenge you to make a strict examination to see how rare a thing it is for any pledge when made to be left unpaid. This year our Missions are more fully manned than I have ever known them to be. Therefore, we need more money for stipends to the increased number of Missionaries. We need your pledges, dear brethren, for $5,575 for our Diocesan Missions and near $2,000 besides for Hospital Missions.

5. There is our record for General Missions. The New York Board of Managers said they must have $525,000 this year from the Dioceses, over and above the $200,000 which they expect from the children and from the Woman's Auxiliary, for the needs of the great missionary work. They apportioned $4,231.68 to Missouri. Then a committee of our own apportioned this sum to the different Parishes. I have been greatly pleased with the good spirit and kindly feeling with which this apportionment has been met everywhere. Our committee will make its own report. Though I can not restrain myself from stating that already from September 1, 1901, to April 1, 1902, Missouri has given $1,655.59, this amount being more than it gave for the whole year previous from September 1, 1900, to September 1, 1901, viz., $1,385.15. Of our fifty-two Parishes apportioned, seven have given more than they were asked for, eighteen have given each the amount asked for, nine have promised to give the amount asked for, twelve are busy raising what they can, four I have not heard from, and only two have said that they could not give anything. I can not think otherwise than that this record is a good one, and I am proud of it. Besides, the year of the Missionary Society does not close till September 1 next, and I am indulging a warm hope that Missouri will come to its full apportionment by that time. The interests of the American nation are intertwined more closely with the whole world than ever they were before. The duty of the American Church to the whole world is emphasized; and that duty can not be discharged along cheap lines or in careless fashion.

Our Church Club is again on its feet. I am glad. It gave a good dinner to some of us Missionary Bishops a while ago. And it talked right good sense after dinner. If our Churchmen can get in touch with each other in the Club and in the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, and can keep in touch and can make the touch tell to the healing of some weaknesses and diseases which arise, what a blessed good it will be. It was the Church clubs of the country that aroused and promoted effectively the good work of securing Bishop Brent for the Philippine Islands.

Our rejoicing upon the good tokens of a missionary zeal all over the Diocese is tempered by the knowledge that one veteran soldier is to retire from active service. With energy unsurpassed and fidelity never questioned and zeal unquenchable, he has borne the burden of pastoral duty through the heat of the day and on into the shades of the evening time. Rev. Dr. Ingraham first appears on the records of the Diocese in the Convention of 1868. No other Clergyman of that year's list, save Mr. Scheetz, is now with us. And, I may add, no layman, either, except J. B. Gazzam, of St. Louis; H. W. Hough, of Kirkwood, and H. C. Lackland, of St. Charles. A whole generation of St. Louis people has grown up under Dr. Ingraham's eyes. A whole generation has faded out and fallen away from their seeing. We extend to him our loving greetings. We thank God for his past of fighting well fought and faith well kept. We pray God for his peaceful future of rest and reward.

During this year an ecclesiastical trial of one of the Clergy of the Diocese, at least through the first stages thereof, became necessary. Certain expenses were incurred. They were mainly for legal services in counsel for the presenters appointed. The Canon provides that necessary expenses shall be audited by the triers and "reported to the next Convention for payment as the Convention may direct." The proceedings ended before the stage of choosing the triers was reached. The Clergyman asked to be deposed. Therefore, it seems the duty of the Bishop to report, as I now do to the Convention, the bill which I have spoken of, which is for $58.50.

There are two general institutions which I wish earnestly to commend to your favorable notice.

One is "The General Clergy Relief Fund." This is the general fund for Aged and Infirm Clergy with headquarters in Philadelphia. Its office and address and facts about it can be learned by looking at the inside of the cover of our Convention Journal. It does a great deal of wide-reaching good. I sincerely wish every Parish would send an offering to it on Quinquagesima Sunday, as the General Convention asks us to do.

The other is "The Clergyman's Retiring Fund Society." It pays a pension to any member who is sixty years old. If there be virtue in the old maxim, "Crede experto," you will be prepared on my testimony to consider it a right good institution. I have drawn my pension now for four years. And I do not pay any dues now, either. I became a member many years ago. I think any Clergyman would do a most wise thing to become a member and so get a little income laid by for himself against his sexagenarian days. The dues are $1.00 per month. The amount of the pension is graduated by the number of months that one has been a paying member. The income from the principal of the fund, which latter is now $175,000, and one-half of all undesignated contributions, go to swell the annuities. The Financial Secretary is Rev. Henry Anstice, D. D., 1917 Waliace street, Philadelphia.

