

Godly Play Assistant Teacher

St. Mark's Episcopal Church, a vibrant parish in St. Louis Hills, seeks a part-time Godly Play assistant teacher to join our children's ministry team. Godly Play is a Montessori-based Christian education curriculum. At St. Mark's, Godly play includes children who range in age from 3-12. Godly Play takes place year-round and includes anywhere from 3-12 children depending on the week.

Responsibilities

- Work alongside St. Mark's Godly Play lead teach to prepare materials for Sunday instruction.
- Arrive at St. Mark's by 9:15 on Sunday mornings, prepared to lead Godly Play beginning at 9:30am.
- Adhere to Safe Church Guidelines and invest in meaningful relationships with the children and families of St. Mark's. The children who participate in Godly Play range in age from 3-12 years old.

Skills Needed

- Ability to collaborate in team setting
- Flexibility and patience with children
- Strong communication skills, invitational attitude with children and families
- Experience participating in faith community, and familiarity with Bible stories
- Desired but not required: Previous training and experience in Godly Play curriculum; training will be provided if needed

Time and Compensation

- 3 hours weekly, on Sundays
- $20/hour

To Apply

Please send cover letter and resume to parishoffice@saintmarks-stl.org to apply. All applicants will also be required to pass a background check.