Two matters remain upon which I want to say something.

1. I am sensitively anxious that no slightest reproach may attach to the Diocese of Missouri or to any constituent part of it in the way of breach of trust in holding and directing funds entrusted. Does any Clergyman ever encourage the practice of taking money which was given for one purpose and using it for another purpose? And does he venture to say, "Well, I think that's the best way to use it and it will do the most good that way?" If yes, I venture to tell him that in the world of men, and in American communities pre-eminent for commercial activity and efficiency, his overruling of the plain law of business integrity by some higher law of his own creation will do him more harm than all his preached sermons will do him good. Does any vestry of a Parish or any treasurer thereof defect or retain funds given for outside objects, missions or other, to meet grievously pressing inside needs? If they do, the act is a wrong and a hurt and a shame. It is better for a parish to die of inanition, going down honorably with flag unstained, than under a smirched flag flying, to wax and grow fat from what are really nothing more and nothing less than stolen supplies. I do not know any specific cases. But sometimes it comes to my ears that money pledged, promised, given for certain purposes, does not promptly and fully reach the proper custodians for use for such purposes. Then it makes me wince to think that there can be any such lack of wholesomeness of American honor and Church honesty and the stainless integrity which the Divine Master demands.

2. I am afraid that some Clergymen in their conduct of public services allow themselves to take more liberties than, it seems to me, they have the right to.

For example, they leave out the lesson from the Old Testament. Where do they get this right? The law requires two lessons. The only exception for the minister to avail himself of is laid down in the preface to the Prayer Book, in these words, "On days of fasting and thanksgiving, especially appointed, and on occasions of ecclesiastical conventions and of charitable collections, the minister may appoint such lessons as he shall think fit in his discretion." At the most solemn time of his being ordered priest he has plainly promised, with the help of the Lord, to give his "faithful diligence always so to minister the doctrine and sacraments, and the discipline of Christ, as the Lord hath commanded and as this Church hath received the same." How does he find it in his conscience, then, to set aside or disregard the injunctions and directions of this Church? The Old Testament is the only part of Holy Scripture which our Blessed Lord personally sanctioned. Does it not savor of disloyalty to Him to omit it from its lawful place?

In some regular Parishes perhaps the rubric about the longer exhortation in the office for the Holy Communion is disregarded, which enjoins that it must be said once every month. The first Sunday of the month is the one usually chosen for the regular communion of the congregation. It would seem that on that Sunday the longer exhortation ought always to be said.

To rehearse the commandments once on a Sunday suffices to comply with the law. A habit with some is to limit this rehearsal to the early communion and to omit it at the mid-day service. I can not but deem this a mistake. It is reasonable to claim that it is your massed miscellaneous congregation, not your chosen few of the early service, who especially need the proclamation and the iteration of the divine moral law of the ten commandments. Who shall count the wholesomeness of good result in the constant solemn recital in the ears of busy and sometimes unthoughtful people of this sacred summary of human duty towards our neighbor? I am constrained to add that in the responses to the commandments it seems to me that a more unfit part for the choir to take could not be found. The people all, and not the few of the choir, should cry aloud, "Lord, have mercy upon us, and incline our hearts to keep this law."

There is a prayer for Congress, to be used during its session. Are all Clergymen careful to use it at that time? If the Church is protected and supported by the State in all her plain rights of property and privilege, and if the State evermore finds for reliance her purest and sturdiest citizenship in the soberness and righteousness and godliness of Christian believers, why should not pains be taken to manifest that the American wholesomeness of separation of Church and State does not mean severance of the unity of good will and mutual help? And the prayer for Congress faithfully used might make much in the line of such generous disclaimer.

Is the Litany in some churches used enough to escape the charge of disobedience to the prefatory rule which recites that "Morning Prayer, the Litany, and the Order for the Administration of the Lord's Supper or Holy Communion, are distinct services and may be used either separately or together; provided, that no one of these services be habitually disused?"

Dear brethren of the Clergy, our loyalty to the Church may be a mighty power for good. Let us not allow ourselves to play fast and loose with her laws, her directions, her rubrics. Edification evolved from the depths of our subjectivity is not likely to be as good spiritual nutriment for the souls of our people as the steady providing of what the Church furnishes for them.

Much liberty in arranging services is allowed us, specially since the last change in the Prayer Book of 1892. Grateful for the freedom, let us not spoil its goodness by running riot in unauthorized ways of our own personal likings. But let us keep steady ourselves, and so help to keep our people steady in an age and a time when law and order and loyalty and obedience and steadiness are by no means among the least valuable forces to aim at and to use in efforts to do the good to humanity which we want to do.

Dear Brethren all, after our mutual counsels are over, let us go back home to work and pray and love and hope. That's the sweet spot of earth, home. And the great center force for good. And the chosen seed plot out of which grows the Church. So growing, the Church needs to take and use much of the home's sweetness and considerateness and patience and moral force. So using, the Church can reach the world's heart and lift the world's life even while fighting the world's sin.

17. Gave letter dimissory to Nebraska, to Rev. P. G. Davidson, presbyter.
20. This was a wonderful day for me. I was in Morris, Otsego Co., New York. Zion Church, situated there, was celebrating the 100th anniversary of its existence as a Parish, it having been founded in May, 1801. A small frame building called Harmony Church, served for the first seventeen years. In 1818 the present noble structure of stone was built. In it I preached my first sermon as its deacon pastor, on July 20, 1862. In it I was ordered priest by Bishop Horatio Potter, July 19, 1863. In it, also, my dear wife and I were married, in the early morning of September 12, 1865. On the centennial I first preached, word for word, the sermon which I had preached in the same church near thirty-nine years before, and then I added a reminiscent talk. During the day I also unveiled a tablet placed in the wall of the nave, and I laid the corner-stone of a new Parish house and made an address. Bishop Doane came and preached in the evening. The Rev. G. H. Sterling, our former pastor of Old Orchard, is now the rector of Morris and has been since he left Old Orchard. And his pastorship there is indeed a successful one. Adult baptisms and confirmations have been surprisingly numerous. I remained over Sunday, and, by permission of Bishop Doane, confirmed twenty-one presented by Mr. Sterling. Centennial day fifty communicants were present at the early celebration, and two hundred and fifty at noon-day. The offerings were $185. Mr. Sterling, in his unflagging energy, is building a large parish house for the uses of the Sunday school and the guilds, and for social purposes. The cost is estimated at $3,000. And Mr. Sterling has already in hand for it $2,500. I pray God's guidance and blessing upon his efficient labors. I was rejoiced in heart to find the old country Parish which I served for five years, and which is the only Parish I ever served as pastor, in so healthful and vigorous a condition. The Clergy of the Archdeaconry (a convocation) of the Susquehanna had also gathered, so that a dozen or more of our brethren were present to rejoice with us in the centennial. I spent nearly a week in Morris, and shall long remember the kindly hospitality, as of my own old home, extended to me by dear Mr. and Mrs. Sterling and Edith. Mr. Sterling and I also drove over to Cooperstown, twenty-two miles, where I confirmed nineteen. Later, I went to Cohoes, and addressed the Woman's Auxiliary in a Diocesan meeting; and to my native Parish of Trinity, Windham, where I held services, and visited my younger sister and the graves of my dear father and mother. God's great goodness has spared me to visit, once more, old scenes and friends.

APPENDIX No. 6.

Report of Committee on State of the Church.

Your Committee on the State of the Church begs leave to report as follows:

It cannot be questioned but that a great improvement in church life and feeling has been manifested in the Diocese during the past Convention year. This renewed life has shown itself in an increased number of baptisms and confirmations, and largely increased offerings for missionary work within and without the Diocese.

At the present time nearly every Mission in the Diocese is being supplied by regular ministrations of the word and sacraments; a better condition than has existed for some years.

The work in the Southern Convocation is being carried on with great success by its energetic Dean, who, having secured an assistant, is now able to devote more time and thought to the Missions already established, and for opening up new fields when good opportunities are presented. Judging by the past, we expect to hear of a further extension of missionary work in this great field.

It is very gratifying to learn that offerings to Domestic and Foreign Missions, under the apportionment plan, have been largely increased, and from present appearances every Parish and Mission seems determined to meet the demand made upon it; so that with increased offerings from Parishes, and an increased Lenten offering from the Sunday Schools, we feel that the Diocese of Missouri is realizing its duty to the General Missionary Board of the Church, and showing some gratitude for its fostering care in the past.

The Hospital Mission under the care of Rev. F. W. Cornell and his able assistants, has continued uninterruptedly its blessed work among the sick and the unfortunate. We cannot overestimate the importance of this work, reaching as it does a class who, in the wild swirl of the world, have been drawn from good homes and influences and submerged in its soul-destroying power. Through the efforts of your Missionary many have been placed upon their feet with their faces toward God and true manliness in life.

St. Mark's Memorial Church has succeeded in building a substantial Chapel for the Epiphany Mission, under its fostering care. A large Sunday School has been gathered, and the prospects are bright for the Church in that part of the city where the Mission is located.

The Mission of the Advent, under the care of the Church of the Ascension, is doing a good work, and great hopes are entertained that a permanent Mission will result from the effort now being made.

St. Philip's, notwithstanding heavy demands made upon it for street improvements, has met bravely and promptly paid its liabilities. And a large Sunday School, larger congregations and a deeper spiritual life, promise that this work seems destined to fulfill the hopes of its founders.

In view of these signs of improvement it may seem a little inconsistent for your Committee to point out how inadequate is the effort of the Diocese to meet the increased demands made upon it. Note this: Not a single new Mission or Parish has been started during the past year, and the Bishop is confronted with the serious problem of trying—without means—to keep pace with the growth of population in his Diocese. North, South and West are counties—nearly forty in number—in which are held no regular services of the Church. Your Committee would quote again the report made by the Dean of the Southern Convocation last year: "There are dozens of towns in Southeastern Missouri alone where there are church people who hunger for the ministrations of the Church. Towns ranging in population from one thousand two hundred to five thousand, according to actual statistics. I have found them ready to respond financially toward procuring the services of the Church. The field is white for the harvest."

These words are also true of other portions of the Diocese, as witnessed by the long list of towns which the Bishop mentioned in his address yesterday as having been visited by him.

When we turn to this great and growing City of St. Louis, what a spectacle is presented! This city has grown from four hundred and fifty thousand to six hundred thousand or more, and what have we done as a Diocese to meet the religious needs of the new people? Those well-to-do, who live in the vicinity of well established parishes, are provided for; but what of the teeming populations driven by high rents to the new neighborhoods, built on what ten—yes, even five years ago, were common fields, and which are now well populated districts? Into these fields the denominations are pouring men and money, and our own people are forced to attend these churches and send their children to their Sunday Schools where they are speedily lost to the Church and its influences. In other Dioceses these people form the great body of the Church. Hundreds of young men—clerks, salesmen and mechanics—form the bulk of the population in these new districts, and hundreds—yes, thousands—have had Church training and are only waiting the coming of the Missionary to give him welcome and help.

In view of these facts is it not strange we fail to see the importance of Church extension in this city? The Bishop has only to ask for money to help China, or Japan, or a Western Jurisdiction, and a liberal response is made. Yet, when he pleads as he did yesterday, and has done for years, for his own shepherdless sheep, his words fall on dull ears. What are we to say when a Committee appointed by him at the order of this Convention, receives not a single response to the earnest appeal they made to support a Diocesan Missionary to go to these churchless fields?

How long, Oh Lord! How long is this apathy to last? How long are we going to see our Diocese in this growing state and city failing to keep pace with the increase of population—because we do not take the tide at its flood, and go with the population into the field of their new homes? The field is "white for the harvest." Soon the grain will fall and be lost to us forever. Your Committee feel that a crisis has come, and asks that the Bishop be no longer left to solve the problem alone and without means. In view of all these facts your Committee would offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That a Committee be appointed to raise a sum sufficient to secure a General Missionary, and that when this Committee shall report that the sum has been pledged the Missionary Board be directed, on nomination of the Bishop, to appoint a General Missionary.

Respectfully submitted,

The following Missions are reported vacant:

Ironton, La Plata, and Shelbina.

On December 17, 1901, the Board received an application from members of the Church at Washington, Mo., for permission to organize a Mission at that place, to be known as St. John's, and permission was unanimously granted.

The Board further reports that it made the usual annual campaign in behalf of Diocesan Missions and Missions to the City Institutions, by sending one Clergyman and one Layman to every Parish and Mission in the City and County of St. Louis, and as far as the Board has been able to ascertain, it resulted in an increase of individual pledges toward the pledges made by the different Parishes and Missions in the Convention.

The Board further reports that it will need the sum of $5,575.00 for Diocesan Missions, and $1,600.00 for Missions to the City Institutions.

It presumes to ask that the pledges to be made in the Convention may reach these amounts, for the reason that every Mission in the Diocese is now supplied but three, and it will require these sums to keep them supplied, independent of any additional work that may be done.

Respectfully submitted,

F. J. McMASTER,

Secretary.

To the Rt. Rev. D. S. Tuttle, S. T. D., Bishop of Missouri:

The twenty-first annual report of the Woman's Auxiliary shows progress in nearly every direction. New branches in Thayer and Columbia, and St. Ethelburga's Guild of young girls at the Cathedral give us hope of future workers.

Visits from Bishop Rowe, Bishop Dudley, Bishop Johnson and Bishop Leonard, and Miss Higgins, of our African Mission, have brought us intelligence and enthusiasm, and in return we have been able to send them material aid for their work.

APPENDIX No. 13.

Report of Committee on Constitution and Canons.

The Committee on Constitution and Canons, to whom was referred the report of the Committee on Legal and Uniform Methods of Trusteeships, after considering the matters submitted, beg leave to report that in their opinion it is unnecessary to resort to Canon to attain the ends desired.

The two points involved are trustees for the personal properties of Parishes, and of the Diocese. As to the former, while vestries have no power, by virtue of their charters, to hold or manage personal property, yet by the Articles of Association, Canon X, and as agents and representatives of the congregation, they are empowered to receive, hold and manage such property, sufficient to meet all ordinary requirements.

Each Parish which so desires, is at liberty to provide for its own separate trustees to hold its personal property, so that it seems to the Committee unnecessary to order the duplication of organization by Canon.

In regard to a Board of Trustees for the Diocese, to hold and manage personal property, the only cases where such a Board could act would be for dormant Parishes or for organized Missions.

In the former case Canon X, Section 5, provides in No. 3 of the Articles of Association of a Parish that "all property which belongs to it, or which shall hereafter be acquired by it, or which shall come under its control, is and forever shall be held by it, so long as it continues to own or control it, under the ecclesiastical authority of the Bishop," etc.

This provides against the alienation of the property of a Parish so long as its organization is continued. Should a Parish, for any cause, fail to continue its organization, by not electing a Vestry, or by not making its annual report to the Convention, unless the reasons therefor are satisfactory to the Bishop, then Canon XVII authorizes the Bishop to take such steps as he may deem necessary to preserve the property of such Parishes for the benefit of the Church.

The Canons seem to regard the Bishop as trustee of the property of dormant and defunct Parishes, with power to take such steps as he may deem necessary to preserve their properties "for the benefit of the Church."

In the case of Organized Missions, Canons VIII and IX give ample power to the Bishop and the Missionary Board of the Diocese to make such provisions as may be necessary. Though these provisions may not meet the strict requirements of the law, yet they are sufficient for all ordinary cases.

Your Committee is therefore of the opinion that it is unnecessary to provide by Canon for the duplication of Boards of Trustees, and beg to be relieved from further consideration of the report referred to them.

Respectfully submitted,

Report of Chaplain St. Luke's Hospital.

During this year there have been three Chaplains at St. Luke's Hospital. The Rev. Wm. Bardens, a loyal priest and faithful Chaplain, who passed to his reward on October 19, 1901. His successor was the Rev. H. C. St. Clair, who served three months and resigned about April 1, 1902. The present writer was appointed April 15th, and therefore only served during the two weeks before the end of the year.

On Wednesday evening, May 7th, the graduating exercises of the Training School for Nurses were held in St. Luke's Chapel, when nine nurses received their diplomas at the hands of the Bishop of the Diocese. The valedictory was delivered by the Chaplain and was followed by a very pleasant reception.

For 1901, 130 free patients were treated.....	3,116 days.
For 1902, 126 free patients were treated.....	4,170 days.

This indicates a decrease of 1,496 days, or 15 per cent of the number of days of paid treatment, and an increase of 1,054 days, or 25 per cent of the number of days of free treatment, during the year ending April 30, 1902, as compared with the preceding year, thus showing that the charitable feature of the Hospital's work has shown a substantial gain, and represents a large increased percentage of the total results, that is very creditable to the institution.

Another gratifying result is the fact that during the year just closed special nursing, by the nurses of the Training School, yielded an income of $3,723.75, while the total expenditures for the maintenance of the school, excluding the cost of subsistence and rental of nurses' home, amounted to $2,377.99, or a surplus of $1,345.76 in favor of the revenue of the hospital. This further demonstrates the growing value and usefulness of this important branch as a contributor to the needed funds for hospital work, aside from the great benefit accruing to the welfare of the hospital in other equally important respects, which continues to add largely to the efficiency and popularity of the institution.

8. A member shall not absent himself from the service of the House, unless he have leave or be unable to attend.
9. A member, other than the Chairman of a committee whose report is under consideration, shall not speak more than twice in the same debate, nor longer than ten minutes at a time without leave of the House.

11. When a question has once been determined, it shall stand as the judgment of the House, and shall not again be drawn into debate, except on motion for reconsideration, which must be made by a member who had previously voted in the majority, and all motions to reconsider must be made on the day the vote is taken, or on the next succeeding day.

12. When a question is under consideration, a motion shall not be received, except to lay it upon the table, to postpone it to a certain time, to postpone it indefinitely, to commit it, to divide it or amend it, and motions for any of these purposes shall have precedence in the order herein named. If a motion to lay an amendment on the table be carried, the matter before the House shall be proceeded with as if no such amendment had been offered. The motions to lay upon the table and to adjourn shall be decided without debate. The motion to adjourn shall always be in order.

13. Debate shall not be allowed upon a resolution to refer any motion to a Committee, or to a motion to recommit any subject which has been before a Committee, but the member who offers such resolution or motion may speak for five minutes for the purpose of explaining its object.

14. All amendments may be considered in the order in which they are moved. When a proposed amendment is under consideration, a motion to amend the same may be made. An after-amendment to such second amendment shall not be in order; but when an amendment to an amendment is under consideration, a substitute to the whole matter may be received. A proposition different from the one under consideration shall not be received under color of an amendment or substitute.

All reports recommending or requiring any action or expression of opinion by the House shall be accompanied by a resolution for the action of the House therein.

The apparent decrease in the number of communicants is due to a careful scrutiny of the list, such as was not possible last year, and does not represent any actual falling off in resident confirmed persons, nor, I believe, in actual communicants. No account is taken in the statistics of the presence in the Parish during three-fourths of the year of sixty-seven non-resident students, of whom thirty-one have been confirmed.

Have been without a rector the greater part of the year, except for the first three months of the present year (1902), when Mr. Halsey Werlein, of Sewanee, Tenn., has given very acceptable service, and has organized a choir of twenty boys and young men; and Mr. Werlein has accepted a call from us to take charge after his ordination about July 1, 1902. Also, we are pleased to report a successful effort to dispense with the "Missionary Stipend" from this date, which for so many years has been given us.

Parish affairs are in good condition. Sunday School has more than doubled since November 1, 1901. Church attendance also about nearly doubled, especially at evening services on Sunday. Church and Sunday School finances are well managed, all bills are paid, including minister's salary, and it seems reasonably certain that a rectory will be erected in the near future on a part of the church lot. A surpliced choir of boys and young men, sixteen in number, has recently been organized and is rendering very acceptable service. Sunday evening services have been varied by special musical efforts, and the result has been very gratifying.

St. Mark's has under its charge Epiphany Mission on the South Side. A substantial brick building has been built this year, seating one hundred and fifty people and costing $2,200. It was opened during Lent. We now have over fifty members of the Mission, a Sunday School of sixty, with eight officers and teachers. There were twelve confirmed, two infants and four adults baptized; $14.21 was given by the Sunday School to Missions, $9.18 given to Bishop's Purse. Service and Sunday School are held every Sunday and Holy Communion administered once a month.

This report is filled out to the best of my ability. I came to this Parish in August, 1901. No records outside of those confirmed are here. List of communicants is what we now carry on the rolls. I reach about two hundred people and about seventy-five families.

We have made an addition to the church in the way of a Guild room, forty feet long, twenty-four feet wide, seats about three hundred, lighted by electricity, cost to date $530, paid. Grounds to the church have been put in shape, fences repaired, walks laid, trees planted, brick sidewalk laid.

Yours truly,

F. H. RICHEY.

This report is as near correct as I can make it. Having been sick for some time the register has not been kept written up. As you will readily see, the Church has not made much progress during the past year. We have lost by removal one of our best families. I have tried hard to keep the Sunday School going. Having no regular church services it seems the church people have lost interest. Through the kindness of the Rev. Mr. McKenzie we have had several services during the winter. We are back on assessment and missions, but I hope they will be paid before the Convention convenes. During the year we have had no regular contributions; but in the meantime have collected about $35 for expenses of all kinds. Hoping this will be satisfactory, I am, sincerely yours.

The Woman's Auxiliary of St. Louis have promised almost $100 towards paying this; and we have any time we like to pay the balance in. In the first place we borrowed $272.50 and have paid back $72.76, leaving $199.74 to pay.

The church has been closed for about one-half of the time for the past ten years and for three years continuously before I took charge. As far as I can learn, there were only four confirmations during the ten years. November 1, 1899, I found 21 confirmed persons in the Mission and 12 actual communicants. I have presented 24 for confirmation, including three non-residents. There are now 51 confirmed persons and 38 actual communicants. Only seven out of the 51 show no signs of life or interest. The Guild has increased from 6 members to 21. In 1899 there was a deficit of $200 on the subscription, but we are now entirely out of debt, and all expenses are provided for up to November 1, 1902, and the ladies have $200 on hand for a rectory fund.

It would require larger space to set forth the peculiar conditions in this Mission. Kirksville is the home of Osteopathy. There is a large number of persons who come here to study that branch of medical science; also a great many persons come to be treated. There is also located here one of the State Normal Schools.

The resident Church people here are few. The Mission has its vitality largely from sojourners. Congregation in proportion to number of communicants is exceptionally large. This Mission should be exceptional in its claims upon the Missionary Board, as every year the ministrations of the Church and the accessions thereto are largely from those who are here only for a time.

A site for a church building has been secured and one-half the money paid for it; it is believed the balance will be raised and paid early in June. The lot cost $1,100 and is the most desirable in town. We expect to have a church by the early fall.

The total offerings for all purposes are less than last year, owing to the fact that a sum of money ($546) intended to reduce the principal of the debt had to be reserved to pay for street improvements. Had it not been for this special tax, the payment on the principal would have been $1,000, instead of only $300, as reported. The Mission has no other debts than the mortgage reported.

APPENDIX D.

 Personal.

FROM REV. CHARLES H. CANFIELD, KIRKSVILLE, MO.

To the Rt. Rev. Daniel S. Tuttle, D. D., LL. D., Bishop of Missouri:

RT. REV. AND DEAR SIR:—I have assisted the Rector of Trinity Church, Kirksville, in the Lenten season on week days, and preached for him in the course of the year on two Sunday afternoons.

The Rev. A. P. Crouch has been asked by the resident people in his part of the city to have week day services. I have assisted him in these services and preached a number of times. These meetings are held as Cottage Lectures in Mr. Crouch's house.

Truly yours,

KIRKSVILLE, Mo., April 26, 1902.

CHARLES H. CANFIELD.

FROM REV. G. A. CHAMBERS, JEFFERSON CITY, MO.

To the Rt. Rev. Daniel S. Tuttle, D. D., LL. D., Bishop of Missouri:

During the conventional year I have baptized three infants, officiated at one marriage, celebrated Holy Communion five times, prepared and presented six persons for Confirmation and taken part in three funeral services. All these official acts have either been in or connected with Grace Church, Jefferson City. Besides these, in Grace Church, Jefferson City, I have either held or taken part in thirty services and delivered twenty sermons and addresses.

Sincerely yours,

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., May 1, 1902.

G. A. CHAMBERS.

FROM REV. F. B. SCHEETZ, KIRKWOOD, MO.

To the Rt. Rev. Daniel S. Tuttle, D. D., LL. D., Bishop of Missouri:

BELOVED FATHER IN GOD:—My report called for by Canon is but a repetition of my last. I have done no ministerial work of any kind, being confined to my room almost continuously. With renewed thanks for your kindly remembrances of me.

Yours most thankfully,

KIRKWOOD, Mo., April 16, 1902.

F. B. SCHEETZ.

FROM REV. GEO. H. HUNT.

To the Rt. Rev. Daniel S. Tuttle, D. D., LL. D., Bishop of Missouri:

RT. REV. AND DEAR SIR:—During the past year I have been called upon to conduct but few services, and those only in two congregations, celebrating Holy Communion but once, on Easter Day. Would that I might be far more actively employed and have more frequent opportunities for the exercise of the functions of my ministry! Besides the above, I have administered baptism to a sick child, in extremis, which subsequently died.

Respectfully,

MAY 1, 1902.

GEO. H. HUNT.

FROM REV. P. G. ROBERT.

To the Rt. Rev. Daniel S. Tuttle, D. D., LL. D., Bishop of Missouri:

RT. REV. AND DEAR SIR:—I respectfully report that I have attended service whenever the weather has permitted, and have celebrated at home when unable to go out. I have solemnized one marriage, and baptized two infants, being unable to take part in any public service.

Very faithfully,

P. G. ROBERT.

FROM REV. JAMES COCHRANE QUINN.

To the Rt. Rev. Daniel S. Tuttle, D. D., LL. D., Bishop of Missouri:

RT. REV. AND DEAR SIR:—It gives me great pleasure to report the following ministerial acts performed by me since commencing my work as Minister in Charge of the Advent Mission, 6145 Plymouth Avenue, St. Louis, under appointment by the Rev. Dr. James R. Winchester, Rector of Ascension:

Regular morning services have been held by me at the Advent Mission from January 26, 1902, until May 1, 1902. Also Sunday School every Sunday morning. Administered Holy Communion 11 times; held Sunday services (morning) 14 times; services on week days, 21 in number; administered Holy Baptism to 6 persons; officiated at 1 marriage; I gave confirmation instructions to a class of 13.

The outlook for Advent Mission is an excellent one. It will give a good opportunity to the Board of Diocesan Missions to do an abiding work to the Master. Home work ought to have more attention than is now given to it.

Respectfully submitted.

ST. LOUIS, May 6, 1902.

JAMES COCHRANE QUINN.

FROM REV. ROSS P. CUDDY, ST. LOUIS, MO.

To the Rt. Rev. Daniel S. Tuttle, D. D., LL. D., Bishop of Missouri:

RT. REV. AND DEAR SIR:—I have the honor to report that since my ordination to the Diaconate I have assisted in the celebration of the Holy Communion at 22 services. I have also assisted in 20 regular services of the church, as well as 4 services at the City Hospital. In addition to these I have held services and preached on 81 different occasions. During my ministrations, I have baptized 4 infants and one child.

Yours respectfully,

ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 28, 1902.

ROSS P. CUDDY.

FROM REV. FRED'K. W. CORNELL, ST. LOUIS, MO.

To the Rt. Rev. Daniel S. Tuttle, D. D., LL. D., Bishop of Missouri:

RT. REV. AND DEAR SIR:—I have the pleasure to report as follows:

HOSPITAL MISSIONS REPORT.

Celebrations—Holy Communion, Public, 99; Holy Communion, Private, 30; Other Hospital Services, 156; Morning and Evening Prayer (City Churches), 25; Baptisms, 42; Marriages, 7; Burials, 9.

The Missions are all in good condition, the services are well attended and the young men and women helpers are very faithful. The same story may be told each year of clothing, delicacies, literature and railroad fares supplied to the sick and needy. This year $335 has been contributed and earned for that purpose; $275.48 has been spent and $59.52 remains as a balance.

This year has witnessed an attempt on the part of the Mission to supply what has long been needed, to-wit, a home where young girls and women who have made missteps may find a refuge, without which it is almost impossible to help them. This work has been inaugurated, is going steadily on, and we hope to see the house opened before very long.

Respectfully submitted,

FRED'K. W. CORNELL.

SECTION 1. Offerings shall be made annually in every Church in this Diocese for the following purposes, namely:

First. For the increase of the Permanent Fund for the support of the Episcopate, which shall be made on the Second Sunday in Lent, or on one of the Sundays nearest thereto.

Second. For the increase of the fund for relief of Clergymen disabled by age or disease, and of the widows and orphans of deceased Clergymen, which shall be made on Christmas day or the Sunday nearest thereto.

Third. For the support of the theological students in the Diocese, which shall be made on the Third Sunday in Advent.
